

4-1-1960

Whispering Cedars, April 1, 1960

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, April 1, 1960" (1960). Cedars. 166.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/166>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

WHISPERING

CEDARS

April 1, 1960

WELCOME PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS!

As Cedarville College conducts its annual Prospective Students' Day, we of the WHISPERING CEDARS Staff wish to extend to you a hearty welcome from the entire student body. We would also like to express the hope that many of you who are visiting with us today will return as students in September.

It has become traditional for the College to interrupt its busy Spring schedule to open its doors for visits from its friends and prospective students, and this practice has made it possible for many interested persons to learn from personal observation why we at Cedarville think so highly of our school.

Guests will be conducted on campus tours, will sit in on one of our chapel services, will have the opportunity to examine projects and displays by the science department, will participate in various recreational activities, will be given free admission to a hilarious comedy by the college dramatists, and will be invited to a Special Surprise by the Junior Class. The entire schedule is "packed full" with fun and information.

The following schedule will be observed during the day's activities, according to Mr. Dale Thomson, who is in charge of the program.

(Cont. on Page 4)

* * * *

PLAY TO TOP PROGRAM

The special program for today's activities will be climaxed by the hilarious comedy, Professor, How Could You? This three-act play, directed by Mr. Dale Thomson, professor of biological sciences, is to be presented in the college gym for the entertainment of our guests--and admission is free. The play is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

A temporary stage and set have been constructed in the gym for this presentation because the high school auditorium, where the plays are usually presented, is not large enough to seat the crowd which is expected. Mr. Thomson estimates that more than 300 prospective students, as well as the student body and faculty, will attend the presentation.

The play tells the delightful

(Cont. on Page 4)

WHISPERING CEDARS STAFF

Helen Stevens Editor
Bill Evans Sports Editor
Jane Ginz
Charlotte Heikes
Betty McKeehan
Sally Roudybush
Nancy Shimits
Betty Smith
Horace Ward
Beverly Woods
Betty Smythe Typist
Mr. Bartholomew Adviser

* * * *

NOT GREEK BUT ITALIAN

In recent chapel services several announcements have been made in foreign languages by members of the Junior Class. During one of these "ordeal" a Freshman was heard to comment, "It's all Greek to me!" To inform this poor misguided one, we would like to say, "It's NOT Greek, but Italian"--the pizzas are, that is. The Juniors chose this mysterious manner to create interest in its "Pizza Panic" which will take place immediately after the play tonight. The announcements were in several languages--French, Greek, Spanish, German, and finally in English. The one word that remained the same in every language was "Pizza." (How else would you say it in Greek?)

The Juniors are offering you the chance of a lifetime-- all the pizza you can eat for 75¢. They feel that the price is so low it is almost dishonest, but come anyway. Remember, all the pizza you can eat, at the college cafeteria immediately after the play.

CHOIR PLANS TOUR

With anticipation and impatience, the choir is awaiting the arrival of next Wednesday, April 6, when they will be leaving for their tour of the eastern states. This is an annual event which this year will include visiting churches in West Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania. The choir will return to the college for classes April 19 after completing the following itinerary:

- April 6 - Charleston, W. Va.
- 7 - Becklôy, W. Va.
- 8 - Clencoenin, W. Va.
- 9 - Cresaptown, Md.
- 10 - St. Leonard, Md.
Prince Frederick, Md.
Baltimore, Maryland
- 11 - Hackensack, N. J.
- 12 - Ramsey, N. J.
- 13 - Levittown, N. J.
- 14 - unfilled so far
- 15 - Ithaca, N. Y.
- 16 - Hamburg, N. Y.
- 17 - Sinclairville, N. Y.
Buffalo, N. Y.
- 18 - Moadville, Pa.

* * * *

GAMMA CHI VISITS COLUMBUS ART GALLERY

The members of Gamma Chi (the women's literary society of Cedarville College) visited the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts in Columbus, Ohio. A guide conducted the twenty girls through the art museum. Among the Gallery's permanent possessions are the Schumacher Collection of old masters, and the Howald Collection of contemporary American and French paintings.

SENIOR SKETCHES

The short, dark-haired baritone of the Kinsmen Quartet, Jack Dowden, attended Iowa State University for two years before he came to Cedarville in the fall of 1958. A Bible major active in Alpha Chi and Choir the last two years, Jack says, "I'm thankful for Cedarville and for the privilege I've had to sit under men of God and learn more of His Word. My convictions have been strengthened and my desire to Him has been strengthened. When I entered college I know what I believed--but now I better know why I believe what I believe. Christian fellowship has also been a source of blessing and stability." His plans include marriage to Nancy Olson, a senior at Omaha Baptist Bible Institute on July 15 in Ames, Iowa; a hoped-for place of service as Youth Director for a couple years, Seminary, then eventually full-time ministry.

"Serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind . . ." is Phyllis Ernst's life verse. A small, blonde music major, Phyllis hopes to attend summer school and then teach in the fall. Having worked in Bible clubs during two years of her stay at Cedarville and presently organist at Mount Zion Baptist Church, she now states, "Working in an office just did not seem to offer any satisfaction. Many hours seemed to be wasted . . . certainly the life I had dedicated to the Lord should be used in full-time service. The Lord seems to be directing into the teaching field at present and then perhaps into Home Mission work. I thank the Lord for directing me to Cedarville College and for the opportunity I have had of sitting under professors who love and serve the living God. It has been a blessing to obtain training in a Christian atmosphere where Christ is the center of all activities. I feel that spiritually I am on firmer ground than before, and I have been led into a deeper study of God's Word."

Interested mainly in sports, Dave Dautel is a social science major with plans of teaching high school history and coaching high school basketball and baseball. During his stay at Cedarville, he has been active in the Varsity C Club, on the baseball team, and in his junior year was coach of Junior Varsity basketball and a Student Council alternate. Dave says that Cedarville College has given him valuable Christian training in secular subjects, fellowship with Christian people, and Christian participation in sports.

One of those rare members of the species who are gifted in science and math and want to teach them, John Entner plans to teach high school math after he graduates this spring and to work for his Master of Science degree in Education. He has participated in various activities in his four years at Cedarville: Student Council, basketball, tennis, yearbook, Varsity C, and served as Junior Class treasurer. Ministry at the Xenia Jail during all four years has given him valuable experience in Christian service. "Cedarville College," explains John, "has
(Cont. on Page 4)

BADMINTON TOURNAMENT UNDER WAY;
CHESS TOURNAMENT COMPLETED

A total of 55 Cedarville students, 24 girls and 31 boys, have been entered in the college intramural badminton tournament which began last week. The girls' division has already been whittled down to four semi-finalists, and the boys' field has been cut approximately in half.

The chess tournament has been concluded with shrewd John Entner declared champion. Sam Canine was runner-up.

* * * *

Manager Bucky Harris had an extremely low boiling point whenever there were any lapses by his outfielders. But one time when Roy Johnson approached the bench in fear and trembling after dropping a simple fly ball, Bucky did not flare into the expected towering rage.

"Forget it," said the smoldering Harris. "It hit you in a bad spot--right in the middle of your glove."

* * * *

PLAY TOPS PROGRAM (Cont.)

story of a professor who hates modern women since they fall so far short of the perfection of ladies in literature, Cleopatra, for example. His problem begins when he is appointed as dean of his institution but must be married in order to remain in the position. The only prospects are modern ones who fall so far short of his "ideal." In considering his efforts to keep his job, you too will say, "Professor, how could you!"

The leading roles will be played by Marvin McCaslin, Norman Getty, Keith Webster, Pat Petry, and Jeannie Lockerbie (playing "Grandma" again.) Jim Entner is in charge of the group which built the set for the play, and Mr. Thomson is being assisted by Mr. Ray Bartholomew, professor of English and Literature.

* * * *

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS DAY PROGRAM

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 8:00-9:30 | Registration (Meet Your Buddy) |
| 9:30-10:30 | Campus Tour, Meeting with Faculty Members in Major Interest Area |
| 10:40-11:30 | Chapel (in Gym) |
| 11:30-1:00 | Lunch |
| 1:30-4:30 | Recreation |
| 5:00-6:30 | Dinner |
| 7:30 | Play (in Gym) |
| Then: | Pizza Panic (Dining Hall) |

* * * *

SENIOR SKETCHES (Cont.)

given me a very strong Christian foundation, many good Christian friends, good Christian fun, and many valuable lessons from experiences, a burden on souls and for a better prayer list