The task of planning and producing the Fifth International Conference on Creationism has required the sacrifice and dedication of numerous volunteers. On behalf of the Board of Directors of Creation Science Fellowship, Inc and the 2003 ICC Executive Committee, I take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to those who labored countless hours to make this Fifth International Conference on Creationism a reality.

There is no doubt that the volunteers who mailed brochures, made calls, drove vans, hosted sessions, stocked the bookstore and otherwise took care of our attendees are the ones who made this conference happen. Thank you for coming together. Great is your reward in heaven.

Special thanks go to our committee chairpersons:

Steve Sobek – Publicity
Stu and Lori Chandler – Bookstore
Bob Ivey – Audio/Visual
Steve Wert – Communications

Their "I'll handle it" spirit settled many a disquieted moment for me. Thank you.

My deep appreciation goes to Gail Pinkney, our "nuts and bolts" registrar. This was a crucial position for the ICC. Your willingness to volunteer early and sacrifice the many hours is greatly appreciated. You did it!

James Hilston, your design work for our web site, brochure, and flyers always made us look superb. You have my deep admiration and appreciation for countless hours, devotion to the task and your keenly honed skills.

Bob Walsh, it took three of us to do the job that he performed in the previous four conferences. Your assistance and advice have been valued by all of us. I offer my profound thanks to you for your trust in me.

Dennis Wert, for your steady and reasoned leadership and much needed encouragement. Bless you, Mr. Chairman.

Chelle Fuss, your professional manner, attention to detail and willingness to be flexible to the needs of this ICC is greatly appreciated. My thanks to you.

Bob Harsh and Dan Allen, my faithful friends in ministry. To God be the glory.
