CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

BASKETBALL SQUAD

HISTORY

During the past fifty-three years Cedarville College has drawn to its halls students from all parts of the world. Its influence has become widespread especially in the fields of education and religion by many of its graduates.

Now operated independently, Cedarville was originally conceived and founded by the Reformed Presbyterian Church. In 1837 that group obtained a charter from the State of Ohio for the college. The first session opened September 19, 1894. The Theological Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church was moved to Cedarville in 1913 and continues to operate in class cooperation with the college.

In 1928 the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church un-animously voted to transfer "all control, ownership, title and vested property rights of the Cedarville College" to the Board of Trustees of the College, "and their successors forever." Since 1928, the Board, a majority of whom must be members of the Presbyterian Church, have operated the college.

Cedarville has always operated on the missionary motive, that its greatest service to Christian society is in the training of young people through the development of their abilities and characters.

It is the purpose of Cedarville College to train students to think clearly and express themselves with Christian conviction about the present day problems. But the perspective for such thinking and expression must come from a wide knowledge of the philosophical, the aesthetic, the scientific, and the spiritual achievements of the past.

It is the purpose of Cedarville College so to relate the past to the present that her students may become more competent bread winners; more worthy members of family units; more useful citizens; and more devout Christians.

REVIEW OF 1948-49 SEASON

Cedarville College Yellow Jackets enjoyed one of their best seasons in the school's history. They played some of the outstanding teams in the State of Ohio (University of Cincinnati, Xavier University and Dayton University).

The climax came with an invitation to participate in the National Basketball Tournament at Kansas City, Missouri. Cedarville met defeat by Loyola University of Baltimore, Maryland.
