ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Board of the Creation Science Fellowship would like to first thank Cornerstone TeleVision(CTV) and Coral Ridge Ministries of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for their support and commitment to the truth. An important recognition must also go to all the authors for their fine contributions and to those who supported them in their efforts, particularly the spouses and typists. Their combined contributions made the Conference the success that it was and this document one of outstanding quality that will be read and referenced for many years to come.

Thanks go also to Ruth Coles and Carol Brown, who spent many hours typing and retyping; and the many others mentioned in the Acknowledgments in Volume I, who will not be repeated here, but without whose help the Conference and Proceedings would not have been possible.

A word of great appreciation is again extended to the Instrument Society of America for providing the mats and instructional materials that were used in preparing these Proceedings.

Lastly, thanks go to the members of the ICC Executive Committee and their wives and friends, who put a 100% effort into making this Conference happen. That Committee included Russ Bixler, Dick Crowell, Hank Jackson, Bob Walsh, and Chris Brooks, as coordinator.
