Lady Jacket Softball Blog

March 16, 2022

In last week's episode of Cedarville Softball...

* I fell.

Flat on my face.

And took away my first HR at Cedarville ever.

* Don't fret though, Casey Bertke hit a few to pick me up alongside Kaley Clark, Faith Bergner, Mariah Wallace, Adaline Ziehermer, Lexi Parsons, and Carrie Jespersen.

* Casey Bertke was named G-MAC Player of the Week. Well earned, as always.

In the end, we were 12-2 in Florida. There seems to be complete buy in with the team.

* A few highlights of the week... Mac Russell hit .395 in the sunshine state, Emily Blake's ERA remained at a solid 0.00, Lauryn Leslie threw out her first runner from behind the plate, and Faith Bergner's hits started finding the grass instead of people.

Inside Scoop:

+ Emily Blake turned into a lobster.

+ Casey's mom carries chicken around in her purse apparently. You know, to appease Casey's huge appetite while they're shopping.

+ We've decided Soph should join the basketball team. One night at dinner she threw a piece of ice from one end of the table to the other aiming at Addie's glass of Coke. The ice landed in the soda perfectly.

+ Faith compared me to a baby bird.

+ We found out Mac once got pooped on by a bird... on her face.

...and Mark Womack became Mariah Wallace's source for dating advice.

Devotional:

Florida was a long trip. It always is. One thing that has always been a struggle in Florida is living in the present. It's hard to focus on every pitch of every at bat, especially when it's so easy to say "we're here for an entire week", or "one bad day won't hurt me", or even "tomorrow we have an off day."

Matthew 6:4 tells us "Do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." We cannot live in the past. We cannot skip to the future. Every time we step on a field we have to be present. Our team did a really good job of staying focused on the task at hand. We didn't give in or let up. We didn't let any games go and say "we can win tomorrow", we stayed in each and every game. We plan to take each game one step at a time in the future as well. We feel this is the best way to accomplish our goals because at the end of the season we want to be the ones in the G-MAC Championship. We want to be the ones to win it.

To close out this week's blog I would like to thank everyone who participated in making our Florida trip so wonderful. I'd like to thank the many parents who helped provide us with meals, but who also made the trip down south to support us. I'd like to thank Erin Ackerson, our beloved trainer, who put up with all of us and took great care of us. I'd also like to thank Mark Womack who did a wonderful job scoring our games, driving us around, and providing us with great dating advice. It was a great Florida trip indeed.

XOXO
