

3-29-1957

Whispering Cedars, March 29, 1957

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, March 29, 1957" (1957). Cedars. 132.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/132>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

WHISPERING CEDARS

March 29, 1957

V. 114

OPEN HOUSE HELD

TWO PLACED ON ALL-STAR TEAM

Woman's Open House was held Friday evening, March 15, in the Girls Dorm and Rife Hall.

A guided tour of the dorms took place between 8 and 9. The theme being: "Welcome to the Zoo," the visitors expected to see rare animals. They were in their respective cages in the girl's spic and span rooms. Some of the animals were stuffed, others prehistoric, and some alive!

At 9 o'clock the girls put on an entertaining program in the dining hall with Nancy Cope as Mistress of Ceremonies. The program consisted of a duet by Lucy Lyons and Norma Stone; a trio number by Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Wentzel and Miss Hook; a poem, "Rosemary the Cat," read by Bea Coon, and a solo by Frances Cooper.

Several girls put on a skit and then Karen Fay led the devotions. The program ended with refreshments of floats, potato chips, and animal crackers.

Coaches from the colleges and universities represented in the Mid-Ohio League met in Columbus last week-end and selected an All-Star Basketball Team comprised of outstanding men from the league teams.

The final tally showed that Cedarville, though the League's basement dwellers, had placed two men on the dream team's roster. This is noteworthy in that the League's top two teams placed only three men apiece. Yet, some schools, though finishing higher in the league standings, failed to earn a single berth on the team.

Lane Moody, a third year letter-man, was one of the coaches' selections. "Pete" Reese, a freshman, who this year set a new individual's single game scoring record for the school, lacked one vote of being a unanimous choice.

Our hats are off to you, Lane and Pete!

EDITORIAL

On Tuesday morning the student body and faculty of Cedarville had the privilege of hearing a representative of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company as he presented the plans being worked on for a new telephone system in the United States.

This lecture not only served to show us the details of the new system, but it also served to show us what wonderful and astounding things God has made possible.

When we think of the wonder of transmitting sound over thousands of miles, of the universe with its magnificence and enormity, of our own bodies and their intricacy, it makes us realize what a wonderful Designer and Creator is behind it all.

Since we have all of these things now, we wonder what must be waiting for us, and it makes us rejoice when we realize that "the half cannot be fancied" and that someday "we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is!"

Sandy Millikin

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Psalm 19:1

STAFF

Ruth Yost	editor
Sandy Millikin	asst editor
Eladio Bolanos
Esther Chesebro
Cliff Miller
Tom Shelow
Shirley Shirley
Miss Kantzer	advisor

HUBLALL SOOKRAM

Hublall Sookram, 21, a freshman from Corentyne, British Guiana is studying Theology here at Cedarville College. He is a Baptist since 1956 in spite of coming from Hindu parents. His favorite Bible verse is II Timothy 2:15.

Rev. Walter Speith from the Baptist Mid-Missions was the point of contact between Cedarville College and Hublall.

At times Hublall feels home-sick with only a few friends in America. He preaches every Sunday at Chillicothe Mental Hospital. He plans to go back to British Guiana to preach the gospel.

Hublall plays cricket and soccer. He likes the American political system in his word: "Mr. Stoll, a Bible teacher, has impressed me more than any other person in the U.S." Hublall has a little dif-

continued on back

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Margaret Schlessinger, our former school nurse and Women's Dorm Supervisor, was a visitor on our campus last Friday.

The Junior Class will sponsor an all-school party this Friday evening at 7:15 in the gym. There will be prizes and refreshments. Please bring your gym shoes!

Rife Hall challenged Room 3 of Science Hall to a game of volley-ball with the losers treating. Wednesday evening found Room 3 enjoying cherry pie from you know who!

A former student, Vada Belle Young, has sent us word about the improvement of her father's health. At the present, he is candidating for a pastorate in Arizona.

Cliff Miller

CHAPEL SCHEDULE

Monday - Dr. Milke, Christian psychiatrist from Toledo, Ohio.

Tuesday - The Sophomore Class.

Wednesday - Class prayer meetings.

Thursday - Rev. Harold Amastutz, representative of A. B. W. E.

Friday - Rev. Fred Mqlkenthin of Sioux Center, Iowa.

FROM THE FACULTY

Cedarville students may be encouraged by Professor Stoll's answer to a pertinent question: "What do you think of the possibilities of the graduate of Cedarville?"

He said that he felt that those planning on going into the ministry, mission field and other phases of Christian work would find many opportunities of service. Also with the teaching shortage being what it is, he feels quite sure that our students can get temporary certificates and teaching jobs.

He went on further to speak of some of the things that students should do while still in college. "The student should first make a good record and also try to engage in extra-curricular activities."

For those planning to go to graduate school, he advised, "Have in mind early what type graduate work you want to do and work towards that goal; if possible, have in mind what graduate school you plan to attend and prepare in the light of this information.

If we wait on God we have endless possibilities.
Shirley Shirley

With the coming of spring, interest in tennis has grown.

Five faculty members, three staff members, four of the tennis team members, and about twelve other students mixed five yards of concrete from 220 bags of cement, seventy tons of sand and gravel, and about 25 hours of hard labor on last Friday and Saturday to complete the first tennis court. One of the student workers, describing the work on the court, said, "I worked like a beast."

The hard work was justified by the end result—a concrete place for tennis, 90 feet long by 42 feet wide. The actual court of play will be 78 feet long by 36 feet wide.

After the lines have been painted, the net put in place, and the backstops are in place, the tennis court will be open for business.

The work of the past week-end left a monument to be remembered for many years.

Paul Anderson

"This is another of those weeks when we didn't publish nearly all we knew. For which many may be thankful." — Staff

We see our "Pretzel Queen" is being rushed.

The path from the library to the dorm is not so long when there are two. Xenia surely holds its charms, and Karen is a lovely name, isn't it, Maurie?

Have you noticed that Room 3 has gained a pound per person this week?

Football missing? Ask Coach, maybe it's under his jacket.

Did we hear Jerry say he wanted to install a telephone to the second floor of the Girl's dorm?

Hublall Sookram (con't)

faculty adapting himself to the American educational system, that is quite different from the British system. Hublall dislikes American slang; such as, "kid" which means "young goat." "I don't like to be called a goat since I am a handsome South American boy," Hublall said.

Eladio Bolanos

Last week we suggested that the students drop a card to Ray Reiner while he is recuperating. His present address is:

Ray Reiner

Mt. Morris Hospital

Mt. Morris, N. Y.