BIOGRAPHIES

Gracie Bennett is a senior music education major from Fishers, Indiana. While studying at Cedarville, she has participated in various ensembles, including Concert Chorale, HeartSong, and chapel band, and has been named the 2018 recipient of the Outstanding Future Music Teacher Award. Her love for singing and desire to be a music educator was born out of her early experiences with the Indianapolis Children's Choir. Gracie currently serves as the choral librarian for the music department. As a member of the National Association for Music Educators during the past four years, she has had the privilege of learning from a diverse group of educators and serving in various roles in the community. After graduation, Gracie plans to pursue teaching music both in private and school settings.

Sharri K Hall is a senior from Boynton Beach, Florida. Sharri has studied under Lori Akins and has had the privilege of playing in the Symphonic Band, the University Orchestra, and the Flute Choir. She has served as a principal player in all three ensembles for two years. In addition, Sharri has been able to premiere several compositions for Composition Majors at Cedarville. She also recorded several pieces for those composition majors as well as recording incidental music for Cedarville's Department of Art, Design, and Theatre's production of Anne Frank. Alongside her various performance ventures, Sharri found a love for Music History during her third year of studies. She has published two articles in the Musical Offerings. She has also published articles on the topic of foreign affairs and foreign policy and will have two publications in Cedarville University's Department of English, Literature, and Modern Languages' publication The Idea of an Essay. Sharri hopes to pursue a graduate degree in music performance then go on to obtain a Ph. D. in musicology.

Tyler Dellaperute is a sophomore double major in Music and Worship from Little Egg Harbor, NJ. He has played piano for thirteen years and has studied under seven teachers, including Mr. Charlie Birnbaum, Dr. John Mortensen, and Dr. Charles Clevenger. In addition to piano performance, Tyler is currently pursuing other music-related skills such as ethnomusicology, piano tuning, and jazz improvisation. In his free time, he enjoys literature, ping-pong, outdoor running, and anything related to the ocean.
