LADY JACKETS VS FINDLAY

"Junior Jacket Scholars / Battle of the Dorms"

Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 23, 2017

We are currently nine weeks into the season and it has absolutely flown by. We are getting down to the last few weekends of G-MAC play which means we are getting closer to tournament time! But before I get ahead of myself, I'll tell you a little bit about our three-match campaign this past weekend.

The team finished up mid-term week on Wednesday and headed into "Fall Break" ready to play some volleyball in West Virginia!! We left campus at 11 a.m. on Thursday morning embarking on our adventure. We took our time and made a pit stop for lunch at Panera (YUM!), one of our favorite places to eat! We relaxed in the bus (aka our second home) and did homework until we arrived at Alderson Broaddus for our first match of the weekend. We started the match fantastic in set one and maybe became a bit too confident and ran into a few hiccups during the rest of the match. It was a match of runs which put us in a fifth set. For lack of better words, we crippled across the finish line with a win. Not the path we wished to take for this match, but the overarching win was our ultimate goal.

That night, we traveled a little way and stopped at an IHOP for a late dinner (coach enjoyed some pumpkin spice pancakes...happy fall!) and arrived at our hotel for the weekend. I'm pretty sure we live in hotels during season and this one was our favorite so far! We hit the hay to rest up for our Friday morning surprise adventure. In the morning, we headed out to Fort Prickett and had the opportunity to learn a little bit about families that lived in WV in the 1700's. We spent time listening to stories of the Prickett family, listening to stories from our driver Tammy, and watching fabric be made by hand. It was so interesting and I kind of wished we had more time there! The scenery is beautiful, and history is one of my favorite things.

Later that day we headed to David & Elkins for our second match of the weekend. The match went very well for us, a great improvement of play on our behalf from the night before. We figured out some focus and intensity problems we had the night before. We finished the match 3-0 in sets. After the match, Davis & Elkins generously gave us some leftover food they had from their pre-game grill out which we gratefully took! We're weren't going to have enough time to make it to the restaurant we were planning on going to. God is good, and Davis & Elkins was kind enough to provide!

We then traveled back to our hotel to get some rest for Saturday's match against Ohio Valley. We woke up ready to play and finish off the weekend with another win. We headed to the school in the morning and arrived and warmed up well in a difficult gym (low ceilings) to play. Ohio Valley gave us a great match! It was tight each set, yet we squeaked out a 3-0 win in the end. This brand new OVU team showed up to play and we learned some more of our weaknesses on the court in turn. But, all in all, we came off the weekend with three wins. Something that is difficult to do! It's very tiring but the team didn't crash until we got on the bus to come back home! That was our Fall Break in WV!

We are excited for a HUGE week of play as we clinched a spot in the G-MAC tourney with our wins, we look forward to playing for seeding. Thanks for reading! Please continue to pray for the team to find time to rest physically as well as rest in the Lord this week!! We are thankful for you!

Today's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the University of Findlay Oilers in another important Great Midwest Athletic Conference match today in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, under the direction of tenth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (218-141), was 15-11 (10-2 G-MAC) heading into last night's home matchup with Hillsdale.

Findlay was 20-4 on the season with a 11-1 conference record going into Friday nights' contest at Ohio Dominican in Columbus.

Leading the Lady Jacket front line attack is G-MAC Athlete of the Week Gabby Olson. The 6-4 senior middle hitter tops the squad with 327 kills, 125 blocks and 37 aces.

CU's only other senior, outside hitter Krissy Pratt, ranks second with 255 kills and 293 digs. Pratt now has 916 kills in her four year career.

Rookie setter Sierra Schuitema leads CU with 589 assists while classmate Lindsey Bray adds 403 assists.

Head Coach Wick Colchagoff is in his 20th season with the Oilers and had a 401-235 career mark before the match at ODU on Friday night.

Pacing the Oilers offense is talented junior Amanda Winner. The 5-9 outside hitter is averaging over four kills per set with 439 kills in 2017. Sophomore Shelby Kin leads Findlay with a .324 attack percentage and 58 total blocks.

Junior setter Hailee Olson has registered 962 assists this fall to go with a team-high 34 service aces. Classmate Kara Scherger leads the Oiler back line with 435 digs (5.12/set).

Krissy Pratt

Findlay leads the all-time series with CU by a 23-17 margin including a five-set verdict over the visiting Lady Jackets on September 16 with scores of 18-25, 25-19, 25-20, 15-25, 15-11. Freshman Lauren Willow posted a double-double of 13 kills and 10 blocks in the match.
