Talented defensive specialist signs with CU volleyball

Sarah Bradshaw signs a letter of intent to play volleyball at Cedarville University. She is joined by (left to right) her sister, Bethany, mother, Mary Beth, and CU head coach Doug Walters.

1/11/2010

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Head coach Doug Walters has added another key recruit to his 2010 Cedarville University volleyball program. Sarah Bradshaw, a senior at Loudonville Christian High School (NY), recently signed a letter of intent to further her education at CU and play volleyball for the Lady Jackets.

Bradshaw, a 5-5 libero/defensive specialist, helped lead her high school squad to the New York State Final Four on two separate occasions including a runner-up finish in the 2009 NYSPHSAA State Tournament. She earned All-State Class C Second Team recognition this past season and was voted the MVP of the Central Hudson Valley League.

Bradshaw is excited to begin her collegiate career at Cedarville, noting, "I chose Cedarville because I love the spiritual atmosphere and I know the academics are excellent!"

Coach Walters is pleased about the addition of his fourth recruit for 2010. "We are very happy to welcome Sarah to the volleyball program at Cedarville. She loves using the sport of volleyball to witness to others for Jesus Christ, and has shown that in the local media in New York. Sarah is a very quick defender who will help us greatly in boosting our defensive efforts!"

Sarah is the daughter of Mike and Mary Beth Bradshaw of Ballston Lake, New York.
