

10-25-1957

Whispering Cedars, October 25, 1957

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, October 25, 1957" (1957). Cedars. 151.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/151>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

WHISPERING CEDARS

A Weekly Student Publication From Cedarville College

VOL. II Friday, October 25, 1957 No. 4

CEDARVILLE STUDENTS PRESENT "NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th"

Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the Cedarville High School auditorium, Cedarville College students will produce a three-act play, entitled, "Night of January 16th." This comedy-drama is written by Ann Rand; it was published in 1936 by Longmans, Green and Co.

STUDENT COUNCIL FLOAT

One of the high lights of the homecoming weekend at Cedarville College is the annual Halloween parade of the Cedarville township. Last year the college entered a float in the parade and not only won first prize in the religious category, but exhibited a real testimony for Jesus Christ.

The float committee of this year has expressed their desire for reaching the people of Cedarville for Christ as the primary motive for entering this year's parade. The float will be a mountain stream, trickling from a rock, surrounded by flower gardens. Colored spot lights will add to the color of the float. The basis for the water theme is Rev. 22:17, ten by Ann Rand; it was published in 1936 by Longmans, Green and Co.

(cont. on page 3)

The drama has tremendous audience appeal for every listener becomes involved in the pro or con of the Karen Andre case which is being tried in a New York court. The lawyers present their case eloquently. The jurors must discern between guilty and non-guilty. These jurors will be chosen from the audience.

The main characters are:
District Attorney Flint
Maurice Stone
Defense Attorney Stevens
Jack Willetts
Karen Andre
Grace Willetts
Nancy Faulkner
Ruth Yost

You will not want to miss this production so buy your ticket from any member of the cast as soon as possible.

EDITORIAL

"Homecoming"-- a word on many lips during this season of the year. It surely has many different meanings for us today. To some it is their home, their home town, or their college. In our case it is our college. This week-end we are welcoming back all those who have attended Cedarville College. The students have loved and served this college with their whole hearts while in attendance and in turn this college has strengthened and edified their hearts, souls, and lives for future service in the Lord's work as well as in secular fields. Therefore, it doesn't matter in how many different ways the Lord has led us, we always look back to Cedarville. For: "Home is where the heart is."

WHISPERING CEDARS STAFF

Ruth Yost Editor
Esther Chesebro. asst. ed.
Fred Brooks
Alberta Carr
Keith Collett
Carolyn Hale
Ruth Himsel
Bob Humphreys
Dave Matson
Cliff Miller
Sandra Milliken
Hublall Sookram
Mr. Wittig Advisor

ESSAY

A fourth "R", a learned educator recently said should be added to our public school curriculum. An attitude of "reverence" would be achieved by a religious training program. This would be on a non-sectarian basis with no doctrine but only the spiritual life emphasized. However, there must of necessity be an object for this reverence. To whom shall we teach these students to revere? We cannot say Christ for that offends the Jew. Neither can we say Virgin Mary for that offends the "Protestant". Nor can we answer the Jewish God for today he is offensive to both Romanists and Protestants.

A similar dilemma is occasioned when the selection of a Divine Record is attempted. These three major groups each believe in a different revelation of God.

This confusion is caused by a reversal of God's order in II Timothy 3:16 where doctrine is first and instruction in righteousness last. Doctrine serves as a foundation for righteousness! This reversal is sweeping over Christendom today in the form

(cont. on page 3)

SOCIAL NOTES

The week-end and coming week finds Cedarville college students busy in many activities.

First of all there is the annual parade tonight. The students have worked hard on the float, and we hope there will be a first prize for their efforts.

There will also be a Costume Halloween Party immediately following the parade, in the College Gym. I hear many original ideas floating around. Don't you be left out of the fun. Come in a costume!!

Saturday will be the Homecoming activities. Open house will be held along with the displays made by organized groups.

At 8 P.M. there will be the Homecoming Play held in the High School Auditorium.

The Gamma Kai initiation which was to have been on Tuesday will have to be postponed until a later date because of the sickness of many.

CHAPEL CALENDAR

Monday -- Prayer Meetings
Tuesday -- Prof. Webber
Wednesday -- Student Council
Thursday -- Prof. Underwood

(con't. from page 1)

"And let Him that is a-thirst come. And whosoever will, let Him take the water of life freely."

CAMPUS WHISPERS

How is a certain girl going to be a missionary on a Michigan farm and fill 19 siloes at the same time?

Melodious tones of a tenor voice can be heard coming from a Xenia Church. Has he Reformed?

The last mile home is the longest mile from a sick brother's... alone Grace?

Who is the boy who suddenly has a relapse when he finds that nurse Jean isn't coming down anymore? How about that, Kleek?

Have you heard the latest song from Cedar Shack by Fishy Foltz and his Firehouse Five playing "O Come Out You Flu.. Boogie"?

(con't. from page 2)
of interdenominationalism and liberalism. Beware of a n y movement that is characterized by a de-emphasis o f doctrine. I Thes. 5:21

FLU STRIKES CEDARVILLE -

For the information of our guests, in case we look a little weak to you, we just survived the flu. We're glad you came and we won't let anything like flu hinder our fellowship.

FOOTBALL FACTS

Monday, October 14, 1957

Team 3 after a tough first quarter defensive game, put together an offense that clicked for a touchdown in both the second and fourth quarters, to outlast a game, but outpowered team 1, 14-6.

Neither team could hold the ball long enough to score in the first fifteen minutes of the game.

Finally, in the second quarter, team 3 began to eat up the yardage and a pass from Humphreys found Thornton open at mid-field and with the help of a key block from Howder, Thornton raced the distance to the goal line.

Just before the end of the first half, team 1 struck back with six points on a pass from Moody to Carr. The extra point try was no good and the score at the end of the first half read, 7-6, in favor of team 3.

The third quarter went by with no serious threats. However, in the fourth quarter Thornton snagged the second team 3 TD pass to end the scoring for the afternoon.

This victory insured first place for team 3 no matter what the outcome of the last game.

Meanwhile it dropped team 1 into third place, due to team 4's win.

* * * * *

Team 2 was practically walked and trampled into the ground as team 4 unleashed a fury and power that could not be pushed aside in the 32-0 slaughter.

Quarterback D. Wentzle uncorked five touchdown passes during the one-sided contest.

End Jacobs of team 4, who was constantly wide open latched on to four of these passes. The fifth pass was to A. Yost.

Team 2 was never able to put together a ground-gaining offense. Self, quarterback of team 2, was pushed constantly and had little or no time to find his receivers.

The victory put team 4 in second place with a 3-2 record, and placed team 2 more firmly in the intramural cellar with a 0-5 record.

STANDINGS

	W	L
Team 3	5	0
Team 4	3	2
Team 1	2	3
Team 2	0	5

* * * * *