

10-4-1958

Whispering Cedars, October 4, 1958

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, October 4, 1958" (1958). Cedars. 161.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/161>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

NEW FACULTY

Extensive and varried is the background of one of our newest faculty members, Mr. Richard Cooke. Mr. Cooke, who hails from Long Island, began his music career at the age of thirteen, as traveling song leader and soloist. For a time he played with the Percy Crawford trumpet trio, and sang in the Jack Wyrzten quartet.

Because of his obvious musical talent, Mr. Cooke received a scholarship from Kings College. After spending two years at Kings, he attended Fredonia State Teachers College. He received the degree B. S. in Music Education from Hofstra, Long Island. At present he is expecting to complete work for the Master of Education degree.

Before coming to Cedarville, Mr. Cooke was dean of Riverview Academy in Neptune, New Jersey. He is married and has two children.

Mr. Cooke is especially impressed with the growth program which Cedarville is promoting. He feels that growth in a school is a definite sign of the Lord's approval and blessing upon the school.

HOMECOMING PLAY CAST SELECTED

"Dr. Hudson's Secret Journal" a three-act play by Anne Coulter Martens based on the book by Lloyd C. Douglas, has been chosen to be presented on November 1, 1958 by the students of the college.

The secret pages of Dr. Hudson's journal come to life in this exciting play which takes you "behind the scenes" in a great hospital. The patients, doctors, nurses, and visitors are involved in a moving story which centers around a dedicated man, Dr. Hudson. The setting is the doctors office at Brightwood Hospital, and as the curtain rises, he is discovered reading from his secret journal. "Sometimes I feel as if I've taken hold of a high-tension wire," Dr. Hudson confesses as he attempts to describe his feelings in the midst of his sometimes desperate efforts at the hospital. His secretary, Nancy, is quite worried about him for he is driving himself to the limit.

Other characters who help unfold the plot besides Dr. Hudson, and Nancy, his attractive secretary, are as follows: Joyce, Dr.

The 1959 Miracle Staff

When you hear strange goings-on on the third floor of the Ad Building, chances are that it is more than mice, gnats, and flies. The Yearbook Staff too meets up there at least once a week to work on the Miracle for next spring.

The 1959 Miracle Staff was chosen by faculty members from the Junior Class students suggested by Miss Ruth Kantzer, Yearbook Advisor. Long before the 1958 Miracle came out in May, the 1959 staff members--Larry Smith, editor; Lois Jeremiah, assistant editor; Lucy Lyons, social editor; Dave Matson, Sports editor; Helen Stevens, art editor; John Entner, photographer; Warren Woodard, business manager; DeElda Payton, publicity chairman; Phyllis Ernst, typist; and Esther Weiss, sophomore class representative--were busy beginning next spring's Miracle. Before summer vacation started, sixteen pages of the new yearbook were sent to Taylor Publishing Company.

Back at school for the fall semester, the Yearbook Staff held its first meeting Tuesday evening, September 15 to begin work on another sixteen-page signature due November 1. Chuck Horn will take the place of DeElda Payton as enthusiastic publicity chairman because De did not come back this fall.

The Miracle is an annual Cedarville College publication traditionally a Junior Class project. It is financed by a portion of the general fee which each student pays at registration time, by advertisements of churches, families, and business enterprises, and by staff money-raising projects. Last spring the 1959 Miracle staff sponsored a successful car-polishing bee which brought in over $100.00. The Junior Class was asked to help in washing, cleaning, and polishing the cars, but many students from other classes also helped out. Similar projects are being planned for this fall and winter.

--New Faculty

Of particular interest is Mr. Cooke's comment on the food served here at school. He says that the meals served here are far better than those in other schools he has been acquainted with.

Besides teaching, on weekends Mr. Cooke travels with President Jeremiah, representing our school and the Lord Jesus Christ.

WHISPERING CEDARS STAFF

Editor	Marlene Davis
Sports	Dave Thomas
Feature	Paul VanKlock
Social	Sandy Millikin
News	Bob Price
	Linda Johnson
Typists	Joyce Grant
	Charlene Ressler
Mailing	Delores Osborn
	Ruth Yost
Advisor	Miss Kantzer

FRESHMAN INITIATION

A program in the gym Tuesday evening climaxed two days of freshman initiation. This replete with weird costumes and an early morning trip, has become a tradition here at Cedarville.

This year's rules for dress included for the girls wearing four skirts, a man's shirt and necktie and colored short socks. Boys were required to wear pajamas under rolled up jeans, earrings on top of the ears, and shoes on opposite feet. Neither boys nor girls were to comb their hair and any sophomore could style boy's hair.

To the company "Sound off, Freshie" from a sophomore, the freshmen answered:

I'm but a lowly freshman,
I'm green behind the ears,
To you the mighty sophomore,
I'll gladly give my cheers,
RAH, RAH, SOPHOMORES.

Initiation might consisted of a trial by jury for each freshman with Charlie (Brown) Fry as judge. Most of the freshmen were found guilty as charged, and were given appropriate penalties. Such penalties were egg shampoos, swallowing cat-eyes, egg races, proposals, alum water relays. The evening's fun was ended on a serious note with the entire group singing the school song and dismissing in prayer.

Although initiation was just two days in length for freshmen, an initiation committee spent nearly four weeks searching for beanies and planning the program.

Jim Entner was general chairman, and Esther Weiss, Girl's chairman for this event.

FACULTY RECEPTION

On September 25, at 8:30 p.m. the Faculty Reception was held in the Alford Memorial Gymnasium. It proved to be a very enjoyable evening for all with many a laugh. The reception is an annual event for the purpose of getting acquainted with the new teachers.

Getting the program underway was Bob Humphrey, who led in the singing of a few choruses. President Jeremiah gave a word of welcome to the new teachers. After a testimony from the new faculty members being honored, Mr. Gergen, and Mr. Cooke, the girls trio sang "There's A New Song In My Heart", followed by an arrangement of "Lil' David" by the quartet. It was the first appearance on campus this fall for both of these musical groups.

Next on the program was a reproduction of registration day with students exaggerating a characteristic trait of each teacher.

The teachers then had their chance to get even with the students by presenting various aspects of the music department. They presented the first Cedarville College marching band which was composed of eight members and directed by "Majorette" Wyland.

Bob again led in the singing of more choruses before refreshments were served. Mrs. Maddox was in charge of refreshments.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Once again, the athletic events of the fall season are beginning to take shape. The plans for intramural touch football for men are well underway. There will be four men's teams headed by Coach Bowser and captained by Jim Entner, Dave Dautel, Bob Self, and Dick Jacobs. The games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday at 4:00 P.M. in the afternoons. The contest will be on the football field and the other contest will be on the baseball field. Each team will play three times.

The championship, all-stars game will be a special feature, during homecoming on November 1. The ALL-STARS will be players from the other three teams. Concerning the girls, plans are being made for an intramural volleyball schedule.

Schedule for Intramural Football: (1 is Football field, and 2 is the Baseball field.)

Field	Teams	Dates
1	3 and 4	Oct. 2
2	1 and 2	Oct. 2
1	1 and 3	Oct. 7
2	2 and 4	Oct. 7
1	2 and 3	Oct. 9
2	1 and 4	Oct. 9
1	1 and 2	Oct. 14
2	3 and 4	Oct. 14
1	2 and 4	Oct. 16
2	1 and 3	Oct. 16
1	1 and 4	Oct. 21
2	2 and 3	Oct. 21
1	3 and 4	Oct. 23
2	1 and 2	Oct. 23
1	1 and 3	Oct. 28
2	2 and 4	Oct. 28

1	1 and 4	Oct. 30
2	2 and 3	Oct. 30

November 1, the Championship Team verses the All-Stars.

---Play Cast

Hudson's teenage daughter; Tim, a high school boy with a problem; Mr. Warner, a forceful business man and Barbara, his daughter; Joel, a young intern. Other supporting parts are the patients, news reporter, photographer, and, young people who visit the hospital.

THE CAST

Dr. Hudson,	Dave Matsen
Joyce,	Marlene Davis
Nancy,	Grace Willetts
Tim,	Keith Webster
Joel,	Bob Price
Ms. Warner,	Dave Thomas
Barbara,	Ruth Yost
Cynthia,	Lois Jeremiah
Marion,	Esther Weiss
Tony,	Charles Fry
Mrs. Tony,	Janet Occhuizzo
Miss Hastings,	Phyllis Dobbs
Mrs. MacLean,	Sandy Millikin
Mrs. Armitage,	Delores Osborn
Bob,	Dave Earnhart
Josie,	Sally Roudybush

TALKING POINTS

LOST yesterday, somewhere, sometime, between Sunrise and Sunset, two golden hours, each set with 60 diamond minutes. There's no reward offered for they are gone forever. ---Horace Mann

It is a solemn thing to say tomorrow when God says today.