HUMAN INMATES OF CEDAR APARTMENTS ESTABLISH ANNUAL EVENT

The inhabitants of Cedar Apartments, more frequently known as Cedar Shack, chose a very opportune evening, dress-up night itself, to celebrate its first annual dorm picnic. The picnic took place in John Bryan State Park at 6 o'clock. Refreshments consisted of four hot-dogs and one third of a cake per person. The members of each room presented some form of entertainment. The Shackers completed the evening with their own prayer meeting. According to reports, they all had a good time.

Tuesday evening the 1958-1959 Miracle Staff elected officers. The results were as follows: Editor: Larry Smith; Assistant Editor: Lois Jeremiah; Sports Editor: Dave Matson, John Entner; Photographer: John Entner, Dave Matson; Typist: Phyllis Ernst; Business Manager: Warren Woodard; Advertising Manager: De Payton; Art Editor: Helen Stevens; Activity Editor: Lucy Lyons.

The staff is working on a theme for the new Miracle. Two of the themes which have been presented are being developed.

As a first step to finance the yearbook, the Business Manager will conduct a car washing and waxing project the week of graduation. Your cooperation will be appreciated!

SENIORS OF THE WEEK

Senior Jack Willetts is the only senior to have the dubious honor of being a junior for three years. How this happened only Jack can explain, but it provided him with the opportunity to be treasurer, vice-president, and Student-Council representative of the junior class.

Jack is one of the busiest men on campus, for besides participating in such activities as Varsity "C", Student Council, and Tract Club, he is employed at Central Plumbing and Heating.

Like so many other students, after graduation, Jack, an English major, plans to study for his masters degree in preparation for the teaching profession.

When asked if he had anything in particular to say, he replied:

"I believe that here at Cedarville we have a wonderful thing. It behooves us to be always on guard that in our effort to achieve a high academic plateau we do not lower our spiritual plateau. After all, which one has the more eternal value?"

Senior John Abuhl is another married young man; and he also has 2 children. John, attended Omaha Bible Institute.

During his two years at Cedarville John has been business manager for the Miracle and a participant in intramaural volley ball. John's special interests include gardening and carpentry at which he is now employed.

Church activities also keep

John busy. He is a member of Grace Baptist Church where he is Sunday School Superintendent.

Next year John plans to attend Iowa State Teacher's College in preparation for a teaching career.

WHY BE PRACTICAL?

Certain persons have a very practical view of life. Their doctrine is practicality. These persons fail to understand the esthetical meed of man. If an activity or custom does not serve a definite purpose, why inconvenience yourself by performing it? Why bat by candle light? Why dress formally for a banquet? Why read poetry? Why listen to entertaining music? To these perplexed questions we can answer by asking: Why do lilacs bloom? Why do splotches of yellow dandelion cover our fields? Why do birds sing? What makes water trickle over rocks? Life is not all a big, overwhelming undertaking. It is the little things that add the spice!

GRACE BAPTIST SPONSORS MAY FAIR

It seems that college students are not the only ones bitten by the spring fever bug. Grace Baptist Church of Cedarville has planned a "purely for fun" May Day Fair to be held in the college gym this Friday evening.

The gym will be decorated with typical county fair booths, some of interest to adults, and others for children. This is planned so that each one who attends may participate as much or as little as he chooses. Later in the evening "fair food" will be served and the evening will end with a devotional period led by Pastor Cole.

The church social committee, comprised of Mrs. Thompson, Miss Bernice Mick, Mrs. Underwood, and Mrs. Maddox is in charge of this evening of fun and fellowship and all friends and members of the church are urged to attend.

"Nothing is so high and above all danger that is not below and in the power of God."

"God's justice and love are one, Infinite justice must be infinite love. Justice is but another sign of love."

Grace -- "Mr. Ambrose, I can't go to class today."

Mr. Ambrose -- "Why?"

Grace -- "I don't feel well?"

Mr. Ambrose -- "Where don't you feel well?"

Grace -- "In class."

Mr. Wittig -- "Take this sentence. Let the cow be taken out of the lot. -- What Mood?"

Esther W. -- "The cow."

John Ingram -- "I got one of those suits with two pairs of trousers."

Dave Matson -- "How do you like it?"

John -- "Not so well. It's too hot wearing two pairs of trousers."

Mr. Thomson -- "By der vay, didt yo knowed dot id iss now der fashio to dress accorting to der color of der hairs?"

Bob Humphreys -- "I am amazement!"

Mr. Thomson -- "Sure id iss! A man vich has brown hairs shouldt ought to veer a brown suit. Synonymous, a man vich has gray hairs shouldt ought a gray suit to veer."

Bob -- "Say, tell me, how shouldt id a baldt-headed man dress?"

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The player receiving special recognition this week is a south-paw currently batting .333 and doing a fine job of guarding the first base sack. He is a Sophomore history major married to the former Donna Jarvis of Portsmouth. He and his wife are living in an apartment on Xenia Avenue. He is as you have probably already guessed — Dave Dautel.

FINDLAY TAKES TWO FROM CC NINE

On Wednesday, the college nine journeyed to Findlay for a double header that was originally scheduled for Tuesday. After losing a heartbreaker in the first game, the team also lost the second one.

Cochran drove in our only run of the first game after Humphreys single moved Entner to third base. In their half of the fourth inning Findlay scored three runs on Tinsman's bases loaded double. There were two outs in that inning when the pitcher won his own game 3-1. It was also the only time that Findlay got a man past second base.

Jacobs pitched excellent ball striking out six and giving up only six hits. But Tinsman struck out nine while giving up three hits.

Cedarville	22	3	1	1

In the second game Findlay scored twice each in the first, third, and fourth, with another added in the sixth to beat us 7-1. But in the sixth Moody walked, advanced on a ground out by Jacob and scored on Thornton's single after Dautel had walked giving us our only run.
