THE NAIA IN PERSPECTIVE

The basic concept upon which the philosophy of the NAIA is focused is that the intercollegiate athletics program of member institutions should be an integral part of the total educational program, subject to the same aims, policies and objectives as are other departments and programs.

The total intercollegiate program must be the full responsibility of the President and his administrative staff who must be in full control of the financial policies and procedures which govern the athletics program. A sound athletics program should be sponsored with the basic intent of providing the benefits of participation in athletics to as many students as possible. Gate receipts, although often essential, should not be the primary criterion for judging the success of the intercollegiate athletics program. Intercollegiate athletics must continually justify its full membership in the educational family of the member institution and, with proper administration, provide benefits to the athlete and the institution that are commensurate with this status and financial support.

For those institutions wishing to organize and administer intercollegiate athletics as a part of the total educational program, NAIA was established to provide opportunities for inter-institutional competition at the highest level of ability. National, district and area recognition is available through a program of 15 national championship events.

Academic policies have been adopted which assure that NAIA student-athletes first fulfill their responsibilities as students. Competitive eligibility must be completed within five years of attendance. The NAIA has adopted rules and standards which require that a student-athlete be fully eligible in every intercollegiate contest in which he competes for his institution. This stringent academic requirement is unique among organizations administering intercollegiate athletics on the national level.

The NAIA is organized so that the major responsibility for the administration of rules and standards lies within the thirty-one districts through a carefully selected District Eligibility Committee. Similarly, the thirty-one District Executive Committees have the major responsibility for administering a broad district participation program, consistent with nationally adopted policies.

The national events program structure makes it possible for any qualified member institution to compete in these events. However, income from all national events, as well as all other income, is used for the benefit of the total program and, secondly, for the benefit of the individual institutions that participate in national events. Consequently, member institutions have a responsibility to give preference to the NAIA program in their consideration of participation in post season or national events.

The philosophy of the NAIA is geared to those colleges and universities of moderate enrollment that administer their varsity sports programs on a sound educational and financial basis. The NAIA is not in competition with any other organization and seeks to support and compliment those with similar philosophies and goals. The test of the soundness of the NAIA philosophy is the continually growing strength of the organization.

The NAIA membership currently includes 520 four-year, fully accredited, degree-granting institutions, plus 40 affiliated conferences.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:
The Central Washington (25-6) Wildcats should once again be the district favorite as they seek a record 15th appearance in the national tournament and their seventh straight trip. Dean Nicholson begins his 15th season at Central and welcomes back four starters led by All-American forward Joe Holmes (6-7 sr.) and all-district frontliners Dennis Johnson (6-5 sr.) and Ray Orange (6-8 sr.). Seattle University transfer Eli Carter (6-5, so. g) is just another reason the Wildcats will be "the team to beat". Despite the loss of eight veterans, last season's runner-up, Pacific Lutheran (19-9) should be in the title chase. St. Martin's (16-4) has ten lettermen back from a 78-79 squad which surprised more than a few people and earned rookie mentor Len Stevens the district coach-of-the-year honor. Forward Bill Bredy (6-6 sr.) will lead the Saints. Western Washington (18-10) has strength in the backcourt with guards Rohn McCoy (6-6 sr.) and Kevin Bryant (6-2 sr.) to rely on. North of the border, another strong contender lurks with Simon Fraser (16-12) boasting a very strong nucleus returning led by high-scoring forward Jay Triano (6-4 jr.), one of the NAIA's best at his position. Eastern Washington suffered through its first losing season in nine years in 78-79, but could get back on the winning track with the likes of big Uli Sledz (7-0 jr.) up front.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:
Oregon Tech (24-6) really put Hawaii-Hilo (27-8) away in the district final a year ago, ending the Vulcans two-year reign. Those two teams appear to be the prime contenders once again, but all signs indicate that there will be a host of other strong challengers. Tech has key players returning from that national tourney team led by top-scoring guards Drew Schubert (6-4 sr.) and Manuel Crump (5-10 jr.) as well as team MVP John Williams (6-3 sr.) at forward. Hilo's strength is four starters returning for their senior year including all-district front-liner Todd Zirbel (6-6), play-making guard Pat Fitzgerald (6-3) and dead-eye forward Neville Brandt (6-3). Tremendous balance and depth should put Northwest Nazarene (20-11) in the playoff picture with seven returning lettermen, six of which scored in double-figures a year ago. The Crusaders are paced by senior Jeff DiBene (6-9) at the post. Three other strong hopefuls should be Warner Pacific (18-9), Lewis & Clark (17-11) and Southern Oregon (13-13), all with veteran-laden line-ups on hand. Western Baptist (14-15) only loses one key letterman, but that is 30 points of offense from national scoring champ Don Hiebenthal, who has graduated. Two new NAIA members will be on the district scene when Chaminade University and Hawaii Pacific launch their programs hopeful of making an immediate successful impression.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:
It's guaranteed to be a new district champion this season as 78-79 titlist Cal State-Dominguez Hills is no longer an NAIA member. That opens the door for a real scramble to inherit district supremacy. An early guess would probably have Point Loma (25-11) in a loose "favorite's role". The Crusaders, district runner-up a year ago, will be after their fifth straight Southern League championship and will rely heavily on backcourters Pat Hedman (6-2 sr.) and Steve Southworth (6-3 sr.) to pace five returning lettermen. Traditional power Westmont (18-10) will defend the Northern League crown but must fill some huge voids created by the departure of ten lettermen. While Westmont contends while rebuilding, the power up north and maybe all over District 3 should be Biola (17-15) minus only one starter from a good campaign last year. Key Eagle performers will be all-district guard Greg Berglund (6-4 sr.) and fine inside forward Joel Fry (6-6 sr.). If Biola can just hold their own until second semester, Cal State-Fullerton transfer Dave Rhode (6-11 sr.) should be a key performer. Elsewhere, Redlands (15-12) should be much improved while Southern California College (15-14) hopes the return of All-American guard Paul Anderson (6-3 sr.) will make the Vanguards a contender.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

The Lone Star Conference coaches seem to be convinced that defending conference and district champ Southwest Texas (29-7) should wear the loop's "favorite" label. Coach Dan Wall will have four starters and seven lettermen back from the team that finished third in the national tournament. A question mark lurks for the Bobcats, however, as All-American James Patrick will miss early season action with an injury. Forward Charles Spurlin (6-7 jr.) will need to take up some slack and help should come the second half of the season when Texas A&M transfer Doug Pederson (6-11 jr.) becomes eligible. East Texas State (23-7) will be a major force as usual but must replace All-American center Lee Johnson (6-11) who was a first round pro draft choice. The Lions hope freshman prospect Henry Battle (6-10) might be the answer in the middle. Always-tough Howard Payne (20-7) will be in the thick of things with rookie coach Chester Story greeting six Yellowjacket regulars including standout guard Gary Hopkins (6-0 and all-conference backcourt mate Marshall Davis (6-3 sr.) Texas A&I (13-13) could get into the Lone Star race simply on the efforts of last year's league scoring and rebounding leader Ed Turner (6-7 jr.), an All-American forward. Over in the Big State Conference, things appear much less balanced as St. Mary's (19-8) is a solid favorite to win its 14th consecutive league crown despite losing five lettermen.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Southern Maine (21-7) will seek its third straight district title in this large NAIA region. The Huskies will lose three starters from last year's national tournament team but among the returnees is All-American forward John Jordan (6-7 jr.), one of the best rebounders in the country. The district race usually turns into a numbers game, but it appears that Franklin Pierce (19-9) has the numbers to revenge a loss to Southern Maine in the district final a year ago. The Ravens have all five starters returning and seven lettermen led by Greg Trotman (6-5 jr.) and Larry Leach (6-4 so.) up front. The return of guard Pat Dean (5-9 so.) to the school where he averaged nearly 25 points a game two seasons ago will also be a lift. Elsewhere, if either of those two contenders should falter Western New England (15-11), defending Mayflower Conference champ, Maine-Presque Isle (14-5), defending Northeast Conference winner, and top independents Husson and Keene State could get their feet in the playoff door.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Unless the so-called "sophomore jinx" applies to teams as well as individuals, Winthrop (25-10) will be a heavy favorite to win the district after coming within one basket of doing so last season, the school's first year of intercollegiate basketball. Former national coach-of-the-year Nield Gordon has all twelve players that made up the Eagle roster last season back at it again. The returnees are led by super twins Ronnie and Donnie Creamer (6-10 srs.) who were part of an American contingent of NAIA all stars which toured Australia over the summer. Defending champ Central Wesleyan (26-10) lost eight lettermen and would appear to be in for a rebuilding season. Newberry (20-15) has a great basketball tradition (Winthrop Coach Gordon is their former mentor) and will have four starters returning to the floor led by all-district postman Dwayne Nelson (6-7 jr.), a pure inside performer. Coastal Carolina (18-13) likes its chances with eight lettermen on the scene including all-district frontliner Forrest Junck (6-7), point guard Dwight Light (6-0 sr.) and forward David Thorbes (6-6 sr.). Lander (26-6) had a sensational season in 78-79 and will have four starters returning for an encore led by a fine all-around forward Clinton Cobb (6-4 jr.) as well as his frontline mates Alonzo Harrison (6-6 sr.) and James Davis (6-3 sr.). Francis Marion (18-12) has everybody back from a very successful season led by all-district forward Robert Moore (6-6 sr.) and should be playoff bound while Erskine (14-15) will be one of the most improved squads.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Grand Canyon (24-4) has become a fixture appearing in six of the last seven national tournaments including a pair of national titles. Despite losing their two outstanding starting guards, the Antelopes' front line is intact led by Bill Price (6-6 sr.) at forward. Coach Ben Lindsey has come up with a pair of blue chip players to take over in the backcourt in Mike Ricketts (6-3 jr.) and Jim Pyers (6-0 fr.). Western New Mexico (18-8) has best intentions of seeing that the Lopes stay home when March rolls around. The Mustangs will defend their Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title with all five starters returning and ten lettermen paced by guards Johnny Portillo (5-11 sr.) and Darryl Ransom (6-3 so.). Southern Utah (20-6) was runner up to the Mustangs in the RMAC and the last team other than Canyon to represent the district at the national tourney (1977). The Thunderbirds have added size to go with a fine guard Butch Douglas (6-3 sr.). Mesa (13-12) has one of the district's top leaders in point guard Rob Chavez (6-0 sr.) as well as heralded junior college transfers Manuel Washington (6-5 jr.) and Scoop Edwards (6-3 jr.). Watch for Adams State (11-14) to make a run at the RMAC crown with the likes of Lee Prolow (6-7 sr.) and a fine recruit Dwayne Straws (6-5 soph.). Fort Lewis (18-12) and Southern Colorado (13-13) could cause some commotion in the league and district races also.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Midwestern (24-17) has the credentials for its third straight trip to the national tournament with all five starters back from a fourth place finish in Kansas City a year ago. Headlining Dr. Gerald Stockton's Indians will be Tony Forch (6-5 sr.), an All-American standout who had an outstanding national tourney performance. Forward Paul Brantley (6-5 sr.) and sharp-shooting guard Kyle Williams (6-1 sr.) are also key for the Indians. McMurry (20-7) and Sul Ross (14-10) finished one-two in the Texas Intercollegiate League last year and appear to be the favorites again. McMurry's problem will be depth as guard Donnie Ray Cruse (6-0 sr.) and forward Steve Mackey (6-4) must carry heavy loads. Sul Ross is confident newcomers will blend well with veterans like backcourt ace Ricky Enriquez (5-10 jr.). The best of the independents is Prairie View, runner-up to Midwestern in the district last year, as new mentor Calvin White welcomes 11 lettermen including leading scorer Larry Hagen (6-4 sr.) and Melvin Smith (6-8 sr.).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

In a word, Cameron (36-3) should be awesome this year. The Aggies have all five starters and eight lettermen back from the 78-79 squad which finished the regular season as the number one ranked NAIA team in the country and gained the top seed in the national tournament. National coach-of-the-year Lonnie Nichols must sleep well at night thinking about his terrific trio of All-Americans—Leroy Jackson (6-4 sr.), Andre King (6-2 sr.), and Ray Franklin (6-8 sr.). Cameron enters the season with a 26-game regular season winning streak. Most Likely candidates to give Cameron a run for their money appear to be Sooner Athletic Conference champ Oklahoma Christian (27-7), Science and Arts (16-19) and Northeastern State. OCC has six veterans back including a first classer of its own in forward Dwayne Williams (6-5 jr.). Last season's district runner-up, Southwestern State (23-6) will dip into the newcomers to replace all five starters, but the Bulldogs should not be ruled out of contention while they rebuild.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

A new 7300 seat civic arena will allow even more people to see Marymount (26-6) continue its winning tradition at home, and the Spartans should once again be the power to be reckoned with among Kansas small colleges. Ten year mentor Ken Cochran has done his usual fine job of adding new talent to a program which prides itself on speed and depth. Back for the Salina, Kansas school is David Williams (6-4 sr.), and Tommy Williams (6-3 sr.) and exciting playmaker Larry Jones (5-7 jr.). Best of the Spartan newcomers should be junior college All-American Henry Murphy (6-3 jr.) from New York City. Kansas Newman (20-12) will no doubt miss the services of all-district forward LeRoy Leep but the Jets appear capable of dethroning Marymount with eight lettermen back led by Ron Nagy (6-4 sr.) and Jo Jo Covington (6-2 sr.). Defending KCAC champ Southwestern (18-8) looms as the favorite in that loop again with eight veterans still around including all-district postman Paul Wilke (6-9 sr.) and flashy backcourt Tom Williams (6-1 jr.) and Eugene Cheadle (6-2 so.). At Benedictine (14-16), new head coach Tom Judge has taken over the reigns of a veteran ballclub and may have the best guard in the district with Kirby Foray (6-1 sr.) in the backcourt. Fort Hays (16-17) will be a Central States contender if an injury to Mark Wilson (6-1 sr.) is not too hampering while Washburn (21-6) will miss five regulars. Emporia (12-17) could get back into the district chase if Coach Ron Slaymker can build around guard George Jerman (6-2 sr.).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Kearney State (25-8) has ten lettermen returning in an attempt to capture its third straight district championship. Foremost of the returnees is Tim Higgins (6-5 sr.), honorable mention All-American forward last season. The Lopers will have to worry about last year's runner-up, Hastings (23-4), in the district playoff picture. The Broncos lost two starters but had a good recruiting effort. They will be paced by forward Tim Shanahan (6-4 jr.) who scored 16 a game in 78-79 while averaging 13 rebounds a contest. Doane (13-15) was one of the toughest teams in Nebraska down the stretch last season and will be definite threats to dethrone Kearney. The Tigers have eight lettermen back including Jon Parker (6-9 sr.), Gary Karthaus (6-4 jr.) and Gary Stubblefield (6-0 sr.), all of whom scored in double figures a year ago. Wayne State (12-17) could turn its 78-79 season around with three key starters back on the scene led by Zake Lorick (5-10 so.), Willie Summers (5-11 sr.) and postman Wattie Rhoda (6-5 sr.).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Dakota Wesleyan (26-3) made its first appearance at the national tournament in 15 years last season but the Tigers would rather make it an immediate return with another berth this March. Pacing the hopefuls of 19-year head coach Gordie Fosness is Montaness Scott (6-7 jr.) who led the SDIC in scoring with 26 a game last year, and Jim Stoebner (6-5 sr.) an all-conference forward. The top two contenders to dethrone the Tigers appear to be Huron (21-6) or Eastern Montana (19-10). Huron was runner-up to Wesleyan in the SDIC and will have seven lettermen back led by honorable mention All-American guard Terry Dupris (6-1 sr.). Eastern Montana is the perennial powerhouse and the Yellowjackets should be strong favorites to repeat as Frontier Conference champs. Balance will be their forte with eight lettermen and four starters back on the scene, but a brutal schedule which includes five NCAA Division I powers is a major undertaking. District finalist Minot State has some questions to answer but will be a threat with All-American guard Paul Harrell (6-1 sr.) back on the scene. New NAIA member Brandon (27-9) of Manitoba, Canada, brings a successful cage program to the district and could make an immediate impression with three All-Canadian team stars returning, each of whom scored over 16 points a game a year ago.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

It will take a monumental effort for St. John's (27-3) to win its third straight district title with no starters returning and a number of vastly-improved teams waiting in the wings. While the Johnnies can hope at best for a quick rebuilding year, last year's runner-up, Mankato State (23-6) is getting the early attention as their successor. The Mavericks have six lettermen on hand to defend their NIC title led by forward Roy Groce (6-8 sr.). Figuring to give the Mavs all they can handle, however, will be veteran squads at Moorhead State (18-10) and St. Cloud State (15-12). Moorhead must replace all-time scoring leader Jim Kapitan, but the Dragons have four other starters returning intact led by all-district center Kevin Mulder (6-6 sr.) and guard Marcus Pharr (6-2 jr.). St. Cloud has four starters back, best of which is Dan Hagen (6-7 jr.) a 20-point plus frontliner. Over in the MIAC, St. Olaf (19-9) and Augsburg (17-10) tied for second behind St. John's last season and have the credentials to snare the conference crown this time around. The Oles will be deep and especially strong up front with likes of Phil Meyers (6-8 sr.). Augsburg has nine experienced bodies returning but must come up with a big point producer to replace graduated guard Dave Boots.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

It was a very young Wisconsin-Eau Claire (24-7) squad which last year broke the four-year reign of Wisconsin-Parkside (20-9) as district champs, so what we have this season is a very seasoned and talented Blugold team. Coach Ken Anderson's crew must be considered a clear-cut favorite to repeat with all five starters back from the national tournament team, including Gib Hinz (7-0 sr.) who many are calling the best big man at an NAIA institution since Jack Sikma. Hinz is flanked by several capable bodies led by Joe Merten (6-7 jr.) at forward and Tony Carr (6-3 soph.) at guard. What Hinz means to Eau Claire, All-American forward Lonnie Lewis (6-8 sr.) also means to Parkside. The Rangers also have some size in the middle with Lester Thompson (7-0 sr.) working the pivot, and it appears that forward Reggie Anderson (6-5 jr.) has the wing opposite Lewis nailed down. If Parkside can come up with a potent backcourt combo, it should be another repeat battle between the two schools when playoff time rolls around again. Outside considerations in the district race would be Wisconsin-Superior (21-7), Wisconsin-Stevens Point (14-12) and Lakeland (22-16). Superior has a fine guard in Anthony Watson (6-3 sr.), but will miss three key starters. Stevens Point is being touted as the most improved team in the district, but the Pointers would appear to lack the size needed to challenge with only Bill Zuiker (6-8 jr.) up front. Lakeland has a fine forward with Terry Felix (6-4 jr.) on the wing and guard Mark Westcott (5-10 sr.) adds backcourt saavy.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

No reason to assume Briar Cliff (28-3) will not win its fifth straight district championship as Coach Ray Nacke's "Panamanian Pipeline" continues to operate. Foremost of the Panama natives on the Charger squad is All-American forward Rolando Frazier (6-6 jr.) who has gotten the attention of pro scouts since his freshman season. Guard Reggie Grenald (6-1 so.) is also back and two new talented imports are Israel Virgier (6-6 so.) and Rolando Lawrence (6-5 so.). If anybody has a shot at stopping the awesome Charger attack, it would appear Loras (24-12), last year's runner-up, probably would. The Duhawks have eight lettermen returning including four starters led by guard Terry Callahan (5-11 sr.), forward Jeff Carter (6-4 sr.) and postman Kurt Denner (6-9 jr.). Elsewhere, Graceland (16-11) has three starters returning led by Glenn Wright (6-9 jr.), but the Yellowjackets appear to be short on depth. New member school Grandview (23-7) brings a successful program on the scene, but doesn't appear to be in the class of a Briar Cliff.

Everybody will be out to dethrone Drury (33-2) as the district and NAIA National champions. Although new mentor Skip Shear inherits a tough act to follow and minus six lettermen, the fruits of victory paid off on the recruiting front, and the Panthers should be the front runner in this tough basketball district. Gone from the Drury scene is two-time All-American Jerry Alexander, national tournament MVP Lawrence Washington, and tourney hustle award winner Mike Carter. The returning starters are outstanding, however, with honorable mention All-American forward James Bone (6-5 sr.) at power forward and standout guard Nate Quinn in the backcourt. Among the top recruits, the Panthers will showcase is heralded forward Marcus Peel (6-5 jr.), MVP at Tulsa University last year and 1977 Oklahoma high school player-of-the-year, in addition to Jackson State MS transfer Reuben Ables (6-5 so.) and freshman guard Randy Taylor (6-5). Iowa State transfer Joe Gideon (6-4 jr.) could also be of immediate value. Top challengers should be Rockhurst (20-9), Missouri-Kansas City (17-11), and Evangel (15-15), with Heart of America favorite Central Methodist a darkhorse. Rockhurst Coach Jerry Reynolds will add talent to incumbents Mark Teahan (6-7 so.) and twin guards Rick and Mick Allison (5-11 srs.). UMKC has four returning starters and eight lettermen back. Coach Darrell Corwin's crew will be highlighted by the 23-point scoring of honorable mention All-American guard Vinnie Gayle (6-1 sr.) and versatile forward Mark Hatfield (6-4 sr.). Not only will there be a Hatfield on the Kangaroos' frontline, but also a McCoy (Clifford), a 6-5 junior who is the heir apparent to departed rebounding expert Willie Jones. Evangel will be very quick but will lack size. The Crusaders will rely on guard Aaron Byrd (6-3 sr.) to pace the returnees and newcomer Shawn Kuhn (6-4 jr.), a junior college All-American, should be an immediate starter.

They appear to have the talent for a return trip with the likes of All-American forward Anthony Avery (6-5 sr.) and John Hansen (6-1 jr.) at guard. There should be plenty of competitive balance in Arkansas, however, making it a big chore for the Reddies to repeat. Hendrix (23-8) would like to reverse a loss to Henderson in the district finals a year ago and have ten lettermen on hand to undertake that challenge. The Warriors are led by honorable mention All-American guard Austin Sullivan (5-8 sr.) an exciting floor wizzard, and forward Herman Hammons (6-3 jr.). Elsewhere, Arkansas-Pine Bluff (17-10) is counting on seven veterans to give them a shot at the district crown. The Golden Lions will revolve around the talents of guards Raymond Sanders (6-4 jr.) and Victor Lark (6-3 sr.). Coach Jack Holley has an experienced team returning at the College of the Ozarks (17-17). The Mountaineers are led by all-district frontliners Myron Butler (6-7 sr.) and Elton White (6-3 sr.). Southern Arkansas (19-6) will need to replace three starters but still have Donnie Coffman (6-6 jr.) at the post and some promising newcomers.

The success story of Point Park (26-5) was not just a fairy tale. The Pioneers are for real and are looking forward to nine lettermen and three returning starters to propel them to Kansas City again. Among the top returnees are all-district forwards Melvin Paul (6-6 sr.) and Nathan "Sonny" Lewis (6-3 sr.). They must fill a void created by the graduation of Terry Peavy, All-American guard. Westminster (22-4) is always tough and will be in the thick of the district chase despite the loss of eight lettermen. On paper, the most apparent threat to Point Park should be Mercyhurst (15-12), who recorded one of the five victories over the Pioneers last season. The Lakers under sophomore mentor Dan O'Connor lost only one starter from a year ago and can boast a dozen lettermen on the scene, foremost of which is Sherrad Bennard (5-8 sr.), a tremendous point guard. Clarion (22-6) will be hard pressed to equal last season's record with three seniors gone. The Golden Eagles will be talented but very young. Penn State-Behrend (19-6) is talking about a district championship with all five of its starters returning intact from a fine 78-79 campaign. The Cubs are led by Greg Vaughn (6-4 jr.) at forward, Ron Williams (6-2 sr.) on the other side, and guards Mike Powell (6-0 jr.) and Kevin Hudson (5-8 jr.). Waynesburg (20-5) is coming off its best season ever and will have all-district guard Rod Wheeler (5-11 sr.) around.

There weren't many underclassmen in this district last year so a lot of veteran teams are on hand. Norfolk State (23-8) appears capable of a title defense with three starters returning including All-American Kenny Evans (6-3 sr.) and second leading scorer and top rebounder Bob Isabelle (6-6 sr.). Hampton Institute (24-6) has one of the nation's best players in All-American forward Ricky Mahorn (6-10 sr.), a fixture under the boards. Second year Coach Chuck Taylor may well have the first district championship team ever at Radford (23-4), with a senior starting five and nine lettermen. Balance is the key to the Highlanders' success with Dan Grubbs (6-7 sr.) and Dan Wilbourne (6-1 sr.) the most valuable commodities. Another school coming off a fine season without losing a regular is Spring Garden (16-6). The Bobcats will surely be in the title chase with the likes of all-district forward Bob Fleming (6-3 sr.) leading the way. Other veteran-laden clubs exist at Philadelphia Pharmacy (22-5) and Messiah (26-5). Messiah boasts another of the district's many talented individuals in Mike Matto (6-0 sr.), a sharp-shooting all-district guard who registered 47 points in one contest last season.

Coach Sherrill Hanks has three of his five starters back from a year ago led by rugged forward Eric Karg (6-6 jr.) and much-improved postman Dennis Jordan (6-11 sr.). The Hawks have some outstanding freshmen prospects who could work their way into starting slots and "improve with age." Top challengers for Quincy should be Eureka (20-4) and Chicago State (24-7). Eureka is coming off one of its best seasons ever and have reason to think about dethroning Quincy with four starters and no less than nine lettermen around for another season. Coach Dave Darnall will count on forward Hughley Blanton (6-6 sr.), guard Tom Cassisy (6-2 sr.) and backcourter Joel Micetich (6-3 sr.) to provide the necessary leadership. Chicago State looks intent on revenging a two-point loss to Quincy in the district title game a year ago. Despite losing All-American Mike Eversley to graduation, the Cougars should be strong favorites to repeat as CCA Conference champs with leading scorer Ken Dancy (6-6 sr.) and center Jose Bedenfield (6-10 sr.). Other contenders include St. Xavier (20-12), runner-up in the CCA last year, Illinois College (14-12) and defending NIIC champ Illinois Benedictine (16-11). Rockford (19-7) loses four starters but the returnee is fine guard Ted Frits (6-0 sr.).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

The best indication of the strength in this district is the fact that two schools made the national tournament last season. Hanover (24-6) won the district title defeating Tri-State (31-4), which also gained a berth as the highest ranked team not surviving district playoffs. Hanover will be hard pressed to repeat with only senior guard Rick Rosebrough (6-0) returning to the starting lineup. The Panthers will face stiff challengers in the tough Hoosier-Buckeye Conference where Anderson (22-9) has nine lettermen back and Manchester (10-16) will be the most improved team in the state. Sophomore guard Doug Reams (6-0) will lead Anderson while the nation's leading field goal percentage shooter, Brian Conwell (6-5 sr.), paces five returning starters at Manchester. Tri-State appears a better bet to repeat in the Mid-Central Conference than Hanover in the Hoosier-Buckeye. The Trojans have seven lettermen but must replace three starters, all on the frontline. Franklin (15-10) is usually the class of the independents and this year will be no exception. The Grizzlies boast four starters and a total of eight lettermen including 19-point scorer Gordon Clemens (6-7 jr.), an all-district pick at forward, and team MVP Randy Reece (6-2 jr.) at guard. The only other independents with personnel able to rise above Franklin would appear to be Bethel (22-12) and Marian (13-12). Marian has to be vastly improved with every single player returning led by standout guard Brian Mills (5-11 jr.).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Whether or not somebody can seriously challenge Central State (22-7) for district supremacy is the underlying question as the Marauders appear strong favorites to win their fifth straight district championship and gain their 12th national tournament berth. Dr. Lu Wims begins his sixth season at the helm and has the talents of All-American Melvin Crafter (6-6 sr.) at forward with a 26-point scoring average. Crafter is capably joined by Eric Love (6-3 so.) and Luellen Black (6-3 sr.). CSU is expecting big things from some key newcomers led by center Robert Blackmon (6-8 fr.). Last year's runner-up, Dyke College, has some key returnees and should stay in the district chase. Defending Mid-Ohio Conference champ Rio Grande (18-3) was hit heavily by graduation but always comes up with capable replacements and can't be counted out. A good Cedarville (16-11) nucleus returns and should challenge for the MOC title with 24-point scorer Eric Mount (6-3 jr.) at guard and Kim Kauffman (6-6 sr.) at forward. Hoosier-Buckeye Conference contenders are Defiance (18-8), Findlay (18-8) and Wilmington (14-14). Defiance must strengthen its frontline, but has a pair of fine guards in Jim Arnzen (6-0 jr.) and Larry Flynn (5-10 sr.). Findlay will be strong despite the possibility of starting a lineup without a senior. Center Bill Kotterman (6-6 jr.) and guard Ken Pothast (6-1 jr.) will pace the Oiler attack. Wilmington should be better with the experience of LeRoy Berry (6-3 sr.) and Kevin Clayton (6-1 jr.) on the floor for the Quakers.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

Last year's district finale was a thriller as Grand Valley (25-5) captured a one-point decision over Hillsdale (24-6). Every indication points to the possibility that those same two teams could be battling it out in the end again this year. Grand Valley will undoubtedly miss graduated All-American guard Chris Raven, but the Lakers have a host of other fine talent back on the scene led by frontliners Mark Checklich (6-9 sr.) and Mark Principe (6-6 jr.), all-conference guard Tom Garner (6-1 jr.) and Ed Moultrie (6-0 jr.), the heir apparent to Raven. Hillsdale will be out for revenge this time around and have all the ingredients to accomplish it. The Chargers have possibly the best individual leader in the GLIAC with Dale Allen (6-6 jr.) returning at forward. Point guard Willie Scott (5-10 so.) is also an example of the type of team player that should make Hillsdale a national tournament contender. Elsewhere in the GLIAC, Saginaw Valley (14-12) could get in the thick of the title race if the right blend of newcomers can be found to go with All-American guard Louis O'Neal (6-0 so.), point guard Al MacDonald (6-2 jr.) and pivotman Jim Wing (6-8 sr.). Ferris State (17-9) is always a conference consideration, but it would appear the Bulldogs lack the size to stay with the rest of the pack. The leading district independent should be Siena Heights (23-7) which will start five experienced seniors led by swingman Ty Richardson (6-4).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

It will take a few new tricks for the Magicians of Lemoyne-Owen (24-12) to pull another district championship out of their hats. The only regular back on hand will be forward Tommie Newton (6-6 jr.). The Magicians will even be hard pressed to repeat as Volunteer State Athletic Conference champs where a pair of Jackson, Tennessee schools, Lambuth (20-8) and Union (20-8), appear capable of replacing them. Lambuth returns eight lettermen and four starters from its 78-79 district runner-up team. The Eagles are led by all-district guard Ed Martindale (6-0 sr.) and versatile Terry Martin (6-4 jr.). Union defeated Lemoyne-Owen twice during the regular season last year but dropped a four-point decision to the Magicians in the VSAC post-season tournament. The Bulldogs will have nearly everybody back including All-American standout Richard Rice (6-5 sr.), forward Kenny Lloyd (6-2 sr.) and guard Steve Moore (6-3 sr.). Tennessee Wesleyan (20-12) must overcome the unexpected loss of a couple of top players to be in the title chase, but they do have a pair of solid forwards in Ed Taylor (6-4 sr.) and Carl Shivers (6-4 jr.). Lincoln Memorial (9-19) could do a complete turn-around and get into contention again with then lettermen and four newcomers, all over 6-8. Southern Christian Athletic Conference champ Lee (17-3) finished second in the NCCAA national tourney last year and will be that loop's favorite again. The best big man in the district should be Covenant's Jeff Klein (6-10 sr.), a returning All-American who led Tennessee teams in rebounding a year ago.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

The Running Hornets of Southern Tech (29-6) will undergo a personnel facelift with only Steve Jackson (6-5 sr.) returning to the starting line-up and just three other Hornets with any collegiate experience coming back. Especially missed will be Tech's All-American forward Sinclair Keith. Ready to challenge for the district crown is a strong unit at LaGrange (21-12), second place finishers in the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last season. The Panthers have nine lettermen to provide experience and depth and their returnees are paced by all-district forward Ed Starr (6-5 sr.), leading rebounder in the GIAC, and guard Todd Whitsitt (6-2 sr.), the NAIA's A.O. Duer Scholar-Athlete honoree in 1978-79. Elsewhere, Oglethorpe (18-12) seems a clinch to make the district playoffs with all five starters returning intact and a total of seven lettermen. The Stormy Petrels are rich in talent and will spotlight all-district cagers Bob Wolfe (6-7 sr.) and leading scorer Donnie Bailey (6-2 sr.). Both North Georgia (18-11) and Berry (12-14) appear capable of getting into the GIAC and district title chases also. North Georgia will have nine lettermen and three returning starters on hand with big things expected from forward Willie Franklin (6-5 jr.) and 78-79 freshman of the year Ricky Glasper (6-3 so.). Berry has reason to expect big things also with all five Viking starters back together for another season. The Vikes' regulars all have scoring averages of nine or better per game led by Alvin "A-Bone" Ragland (6-6 sr.) who averaged nearly 24 points an outing last year.

NAIA DISTRICT PREVIEWS

DISTRICT 26 (continued)

Conference crown again despite the loss of their leading scorer and rebounder, Charlie Floyd. The Panthers will count on eight veterans led by all-district guard Danny Anderson (6-1 sr.) and Charlie's little brother Bruce Floyd (6-8 so.), a fine second year player. Top challengers in the CIAC will be Pembroke State (13-15) and Pfeiffer (25-6), the latter despite the loss of its top two players (All-American Mike Epps and all-district center Henry Panzer). Pembroke has nine lettermen back this season including all five starters. The Braves have an outstanding backcourt tandem with Melvin Reid (6-0 sr.) and Ralph Fletcher (6-2 jr.). Their size problems may be a thing of the past if freshman center Louie Hunter (6-10) comes through. Over in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Winston-Salem (19-9) should again be a power under 34-year head coach Clarence "Big House" Gaines. The Rams return three key starters and six lettermen paced by forward Reggie Gaines (6-7 sr.) and guard Michael Robinson (6-6 sr.). Johnson C. Smith (12-14) got off to a slow start in 78-79 but were so young they were being termed the "Baby Bulls" by opponents. A few upsets later they were getting a little more respect, and now the Golden Bulls are a legitimate contender. Heading up their returning starters is last year's freshman sensation, Bill Tibbs (6-8), who grabbed nearly 11 rebounds and scored 24 points a game his rookie campaign. He will be joined by massive postman James George (6-9 jr.), a transfer from N.C.-Charlotte. Among the district independents, Gardner-Webb (24-6) loses seven lettermen but can't be counted out. The Bulldogs still have two fine guards in Earl Nesbit (6-1 sr.) and Ron Fuller (6-3 sr.) and have again come up with some blue-chip recruits. Other independents with promising outlooks are Mars Hill (15-15) and Lenoir Rhyne (14-16). Mars Hill has one of the district's top individuals in forward John Patterson (6-7 sr.), who scored at a 21-point clip and pulled down 12 rebounds a game last year. Lenoir Rhyne will have four starters back including standout guard Zack Owens (6-1 so.), a 22-point scorer.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

This could be the most competitive district race in the nation with several outstanding teams assembled for the knock-down-drag-out, but most prognosticators will tell you it should basically result in a three-team battle. Birmingham Southern (29-4) will seek a third straight Southern States Conference and district crown, and the Panthers will have nine lettermen and three starters back to undertake that task. Second year coach Greg Walcavich must sleep well knowing that his two all-district players in 78-79, Mike Groggans (6-3 sr.) and Willie Williams (6-4 sr.), are back again, as well as two-year starter Jay Higgenbotham (6-4 jr.). Alabama-Huntsville (24-7) will no doubt miss the services of All-American forward Tony Vann, but the Chargers have nine other experienced people back including James Dumes (6-5 jr.), James Mundie (6-0 jr.) and a super-charged forward Ricky Knight (6-5 jr.). Coach Al "Kayo" Willis is also excited about the prospects of two recruits, Ben Mitchell (6-7 jr.) and high school All-American Chris Orr (6-0 fr.). Alabama State (24-3) is the third team in the thick of things and may have the most impressive credentials of the trio. The Hornets return ten lettermen including four full-time starters from the 78-79 team which came within a basket of the district championship. Their strength is in their frontline where double-figure scorers Kevin Loder (6-6 jr.), Melvin Crayton (6-6 sr.) and James Smith (6-8 so.) handle the action under the hoop. The Hornets also have some promising freshman help including three newcomers who averaged over 20 points an outing during their senior prep seasons.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

It took seven years for someone to finally break the district championship string of Fairmont State (20-8), but West Virginia Wesleyan (24-8) accomplished that feat last season and would like to start a little consecutive string of its own. The Bobcats boast the return of All-American John Bates (6-6 sr.) to their unit in addition to high-scoring swingman Jim Brogan (6-6 sr.). Fairmont seems intent on recapturing its relinquished crown and certainly has the talent to do so. Leroy Loggins (6-5 sr.), the WVIAC scoring champ, will bolster the Falcons' attack, and the team should be even better the second half of the season when Andre Allen (6-8 jr.) and Darryl Corley (6-6 jr.) become eligible. Elsewhere, last year's runner-up, Concord (17-16), will not be the surprise they were a year ago. The Mountain Lions have eight veterans back including four starters led by Will Johnson (6-4 sr.) and Randy Jennings (6-0 so.). Shepherd (16-12) can get into the playoff picture with three returning double-figure scorers leading the way. The Rams are led by Chuck Hipp (6-5 sr.), Larry Cain (6-0 sr.) and John Koeppke (6-0 jr.). Bluefield State (21-8) must replace three starters, but have eight lettermen to choose from. The Big Blues will count on Keith Oakes (6-5 jr.) and Chase Williams (6-3 so.) to lead the way. The most improved WVIAC team will be Charleston (14-16) with ten lettermen and all five starters returning. The Golden Eagles spotlight a three-year, all-conference selection in standout guard Emil Boatwright (6-2 sr.).

Louisiana College (22-6) will have a good chance at repeating with four returning starters, but the Wildcats will feel the void created by the graduation of All-American forward Paul Poe (24 ppg). While four freshmen challenge for the vacated spot, all-district forward Ronnie Proctor (6-7 sr.) will carry a heavy load. Returning guard Mike Talbert (6-3 sr.) is a good one and postman Les Chappell (7-0 sr.) keeps getting better. The major challengers for the title appear to be William Carey (21-13), Rust College (18-12) and Dillard (12-14). William Carey will boast an experienced unit with nine Crusader lettermen returning. They are led by point guard Jim Bloomfield (5-10 jr.) and versatile forward Clyde Moore (6-5 sr.). Rust has four veteran ballplayers with good size but may still be a player or two shy of seriously challenging. Dillard looks like a darkhorse selection and will be in the thick of the district race with the talents of high-scoring forward Charles Hightower (6-6 sr.) and guard Reginald Sanders (6-5 sr.). Last year's runner-up, Xavier LA, should not be counted out despite some gaps to fill.

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

After having their three-year district championship streak snapped by St. John Fisher (22-7) last season, it appears Dowling (21-6) will carry the favorite's role this season. The Golden Lions should have an edge on experience over St. John with seven lettermen and four starters returning for the 79-80 campaign compared to the loss of four starters by the Cardinals. Dowling will miss leading scorer and rebounder Chris Williams, but have some other outstanding talent led by forward Todd Sankes (6-4 sr.) and guards Tony Roye (6-3 sr.) and Lem McCray (5-9 sr.). The Cards, on the other hand, must rely on All-American forward Bob Renzy (6-3 sr.) to bolster the squad while newcomers scramble for positions. Nazareth (14-8) hopes that a pleasant blend of youth and experience will enable it to join in on the district title chase. The Golden Flyers return their top scorer and rebounder in John Dansler (6-4 jr.) and complement him with a balanced attack. Daemen (15-13) will be the top independent and are paced by a pair of seniors, Joe Brown (6-1/23 ppg) and Willie Hatten (6-4/13 ppg). Houghton (7-17) is sure to rebound from a disappointing 78-79 season, especially with the return of two-time national rebounding champ, Brian Rhoades (6-10 sr.), and high-scoring sophomore guard Ted Smith (6-4).

1979-80 OUTLOOK:

The Thorobreds of Kentucky State (18-11) would have to be considered the clear-cut favorite this season with four starters back from a team that was a surprising winner a year ago. Second year coach Ron Mitchell must have been overwhelmed with the success of the Thorobreds in 78-79 since it was basically a rebuilding season. Back on the scene will be all-district guard Bruce Coles (6-0 jr.) and forward Mike Busby (6-6 jr.), in addition to four other lettemen and three outstanding freshmen recruits. Berea (20-9) will defend its KIAC championship and hopes for a rematch with Kentucky State for the district title. The Mountaineers must replace four departed starters, however, and may have too many newcomers to seriously contend. Cumberland (22-15) could step in and grab the KIAC crown with seven lettermen around led by forward James Dallas (6-7 so.) and four transfers who should be of immediate help. Georgetown (15-11) is another bonafide challenger with three key starters back on the scene for the Tigers including all-district forward Al Blevins (6-5 sr.) and KIAC freshman-of-the-year Rick Elrod (6-4 so.). Campbellsville (14-16) and Pikeville (13-14) may be just short of contenders, but have the talent to play the spoiler's role in the conference and district. Campbellsville has a pair of all-KIAC cagers with James Boulware (6-5 jr.) and Roy Walker (6-0 jr.).
