The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Ohio Dominican University Panthers this evening in an American Midwest Conference South Division match. It is a historic day as the match will be the first-ever under the lights on the new Yellow Jacket Field. Cedarville enters the match with a 6-4 (0-3 AMC) after dropping a 2-0 decision at Mount Vernon Nazarene University last Wednesday. Ohio Dominican (8-4, 2-0) had won five consecutive matches before losing 3-1 at Indiana Wesleyan on Saturday. The all-time series between Cedarville and Ohio Dominican is tied at 1-1 as ODU dropped the Lady Jackets 2-1 last year.

The biggest news out of the Lady Jacket soccer program is the decision by Jane Adams to redshirt this season. Adams, a junior forward from South Hadley, MA, is Cedarville's leading scorer in each of her first two seasons in the program. She played in three matches this fall which is the most allowed by the NAIA in hardship situations.

Freshmen forwards Nicole James and Candi Jelinek, and senior midfielder Alicia Anderson have picked up the scoring slack in Adams' absence and lead the squad with three goals each. James also paces the Lady Jackets with four assists. Junior keeper Melissa Fawcett has allowed 17 goals in 9 games with a 2.03 goals against average.

Ohio Dominican is in the middle of its' third year of soccer after recording a remarkable second season. The Panthers finished third in the AMC and were NAIA Region IX Runners-up. ODU returns their top two scorers from a year ago in forwards Theresa

Fox and Mollie Newman while sophomore Shawnie Shade leads a young core of midfielders. ODU also returns a solid group of defenders to surround keepers, junior Rachel Roggelin and freshman Michal Stimson. The Panthers have outscored their opponents, 28-13.
