Foundation

This lectureship program has been graciously funded by the Thomas F. Staley Foundation of Larchmont, New York. This private, non-profit organization seeks to support men and women who truly believe, cordially love, and actively propagate the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its historical and scriptural fullness. It desires to enrich the quality of Christian service and sharpen the effectiveness of Christian witness, especially at the college level.

Cedarville College publicly thanks the Thomas F. Staley Foundation for making this annual lectureship program possible.

Lecturer

Dr. Duane Litfin became Wheaton College's seventh president on August 1, 1993, succeeding Dr. J. Richard Chase.

Dr. Litfin earned a B.S. degree in biblical studies from Philadelphia College of the Bible, a Th.M. degree in Christian education from Dallas Theological Seminary, a Ph.D. degree in interpersonal communication from Purdue University, and a D.Phil. degree in New Testament studies from Oxford University.

He came to Wheaton College from Memphis, Tennessee where he had served the 1,900-member congregation of First Evangelical Church as Senior Pastor since 1984. For ten years prior to that, he was Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministries at Dallas Theological Seminary. He also taught at Purdue University and Indiana University.

Dr. Litfin is a member of the Evangelical Theological Society. His writings have appeared in numerous journals and Christian periodicals. He has written a textbook titled Public Speaking: A Handbook for Christians and has edited, with Haddon Robinson, another volume titled Recent Homiletical Thought. He recently finished the writing of another book, St. Paul's Theology of Proclamation, which will be published later this year by Cambridge University Press.
