WOMEN'S CHORUS TO MAKE DEBUT SOON

The Girls Chorus will make its debut Sunday evening March 16th in Grace Baptist Church. The chorus will present two numbers, "Lift Thine Eyes to the Mountains" and "He Smiled On Me."

The Girls Chorus has been organized for the first time this year. Members consisting of dormitory and married students voluntarily work together. Professor Ambrose is the director and Carolyn Hale is the pianist. Through cooperation the girls have learned several pieces of music for future use. The efforts of the chorus help develop campus talent to glorify the Lord.

MILLER'S MUSINGS

Truth

Today we stand in the midst of great intellectual confusion on such matters as truth, mercy, and love. Controversy engulfs truth and returns it to us as an unknown. But I would like to show the Fallacy of the popular idea that truth is established by "counting noses." Since such a large number of people embrace a certain view; so this popular thinking goes, it must of necessity be the truth. After all, a large group could not all be in error. This my friend, is a subtle, satanic, unconscious influence which is undermining an honest approach to ultimate and final truth. We have 2000 years of Christian thought behind us. We are steeped in ancient historical views which we have never studied personally to determine their values. It is difficult but not impossible to examine

"well - set" doctrines to see if we have not been influenced by the errors of great but human scholars. I believe a thorough, personal study of a doctrine is a God honoring practice. This type of study will get us back to the original pattern and away from the substitutes which have gradually slipped away from the first copy. Remember, truth will stand unmovable no matter who stand with it!

"Give me thy light, and fix my eyes on Thee!"

FLIGHT FROM REALITY IS IMPOSSIBLE
OUR STRENGTH COMES FROM CHRIST

Buzz! That alarm insists on ringing at 5:00 A.M. What a disaster! When you start to turn it off and roll over for another snooze you remember that history test, an unfinished English assignment and a blouse which needs ironing. Visions of an ultra-herctic day break through your brain. Oh to be able to flee as a bird to the mountain, to sprout wings like a dove and fly far away to some utopian solitude.

However, there is no such retreat from such formidable situations. Running away would only give a psychiatrist more business; getting married would only involve you into more headaches; committing suicide would be impractical. You have to face life grimly and steadfastly, and when it looks fiercely back at you, there is one answer. "I can do all things through Christ."

"Red" Evans

Our Southern Senior, Red Evans, from way down in Alabama, has had quite a scholastic career. He was graduated from Baptist Bible Institute in 1951. After his graduation, Red went back South to Florida where he held a pastorate.

Before coming to Cedarville, Red, spent one year attending Fenn College Night School in Cleveland. Back in Cedarville, Red is majoring in Bible.

Red has a family so his is well occupied. He spends most of his "spare" time working in a Pure Oil Station in Springfield. He still finds time to be the Senior Class Treasurer.

Perhaps Red is the "handiest" senior. His hobby is woodwork. Whenever the Seniors need some handwork, like a Homecoming Door, Red is the man they're after!

Immediately after graduation Red wants to become a pastor. In the future he wishes to pursue his studies on the graduate level.

—TOURNAMENT

The distance each team will have to travel before they can participate in the tourney ranges from about 45 (Blanchester, Ohio) to 800-850 miles for Norwich, N.Y.

Five trophies will be presented after the tournament finale Saturday evening. Three large trophies will be for the first three place teams; another for

Joe Raymer

Perhaps the most cheerful male senior on campus is the illustrious Mayor of Trailorville, Joe Raymer.

Joe hailed from Cleveland to begin his school career at Cedarville as a history major. When asked what his hobby is Joe replies, "Word!" True it is that Joe is a mighty busy person without much time for extra-curricular activities. However, since 1954 it seems as though he has done a fine job of collecting trailors, Timmies, and new, red Chevys.

Joe's post graduate plan is to teach school in Kentucky. In his "out of school" hours, Joe will do church work.

SOPHOMORES "SPONSOR" BACKWARD PARTY

Tonite at 7:30, in the gym, the Sophomores are sponsoring the most unusual party. Everyone is to come with his clothes on backwards. The program will be presented in reverse. Maybe that means that refreshments will be served first thing!

Although the party was originally to be for the Sophomore Class, they have invited anyone who wishes to be backward.

the 'most valuable player' of the tournament; and one for the team manifesting the best spirit of sportsmanship.

Thursday, February 27, the Blue and Gold played host to Wilmington College in the Jacket's last game of the season. The Wilmington Quakers quickly found the range and began to pour in points, mostly on close-in shots, although, when necessary they hit from outside to bring the Jackets out.

The Jackets, lacking in the height department, were unable to get more than one or two shots at the basket in the 89-62 loss.

Pete Reese broke through the visitors for twenty-eight points to top the Blue and Gold scoring, Lane Moody, senior guard, was next with twelve.

The season record for the YellowJackets was 9 wins and 14 losses.

J.V.'S OUTPLAYED

In the preliminary activities, the Junior Bees played a hard game, but due to the lack of height were out-rebounded, and this together with sharp-shooting put the J.V.s in the short end of the contest, 83-72.

High scorer was Bob Self with twenty-two points.

J.V.'S BEAT MEMORIAL

In their last game of the season the JV's beat Memorial Bapt., winner of the Columbus League. The JV's far outclassed them taking in the game 87-43.

Season record: 6 wins, 12 losses
