FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Cedarville College soccer team marks its second week of practice and the opening of the 1980 season with the Cedarville College Invitational Tournament Friday and Saturday, October 12, 13. Excellent soccer should be on slate for fans as the evenly matched teams of Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky.; Huntington College, Huntington, Ind.; Tennessee Temple, Chattanooga, Tenn.; and host, Cedarville College, meet in the quad tournament. All Teams in the tournament have a history of good soccer; Asbury being NAIA District 32 winner in '74, '75 and '76; and Huntington representing NAIA Area IV in the NAIA Nationals in 1975, and as one of the final four in NCCAA District play last fall. Tennessee Temple is not a member of the NAIA, but has been a consistently strong team keying on defense and a strong recruitment program. Facing the tournament with promising freshmen and a good nucleus of veterans, Cedarville College is optimistic as they seek to obtain the No. 1 spot in their host event. The Cedarville effort will be lead by Dave Cox, NAIA All American and MVP; and Jeff Bowser, All Area NAIA and All District NCCAA player.

"Tennessee Temple may be the team to beat," reports Cedarville Head Coach John McGillivray, "however, based on last year's records, no one team dominates the tournament. A lot will depend on the quality of each team's rookies."
