

10-18-1960

Whispering Cedars, October 18, 1960

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, October 18, 1960" (1960). Cedars. 165.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/165>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

A Student Publication of Cedarville College

WHISPERING CEDARS

October 18, 1960

FORWARD

October 8, 1960, will be a day long remembered by many people. This day was set aside as Open House for the college and Dedication Day for the new girls' dormitory.

Throughout the day students acted as guides in the various education buildings and residence halls. Guests were given tours of the Administration and Science buildings, Library, and the dormitories. Films were shown in the library and displays were seen in the other buildings.

The service that afternoon was opened with the hymn, "Great is Thy Faithfulness." The Invocation was offered by Dr. C. R. Maddox, Dean of the College. Mr. George S. Milner, Chairman of Board of Trustees, extended a welcome to everyone. Next, many of our distinguished guests were recognized. The College Choir made its first appearance, presenting the song, "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me."

Dr. Charles Wesley, President of Central State College, brought greet-

(Continued on page 2)

"THIS IS YOUR LIFE"

In appreciation of his loyalty to the cause of Christ and Christian Education, our President, James Jeremiah, was honored at a reception held October 7th. He has served Cedarville College faithfully for seven years.

The story of his life was given in detail; pictures of his youth and various events in his life were shown. Many friends and loved ones were introduced during the program—one being a Sunday School teacher instrumental in leading Mr. Jeremiah to Christ. He was flown from Johnson City, New York, to be here for the program.

A token gift was presented to Mrs. Jeremiah, and a check was given to the President. Money for these gifts was collected from the trustees, faculty and staff members. When asked for his reaction to the occasion, President Jeremiah replied, "It was a wonderful thing for them to do, but I really didn't deserve it."

* * *

"Christ does not want us perfect, only pliable."

HI!

I am the new dormitory. Although I'm the latest arrival among the buildings here on Cedarville campus, I've already outgrown my older sister, Faith.

A crew of hard-working men, led by "Pop" Marshall, put in many long hours to complete me and I feel that I am really needed and appreciated. The girls (nearly one hundred of them) who have moved into my rooms, seem very well pleased with their new home.

One thing the girls really like about me is my convenient location. The rooms on the north side provide a good cheering section for the football teams, while the girls on the south side get the full effects of the melodious (?) attempts made in the practice rooms.

No sooner had the girls moved in than they began to decorate me. Somehow the study tables didn't look complete without pictures of certain gentlemen, such as that of John Bigelow in Room 24. Next they proceeded to ornament my walls and doors with everything imaginable. Not only do they place throw rugs on my beautiful tile floor, but Mary Ann Clausen and Dolly Jesse insisted on covering me completely with a carpet! And as if that weren't enough, the girls made me into a zoo by bringing in a menagerie of bears, skunks, dogs, lambs and a real, live, black-and-white kitten.

I feel quite flattered each Monday evening at 10:15 when Mrs. Underwood and all my girls center their attention on me. They talk over rules, dorm duties, and—— Oh, that reminds me, you should see all my girls work, especially when they are asked to perform the same dorm duty a second time.

Interesting activities occur within my walls, such as "coffin-making" by Margaret Stowell and Pat Micka. Hardly an evening passes without a popcorn party and, of course, a gab session to accompany it. I don't intentionally eavesdrop, but I can't help hearing "Oh, isn't he sharp!" "Guess who asked me for a date?" "Oh, you girls should see my fellow at home!" "He beats all of these." "Say girls, have you studied for the botany test for tomorrow?" Needless to say, the last remark put a damper on that party.

I am glad to say that my girls are here for a purpose. They have come to Cedarville in obedience to the Lord's call and they love and honor Jesus Christ in their daily lives. Because of this, I am thankful to be their new dorm.

* * *

FORWARD (cont'd)

ings from his school.

Our main speaker was Dr. Joseph Stowell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Hackensack, New Jersey.

The service closed with the singing of "To God Be the Glory." Rev. William Brock, Vice chairman of the Board of Trustees, offered the dedication prayer.

Refreshments served in the Lounge climaxed the day.

"WOMEN FOR CHRIST"

The program of Gamma Chi is to promote an interest along literary, musical, artistic, and humorous lines with the primary purpose of cultivation of Christian personality and leadership.

This, then, was the purpose presented at the introductory meeting of the society September 26th. The constitution was read and discussed and a varied program was given. Camilla Shambaugh played Grieg's Piano Concerto; there was a humorous skit by Bill Jennings, a dramatic monologue by Dee Osborn, and a display of artistic talent by Mrs. George Zinn.

Initiation of new members takes place on October 17th. Future plans for the organization include a swimming party and visits to places of interest.

The words, "Gamma Chi," stand for "Women for Christ." It is the purpose of each member to fulfill the obligation to not only polish the character and personality and to learn the social graces, but to cause the soul to shine for Christ.

"If you are too busy to pray, you are too busy."

* * *

"Spirituality is one thing that can't be preserved in alcohol."

* * *

"You can't purify the water by painting the pump."

* * *

"We are never so high as when we are on our knees!"

Co-editors:

Jane Ginz
Nancy Shimits

Reporters:

Margaret Stowell
Doug Smith
Hazel Brovont
Juanita Alford
Rosa Lee Albrecht
Donna Everett
Hope Marie Willie
Bev Woods
Betty McKeenan

Typists:

Donna Everett
Rosa Lee Albrecht

Advisor:

Ray Bartholomew

WHAT DO YOU THINK...

of the restriction prohibiting freshman driving?

Ron Mooney, Freshman — It ought to be lifted for weekends after nine weeks.

Bud Connell, Freshman — Just because other schools have it, do we have to have it?

Bob Kidd, Senior — I think it is very good.

Harry Hartzel, Freshman — I think it is unreasonable.

Rich Davidson, Sophomore — I think it should be lifted when the collective behavior of the Freshman Class warrants it.

June Golden, Sophomore — Other colleges have it.

Dave Jeremiah, Sophomore — It keeps freshmen from wasting time.

Nancy Shimits, Freshman — The

(Continued on page 4)

Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders were chosen October 6th. Sixteen girls and one boy participated. From this group five Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen: Edward Villalba, Pat Petry, Ester Weiss, Judy Lachman, and Donna Thompson. The Junior Varsity team boasts: Hazel Brovont, Betty Adamson, Flo Cannon, and Rita Millikin.

(Cont'd)

first twelve weeks or the first semester would be sufficient . . . for those who have proven themselves.

Jack Moffatt, Sophomore — It is good for the first semester but should be lifted by the second semester.

Jim Entner, Senior — I think it is a fine thing.

Pat Micka, Freshman — It makes me glad that I don't have a car!

John Bigelow, Sophomore — It is better for the freshmen until they get into the swing of college life; I do think they should be allowed to drive on dates.

Jerry Peifer, Junior — Driving should be allowed occasionally for special events such as school banquets.

John Lanclor, Sophomore — The bigger the school grows, the more you have to clamp down on the students. This rule will help the freshmen until they settle down.

John Moody, Freshman — I think the school ought to be more liberal on weekends and for church attendance.

Norris Smith, Sophomore — Driving for social occasions should be permitted.

Bogle Standifer, Junior — Freshmen with a 2.0 or above average should be allowed to drive during the second semester.

Dorothy Rockenstein, Freshman — It should be lifted on weekends.

Sam Canine, Sophomore — I don't know anything about it.

'WEIGHT LIFTERS' OPEN SEASON

There seems to be a new approach to basketball practice these days. The boys are lifting weights! It appears that weight lifting improves arm and leg muscles.

This year Cedarville College is looking forward to a good season. There are about thirty fellows out for basketball, five of which are varsity lettermen.

“There is one thing certain about the speed of light. It gets here much too early in the morning.”

* * *

“Pessimist — one who expects on a golden platter only tarnish.”

* * *

“Time goes, you say? Oh no! Alas, Time stays, we go.”