JESUS, MY OWN, MY ALL

1. Jesus, my own my all, hear Thou my plea,
All that I have or am, bring I to Thee;
All of the joy or pain, lay at Thy feet,
All of life's loss or gain, in Thee complete.
2. Why should I aught withhold; Jesus, my King,
Born in a manger Thou, new life to bring;
Life that shall richer be, fuller of bliss,
Joy of Eternal years, sure hope in this.
3. Prophet and priest of old, led by Thy star,
To thee the wise men came, drawn from afar;
For thee the Angel band sang a sweet strain,
What can a mortal do, Thy peace to gain?
4. Low at Thy cross I bow, earth's shadows fall
Life's sorrows flee away, at Thy low call;
Love wonderous love Thou art, so full so free,
All earth and heaven Lord, I find in Thee.

AMEN!

FORTH TO THE FRAY

1. Forth to the fray we journey now,
Daring the dangers life may bring;
To no vile foe our knee shall bow,
To no false God our anthem ring.
2. His call to service sounds today,
Our armor yet unproved we don;
The hosts of life are in array,
The mighty battle is begun.
3. We go to take our place and fight,
For those whom life has trampled down,
For love of truth, for God and right,
For spotless robe, and starry crown.
4. Nations may rise and nations fall,
The bitter war of creeds sweep on;
God of our Fathers lead us all,
Till hope and faith and life be won.

AMEN!
