On last week's episode of Cedarville softball...

McKenna Smith

The weather was not on our side.

We were originally supposed to play Ashland, Findlay, and Lake Erie, but Ashland was canceled due to rain, and Lake Erie to snow.

So, we played Findlay...and we lost, which was unfortunate to say the least.

On the bright side, the Findlay players were very sweet and complimented our field. They thought it was one of the most beautiful in the G-MAC, so a shout out to our grounds crew.

Our games against Ashland and Lake Erie have been rescheduled for next Monday and Tuesday (4/18 & 4/19). Up next we have ODU, which is always a fun time.

Inside Scoop:

To be honest, not much happened last week. I mean, we did find out that Addie keeps a pool noodle in the locker room. She got very upset with us for throwing it out into the main locker room when we didn't know it was hers.

We also found out that Emma carries a bag of chalk around with her wherever she goes. I think it must be some track thing.

Sami had a dream about sharks which rivaled my killer whale dream. In her dream Kaley was a savage fisherman and chopped the head off of an attacking shark. We love to see it.

Mmmm, we also, as a team, discussed the idea of hairless cats. How does one feel about hairless cats? The majority of our team was not for them, and after some thought I feel the rest of us may switch to that side as well. Nothing against God's creation, hairless cats are wonderful, but imagine waking up at 2 a.m. to go get some water, you walk into the kitchen and find a hairless cat waiting there. I don't know about you, but that would certainly creep me out.

Devotional:

Two things; I Corinthians 9:24-25 & Galatians 6:4.

Our team has hit a slight rough patch. It's mostly frustration, which is understandable considering we have such a long season. Every team hits a little bump in the road and we seem to be at ours. I mentioned this a few weeks ago, but I Corinthians 9:24-25 speaks about running the race to win it. Competing to win. While this can be applied to athletics, the bigger picture is running the race for the eternal prize. Sometimes it's easy to forget that we play this sport for Christ. Sometimes we step on the field trying to win the games for ourselves, or trying to be the best we can to impress others. The reality is that the only person we should be trying to impress is Christ. We step on the field and we need to give our best. Sometimes our best still fails, but we have to get back up and try again because we play for Him.

Secondly, Galatians 6:4 speaks about being content with our own performance and not comparing ourselves to others. This was our team verse last year, and it's making a comeback this time around. This late into the season, and when frustrations begin to rise, it can be hard to not compare each other. However, there truly is no comparison between our teammates. Each person on our team brings something different to the table. It's what makes us who we are, and we cannot waste time comparing ourselves to each other when there is no comparison.

All that to say, this is what our team talked about this week. After Findlay last week we recognized a problem and we are determined to fix it. So, these two scriptures have been our focus.

XOXO
