Today's Match

Cedarville and Notre Dame meet for the fourth time on the soccer field today in American Midwest Conference action. The Lady Jackets have won the three previous contests including a 3-1 decision in Cleveland last fall.

The Lady Jackets are coming off of a 2-1 setback to Mount Vernon Nazarene at home on Tuesday in their AMC opener. Freshman forward Jane Adams scored Cedarville's goal in the 84th minute with an assist from classmate Karin Nyhuis.

Adams leads the team in scoring with three goals and an assist for seven points. Senior goalkeeper Becky Kozlowski has a 0.96 goals against average and two shutouts.

Lady Jacket Profile - Amy Nyhuis

Amy Nyhuis, a senior defender from Kalamazoo, MI, joins Kristen DeVinney as the first four-year soccer players in the Lady Jacket program.....three-year starter in the back for the Cedarville defense including last fall when she started 12 of the 13 matches in which she played.....competed in 16 matches with 15 starts and one assist as a sophomore in 1998.....started all 11 matches in the back in which she appeared as a freshman.

High School - Nyhuis earned four letters in soccer at Otsego High School where she also played volleyball and basketball.....all-conference soccer player and a National Honor Society student.

Personal - Nyhuis (pronounced NI-hise) carries an Organizational Communications major at Cedarville University.....serves as vice-president for the Student Government Association and was SGA secretary as a junior.....born 10/21/79.....daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nyhuis.....younger sister, Karin, is a freshman for the Lady Jackets.....also has a younger brother.

Coming Up

The Lady Jackets begin a four-match road trip on Tuesday when they travel to defending AMC champion Tiffin University, who is ranked No. 17 in the NAIA.
