Wittenberg University vs. Cedarville College

Oct. 12, 1999

Yellow Jacket Women's Soccer

4:00 p.m.

Today's Match

Cedarville plays two straight non-conference matches on the home turf beginning this afternoon with Wittenberg University. The NCAA Division III Tigers, located in nearby Springfield, are trying to shake a three-game losing streak. Witt dropped a 1-0 decision at home on Saturday to Allegheny in a North Coast Athletic Conference game to fall to 3-9-1.

The Lady Jackets were 1-0 winners Saturday versus Walsh in American Mideast Conference action. Michelle Ruhlman scored the goal in the 53rd minute with an assist from Amy Wiggershaus. Katie Mummau made eight saves in goal to post her third shutout of the season.

Ruhlman continues to lead the Jackets in scoring with seven goals and three assists for 17 points. Kristen DeVinney has two goals with a team-high seven assists for 11 points while Amber Bungart has scored four goals. Mummau has a 0.88 goals against average.

Today is the second meeting in women's soccer between the two schools. Cedarville registered a 4-3 win at Wittenberg last fall.
