Cedarville University Gets Back on Track with Sweep over Southwestern Assemblies of God

November 4, St. Paul, Minn. – A day after witnessing their 17-match winning streak come to and end, Cedarville University returned to form with a three-game sweep victory over Southwestern Assemblies of God University. The Yellow Jackets took the match in game scores of 30-22, 30-8, and 30-16 to increase their overall season record to 37-2 this fall. Cedarville now stands at 2-1 in pool play competition. Southwestern Assemblies of God fell to 0-3 in pool play matches and 21-18 for the season with the loss.

The Yellow Jackets recorded a scorching .425 team attack percentage in the match, successfully pounding 59 kills in 106 attempts with just 14 errors. Leading Cedarville was junior middle hitter Julia Bradley (Valencia, Calif./Saugus HS), who notched a match-high 20 kills. Joining her in double-digits for kills was freshman Cari Greetham (Wellington, Ohio/Wellington HS). Greetham boasted a .600 attack percentage with 13 kills. Kelsey Jones (Cedarville, Ohio), a senior setter for Cedarville, distributed 45 assists and also owned 12 digs, 5 kills, and 3 serving aces.

Junior middle hitter Sarah Strasesmeir and junior Lauren Brueggemeyer paced Southwestern Assemblies of God, each racking up 7 kills. The Lions struggled hitting the ball, tallying just 25 kills in 104 attack attempts with 7 errors, producing a .173 team attack percentage.

Cedarville University will conclude their pool play participation on Friday afternoon when they battle Mount Vernon Nazarene University at 4 p.m. Southwestern Assemblies of God University will wrap up their pool play action also on Friday, squaring off with Trinity International University at 7 p.m.
