

11-15-1957

Whispering Cedars, November 15, 1957

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, November 15, 1957" (1957). Cedars. 149.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/149>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

W H I S P E R I N G G E A R S

"...And be content with such things as ye have."

It is a shame that everyday cannot be an official Thanksgiving Day to impress upon our minds the blessing of praise. God is so generous that He does not let us give Him anything without giving us something in return. This includes Thanksgiving. Have you ever devoted your whole prayer time to Thanksgiving? Once you start enumerating God's blessings to you, you will discover that many incidents in your life are blessings which you have failed to recognize as such.

In return for our praise, the Lord will fill your life with contentment and peace.

WHISPERING CEDARS STAFF

Ruth YostEditor
 Esther Chesebro, asst. ed.
 Fred Brooks
 Alberta Carr
 Keith Collett
 Carolyn Hale
 Bob Humphreys
 Ruth Himsel
 Dave Matson
 Cliff Miller
 Sandra Millikin
 Hublall Sookram
 Mr. Wittig . . . Advisor

Music reflects the personality of man as does his speech and mannerisms. An analysis of different types of music reveal a certain cause-and-effect relationship. The 19th century American negro ballad vividly portrays a life of slavery while the cow-boy tunes picture the lonely life of a ranch hand. If this be true, what does jazz picture in the life of the American.

Basically, jazz is the result of shifting the major beat to the minor and vice-versa. Is not this what the people of our land are doing with their lives? The minors of entertainment, relaxation, and material gain are shifted to majors and the vital issues of life that should be majors are relegated to minor positions. This shift can be observed in nearly all of the areas of human life today. Is it not logical that since music is a reflection of the people, that those who are majoring on minors should have a music suitable to them? If you love jazz, please examine your life to see if you have your majors and minors reversed.

GAMMA CHI CELEBRATES FIRST INITIATION

Tuesday, November 19th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Reformed Church of Xenia the members of Gamma Chi gathered to initiate those who have joined the society this year.

A business meeting preceded the ceremony. When the business session adjourned, candles were lit. President Wanda Horn briefly addressed the group on the purpose and plan of the society. She then instructed each of the initiates to come to the front as her name was called. Each girl, after signing her name on the roll, received a candle which was lighted by the President. As the new members took their places in the reception line, Lucy Lyons, the secretary, read a guide verse to them. Mrs. Ambrose, the society advisor, closed the ceremony with prayer.

A scroll, bearing the insignia of the society decorated the wall behind the president's desk. Red and white carnations brightened the refreshment table. Alberta Carr, Ruth Smelser, and Esther Chesebro were responsible for these arrangements.

A light luncheon concluded the activities of the evening.

THE MIRACLE

The 1958 "Miracle" is well under way.

Two "signatures" of 16 pages each have already been sent to Taylor Company, the firm which is printing our books this year.

The yearbook staff appreciates the cooperation that has been shown on the part of the students, and hopes that they will be as helpful when the snapshot contest and the advertising campaign begin.

The new "Miracle" will be very different from any previous annual, and it is believed that it will be one you will be proud to own.

FIRST PEP RALLY OF SEASON

The first Pep Rally of the 1957-58 basketball season was held Friday evening in the gymnasium. Students practiced yelling our school cheers under the leadership of

(Cont'd on page 5)

SOCIAL NEWS

This past week was a very eventful week. The basketball team has been going strong for the game on Saturday night.

Tuesday night, November 19, was the formal initiation of Gamma Chi, held in the banquet room of the First-Reformed Church in Xenia.

Thursday, November 19, the Varsity C decided to have their initiates wear football equipment for the day and to have a closed evening initiation.

Friday night, November 22, in the gym was the Pep Rally for the Saturday night game.

Monday night, November 25, the Thanksgiving Banquet was held in the Rustic Inn in Springfield.

QUOTATION

"Excess

To gild refined gold, to paint the lily,
To throw a perfume on the violet,
To smoothe the ice, or
add another hue
Unto the rainbow or with taper-light
To seek the beauteous eye
of heaven to garnish,
Is wasteful and ridiculous excess.

Shakespeare.

STUDENT COUNCILS MEET

On November 22nd and 23rd student council representatives from Christian colleges and Bible Institutes located in California, Canada, New York, Ohio, etc. gathered for a meeting at the Westminster Hotel in Winona Lake. President, Paul Van Kleeck, Advisor, Dr. C. R. Maddox and Senior representative Maurice Stone went to represent our school.

These students met to discuss pertinent subjects and pressing problems of Christian schools. Some of these were: school government, social problems, Christian service, student and community relations, and academic problems.

Dr. Voller, from Roberts Wesleyan college and who has served as student councillor at Michigan State University gave a very interesting lecture on the place that student councils hold in school administration Friday evening.

In order to set up the constitution 8 students from different schools stayed after the Friday evening lecture. On Saturday all the representatives amended and revis-

(Con't on page 5)

THANKSGIVING BANQUET

The annual Thanksgiving Banquet was held on Monday night, November, 25. The semi-formal affair was held at the Rustic Inn in Springfield.

The lovely tables were decorated in fall colors with "Horns of Plenty," and open Bibles making up the center pieces.

After a delicious ham dinner a program consisting of a chorus time, a few remarks by President Jeremiah, and a short musical was presented before the showing of the film, "Martin Luther."

Dr. Williams closed the program with prayer.

FIRST PEP RALLY OF SEASON (Cont'd from Page 3)

Cheerleaders, Sandy Millikin, Marlene Davis, Esther Weiss, and Rosemary Smith. The pep band boosted our enthusiasm and the basketball players were introduced. Thus the season begins with a bang.

STUDENT COUNCILS MEET

(Cont'd from Page 4)

ed it, so that now it can be sent to all the schools. Those schools that were present were charter members.

Our president reported that the meetings were very profitable and inspirational.

CAMPUS WHISPERS

We heard. . . .

. . . that the boys who painted the Junior rock were "real" painters.

. . . that the names Petry and Purdy go very well together.

. . . that this Thanksgiving vacation came at a most needed time.

. . . that the girls in the Girls' Dorm who are always up in the air and harping are not always angels.

. . . that there was a connection between a certain Harriman Hall resident and the Girls' Dorm.

Could it be Marlene?

. . . that the 2 Ruths like to go to Cleveland much more than to stay here. Do they have an ulterior motive?

. . . that Les Webster likes Columbus. Could it be because Nancy lives there.

. . . that the walk from the Girls' Dorm to Cedar Hall is along cold one, but that Dave is so far up in 7th heaven he is not aware of it. Think so, Glenda?

CEDARVILLE SCORES 100 MARK

The Cedarville Yellow-jackets opened their season Saturday night with a decisive win over the Columbus Naval Station, 100-55.

In the opening minutes of the game it appeared as though the entire game might be fairly close.

The Naval Station scored first and due to the fact that the Yellow-jackets could not find the range on free throws, kept the lead until the score was tied at 13-13. From then on it turned into a "Cedarville all the way" game. By half-time the scoreboard read, 49-22, Cedarville.

After the first few minutes of the second half, Coach Bowser began using everyone on the bench until all had seen some game action.

In the closing minutes of the game, the first string again went into the game to raise the score to 100. The Naval Station fought gamely the entire game but could do nothing against the deluge of points that Cedarville poured on.

There was good, balanced scoring. Humphreys came out on top with 27. Reese put in 20, Jr. Entner 13, Jm. Entner, 11, and D. Wentzel, 10.

In the J.V. game after a hard-fought, see-saw game, the Cedarville team found themselves on the short end, 67-62.

The high scorers for the game were D. Jacob, 25, and B. Self, 18.

LAUGH LINES

A teacher had been asked to find out the number of children in her class receiving free meals. As one little boy looked a bit doubtful, she asked him, "Are you free, John?" "Oh, no," he answered, "I'm five."

So she put the question another way: "Do you get free dinners?"

"No, Miss," he answered quickly, "Only one."

A car screeched to a halt as it came upon a motorist standing beside a tiny European sports car-completely overturned.

"Good heavens!" cried the driver. "Are you all O.K.?"

"Sure" answered the man. "Why?"

"Well, how did the accident happen?"

"What accident?" was the answer, "I'm just changing a tire."