Foundation

This lectureship program has been graciously funded by the Thomas F. Staley Foundation of Larchmont, New York. This private, non-profit organization seeks to support men and women who truly believe, cordially love, and actively propagate the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its historical and scriptural fullness. It desires to enrich the quality of Christian service and sharpen the effectiveness of Christian witness, especially at the college level.

Cedarville College publicly thanks the Thomas F. Staley Foundation for making this annual lectureship program possible.

Lecturer

Dr. Donald A. Carson is a research professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois. Before joining the Trinity faculty in 1978, Dr. Carson served as academic dean at Northwest Baptist Theological Seminary and taught at Northwest Baptist Theological College, Richmond College, and Central Baptist Seminary. He has experience as a pastor and assistant pastor, and has done itinerant ministry in Canada and the United Kingdom.

Dr. Carson earned a bachelor of science in chemistry from McGill University, a master of divinity from Central Baptist Seminary, and a doctor of philosophy in New Testament from Cambridge University. His areas of expertise include biblical theology, the historical Jesus, pluralism, Greek grammar, Johannine theology, Pauline theology, and questions of suffering and evil.

Dr. Carson is a prolific writer with more than a dozen published works. He and his wife, Joy, have two children and reside in Libertyville, Illinois.
