Cedarville's Kelsey Jones, Julia Bradley named NAIA Volleyball All-Americans

CEDARVILLE, Ohio -- Cedarville University senior Kelsey Jones (Cedarville, OH; Cedarville H.S.) and junior Julia Bradley (Valencia, CA; Saugus, H.S.) have been selected NAIA All-Americans in volleyball for the 2005 season. They become just the third and fourth CU players, respectively, to earn NAIA All-America honors in the sport after leading the Lady Jackets to a 45-6 record and a second straight national tournament appearance.

Jones, a 5-foot-8 setter who holds most all of the school's assist records, was named to the NAIA All-America Second Team. She set a new mark of 13.91 assists per game this fall, finished her career with 6,662 assists, and last season set the NAIA national single-season record with 2,403 assists. Jones was named the American Midwest Conference South Division and NAIA Region IX Player of the Year.

Bradley, a six-foot middle hitter, earned a spot on the NAIA All-America Third Team. She averaged a team-high 4.99 kills per game and matched her school record of a .431 attack percentage. Bradley set new school single-season marks for most kills (869), block assists (137), and total blocks (201).

Jones and Bradley join Sarah Zeltman (Orrville, OH; Kidron Central Christian), a 6-1 sophomore middle hitter, who made the NAIA All-America Third Team as a freshman in 2004. Cedarville first All-American was Heather van der Aa, who was a Third Team choice in 2001.
