NCAA QUICK FACTS

The NCCAA is alive and well in Chattanooga, Tennessee. It is a miracle organization. In just a few years, an idea has become a reality providing Christian athletes in Christian colleges across America an opportunity to become a national champion.

With its purpose to provide a national Christian College Athletic Association was born in Canton, Ohio, in 1966. Emanating from that meeting were plans to conduct a national basketball tournament.

Detroit, Michigan became the site of that first NCCAA National Basketball Tournament. Lee College (Cleveland, Tennessee) has the distinction of winning the first championship.

At the initial tournament, the NCCAA adopted a constitution and voted to move the tournament to Chattanooga, Tennessee. During the ensuing four years the eight team tournament was dominated by Azusa Pacific. Under Coach Cliff Hamlow, Azusa captured the successful tournament each of the four years.

The Brainerd Optimist Club of Chattanooga voted in 1974 to sponsor the National Basketball Tournament. This highly successful civic group has enhanced the stability of the NCCAA.

On The Cover

Mount Vernon Nazarene College senior Matt Wagner slides into home against Point Park College (PA) during the 1987 season. Wagner, an outfielder from Edgewood, OH, is one of 3 seniors on the ballclub.
