LAST TIME OUT:

Cedarville rallied for a 3-1 victory over American Midwest Conference South Division foe Ohio Dominican on Tuesday before an overflow crowd in the first men's night game ever played on campus. The Panthers found the back of the net first in the 12th minute, but Jon Waldo got the equalizer in the 43rd minute when he lobbed in a 30-yarder from near the right sideline. It stayed 1-1 until Phillip Ellis headed home the eventual game-winner on a quick restart by Stephen Palmer. John Sommer finished the scoring in the 89th minute with Tyler Schumacher assisting.

Phillip Ellis - scored game-winning goal against ODU

Saturday, Oct. 12, 2002 • 7:00 p.m.

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Olivet Nazarene University Tigers in non-conference action tonight under the lights at Yellow Jacket Field as part of the Annual Homecoming Weekend. The Yellow Jackets enter the match with a 9-2 overall record (2-1 AMC) after defeating Ohio Dominican University 3-1 on Tuesday evening. The Olivet Nazarene University Tigers, coached by 1973 Cedarville University graduate Tom Knowles, are 8-5-2 after defeating St. Ambrose University (Iowa) 3-2 on Tuesday. The Tigers have won four of their last five matches. Cedarville has won the only other previous meeting between the two schools.

The Cedarville University offensive attack is led by forward Jon Waldo, a 6-2 junior, who has scored 11 goals along with six assists. Six of his goals have been game winners. Freshman midfielder Phillip Ellis has added 6 goals and 3 assists. Nine other Yellow Jackets have registered goals this season. Senior keeper Matt Reid has posted 41 saves while allowing 13 goals with two shutouts in eleven matches.

The Yellow Jackets have outscored their opponents by a 28-13 margin and hold considerable edges in shots on goal (175-102) and corner kicks (74-50).

The Tiger roster is youthful with just one senior on the squad. They have outscored their opponents 33-20 in fifteen matches.

Olivet Nazarene University, an NAIA member of the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference, has an enrollment of 2,500 and is located in Bourbonnais, Illinois.
