McAfee Scholarships Awarded to Cedarville Students

CEDARVILLE, OHIO – Two students from Cedarville University’s department of music and worship were awarded scholarships from McAfee Heating and Air Conditioning on December 7, 2014, during the University’s annual Christmas Concert. This year the event was sponsored by McAfee.

Kim Tavierne from Bryan, Ohio, and Cody Martin from Locust Dale, Virginia, were awarded scholarships worth $1,500 for the spring semester.

Tavierne and Martin were recommended by faculty in the music and worship department for demonstrating passion and excellence in their studies and for their selection of pieces presented at the concert.

“We are glad to have Cedarville University in the Miami Valley area. They are recognized as an authentic Christian university with rigorous academic programs, and we at McAfee strive for the same attributes,” said Greg McAfee, business management consultant at McAfee Heating and Air Conditioning. “We’re also proud to sponsor the 2014 Christmas Concert.”
