Hall of Fame Honors Maryalyce Jeremiah

On May 17 in Columbus, Ohio, the legacy of the Jeremiah family continues as Maryalyce Jeremiah '65 is inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame. Maryalyce is the daughter of former Cedarville president Dr. James T. Jeremiah and sister of Dr. David Jeremiah '63. She ranked among the top 50 winningest active coaches in the nation upon entering the 2007-08 season.

After playing for the Yellow Jackets for three years, Maryalyce took over coaching the women's team from 1969 to 1978, accumulating a 104-75 overall record while leading Cedarville to the AIAW National Tournament in 1970 and a state championship in 1973. She was inducted as one of four charter members into the University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984.

Maryalyce then spent two seasons as head coach of the University of Dayton Flyers followed by five years at Indiana University. Now in her 12th year as head coach of the Cal State Fullerton Titans, she has the most wins in the programs history with 157, bringing her accumulated number of victories to an impressive 420 in a 28-year coaching career.
