

3-22-1957

Whispering Cedars, March 22, 1957

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, March 22, 1957" (1957). Cedars. 133.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/133>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

WHISPERING CEDARS

Vol. I

Friday, March 22, 1957

Issue III

THE YEARBOOK

S. C. PROJECT

The past two weeks proved quite a busy time for the yearbook staff, but with the deadline being Thursday, we see that at last our yearbook has gone to the press.

It was decided this year to let the yearbook be a Junior Class project. The faculty chose the editor and then various members of the class took part in working at this project. When our yearbook comes out this year it will feature the Junior Class color on an embossed padded cover.

The staff selected an appropriate theme which was carried throughout the yearbook in its various sections, art work, and titles of sections.

Fran Cooper, the editor, said that she appreciated the work that students have contributed, and, most of all, for the strength the Lord supplied so that we might have a yearbook pleasing in His sight.

An enthusiastic program to aid the building fund drive was presented to our college Wednesday by the Student Council. This program, if faithfully supported by our students and friends, can be a major means of procuring these needed funds. Approximately five hundred letters will be sent to our churches and friends suggesting that they might make this project in their Sunday School classes or young peoples groups, reminding them that every dime builds one cement block.

If you know of any church, group, or friends, that would be interested in this type of ministry, please contact your Student Council representative immediately.

Meanwhile we need to pray for the Lord's blessing on this plan, donate our own dimes and labor and write to our own churches endorsing this plan by our encouragement.

What is prayer? Emerson gives us this answer. "Prayer is the contemplation of the facts of life from the highest point of view! According to Emerson it is vicious to ask God for particular commodities. To him God is merely a concept of Goodness who is not personally interested in us as individuals.

How fortunate it is that we do not have to follow the philosophy of a man but that we can rely upon the reality of God. True, we are small, insignificant. True, He is sovereign, almighty. Yet, the omnipotence which lends awe to His character can be directed to our weak selves to bring glory to His name.

He cares so completely for us He provided the Holy Spirit, whose pleadings cannot be ignored, to be our intercessor. Our part is to simply let the Spirit have control.

If you desire peace, let the Spirit pray through you according to the Father's will. Each small incident of your life will take its place in the building of God's will for your life.

- Ruth Yost-

Ruth Yost	editor
Sandy Millikin	ass't.ed
Paul Anderson
Eladio Bolanos
Cliff Miller
Tom Shelow
Shirley Shirley
Miss Kantzer	advisor

FROM THE FACULTY

Do you advise Christian teachers to teach in public schools? Dr. Mad-dox was asked this question.

"I advise them first of all to understand the limitations of the teaching of religion. We must realize that we cannot teach our religion. We should live our Christianity in class and give our testimony outside of school. We can teach religion to our children but we have to do it indirectly. Would we want a Jew, Christian Science, etc. to teach our children what they believe? We must be careful though to know when and where to stop. We as Baptists believe in separation of Church and State so we must be careful to uphold the laws of our land. We can do a lot with our students outside of school to influence them for our con't on next page

Lord. We can be very active in our Church life. This will make us a good testimony and will afford an opportunity for witness to our pupils.

Secondly, I say that you should teach as long as you as a teacher are able to conscientiously conform to the public school in which you are teaching. Many times you are called on to chaperon dances and other things that you don't agree with. If you cannot conscientiously do it then you should be active in other extracurricular activities. In some schools there are things that are standardized and if we don't approve of them we should not go there to teach. If we go before we know the circumstances, we should use our Christian judgment. Where I taught, I had to chaperon dances. I went to keep order, but the students knew my standards. I do think we need Christian teachers for the example they set for the student under them. In conclusion I say that we must maintain our Christian testimony with a full realization of the necessity of separation of Church and state."

In order to show how the girls live, an "Open House" will be sponsored by the girls dorms on Friday night at 8:00 p.m. All the students and faculty are cordially invited. A skit, "The Cat Rosemary" will be presented and refreshments will be served at the end of the program.

The Athletic Banquet will take place on April 4th at the Rustic Restaurant on Route 40, Springfield. During the banquet a film "Venture for Victory" will be presented. This film is the story of Christian college players who made a trip to the Oriental lands.

For health reasons, Raymond Reiner has left Cedarville College. We pray that the Lord will help him regain his health promptly. His home address is: R.D. #2 Zimmerman Rd., Hamburg, N.Y. Let's send him a note.

The Junior Class is sponsoring an "All-School Party" on March 29th.

The faculty members: Miss Hook, Miss Kantzer, Miss Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose and Dr. and Mrs. Maddox attended the Wilmington Artist Series featuring Emily Kimbraugh last Thursday.

-Eladio Bolanos-

TOURNAMENTS

Our campus was a beehive of activity last week-end when Cedarville College played host to 16 teams that participated in the Annual Church Basketball Tournaments.

Two full days, Friday and Saturday, were packed with games which culminated in the very exciting final games on Saturday night.

Blanchester, Ohio, last years second place winner, forged ahead to the first place position while Rochelle, Illinois took second, and Fort Wayne, Indiana came in third.

The Sportsmanship award went to the Belden Avenue Church team, from Chicago, Illinois.

After a fine display of basketball handling, Joe Wilkenson of Rochelle, Illinois, was awarded the Most Valuable Player award.

BASEBALL

Conditioning practice has begun for the baseball team in anticipation of warmer weather which will allow them to move outdoors.

The first baseball game will be held with Wilmington College on April 11.

CAMPUS WHISPERS

Ask Barbara Sherry who the "Pretzel Queen" is!

We wonder why Mr. Turnbull likes his Trig. class so well. Could it be Rosemary II?

Ask President Jeremiah why tin cans and sleep don't mix?

Ruth Yost usually likes M & M's, but she doesn't like them at 5:30 in the morning.

According to Poncho, Warren may be Worth some-

We wonder why our Miss Kantzer is so anxious to chase hats. If anyone finds out, please notify Campus Whispers.

We hear that Peggy Cope is quite an actress. Anyone want her autograph?

Hey, Barb, we think your red face adds to our Chapel service.

Did Norma Stone find what she was looking for in the cemetery Tuesday afternoon?

Nancy Cope is now a full time clock watcher and money changer.

What's the "quiet one" on campus trying to prove? Being quiet and demure, Grace?

Do your givin'
When you're livin'
While you're knowin'
Where it's goin'