

11-15-1960

Whispering Cedars, November 15, 1960

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Organizational Communication Commons

DigitalCommons@Cedarville provides a platform for archiving the scholarly, creative, and historical record of Cedarville University. The views, opinions, and sentiments expressed in the articles published in the university's student newspaper, Cedars (formerly Whispering Cedars), do not necessarily indicate the endorsement or reflect the views of DigitalCommons@Cedarville, the Centennial Library, or Cedarville University and its employees. The authors of, and those interviewed for, the articles in this paper are solely responsible for the content of those articles. Please address questions to dc@cedarville.edu.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, November 15, 1960" (1960). Cedars. 163.
<https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedars/163>

This Issue is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

Footer Logo

A Student Publication of Cedarville College

WHISPERING CEDARS

November 15, 1960

"WE HAVE THE PEP!"

On November 3 the initial step in the formation of a campus pep club was taken. This club will be sponsored and recognized by the college.

Following the entertaining skit given in chapel, there was an immediate response in that 104 students signed up to join the organization.

Cedarville College is noted for its enthusiasm and some of the students reasoned that our enthusiasm would be even more effective if channeled through an organized cheering section.

As in any club, there will be obligations that must be met. First, those joining the club must be loyal to it and attend regularly. Legitimate absences will be excused.

Second, those who join must maintain a Christian attitude at all times, although this should not have to be stressed.

When organized, there will be a legislative group and, if possible, transportation to the games will be provided at a minimum cost.

ENROLLMENT REACHES NEW HIGH

Total enrollment of Cedarville this year has reached the high of 350. Over one-third of this year's students come from Ohio, but in recent years the proportion of students from Michigan has been increasing. The total number of students from each state this year follows:

Ohio	116
Michigan	76
Indiana	29
Pennsylvania	29
Illinois	24
Iowa	19
New York	12
Idaho	6
Minnesota	6
New Jersey	6
Maryland	5
West Virginia	5
Wisconsin	3
Kentucky	2
Arizona	1
Arkansas	1
California	1
Colorado	1
Delaware	1
Maine	1
Missouri	1
Montana	1
North Dakota	1
Virginia	1
Washington	1
Washington, D. C.	1

INTERVIEW: Dean McIntosh

Richard McIntosh was born in Norwalk, Ohio, on April 22, 1930. He was raised there and was graduated from Norwalk High School in 1948. He majored in English, science, and math. He was a member of the National Honor Society. For four years he played in the band and orchestra. He played the trumpet, baritone, and bass.

Mr. McIntosh attended Bryan College in Tennessee where he majored in English. He was the class president during his sophomore year, president of the Christian Service Program during junior and senior years, president of Student Pastors' Fellowship during senior year, president of the debate club one year, the assistant editor on the school yearbook, and editor of the college paper. He was also a member of the "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," which is a directory composed only of outstanding students who have contributed to their schools through leadership and scholarship. While at Bryan he was area reporter for the Chattanooga Times.

In 1949, while working as a college dishwasher, Mr. McIntosh met the girl who is now his wife. Her name is Barbara. They were married on September 15, 1951, just after Mr. McIntosh's junior year.

Mr. McIntosh graduated from Bryan in 1952, and from 1952-54 he served at his wife's church, the Grace Brethren Church in Troy, Ohio. In 1954 he entered Grace Theological Seminary at Winona Lake, Indiana. While taking his four years of graduate work there, he served as pastor of the Tippecanoe Congregational Christian Church. Besides being a husband and a full-time student, he worked 35 hours a week at an aluminum foundry. Yet he graduated in his class with a B.D., Summa Cum Laude.

From May of 1958 to September of 1960 he pastored at the Northside Baptist Church in Lima, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh now have four children: Ricky, 8; Kathy, 6; Michael Thomas, 2½; and John Mark, 1. His wife serves part-time as his secretary.

Mr. McIntosh presently is working on a thesis on the book of Malachi to complete requirements for a Th.M. degree from Grace Seminary. He intends to do graduate work in the field of counseling and guidance.

"It is easy to be brave from a safe distance."

* * *

"Life is my college — May I graduate well, and earn some honors!"

—Louisa May Alcott

* * *

"Those who dwell upon ivory towers have heads of the same materials."

—Leonard Bacon

* * *

An epistle is the wife of an apostle.

REVIVAL? IT'S UP TO YOU!

Among some students, talk of revival has been heard. This is good — a strong desire, especially on the part of many, will usually bring results. Remembering last year's Missionary Conference—Revival, we can only pray that our experience this year will be as good or even better!

Is modernism present here? "No!" you say, but wait—don't we tend toward the modernistic lukewarmness which takes seriously nothing that deals with the firm, yet miraculous truths of the Bible and treats nebulously the wonders and joys of the Christian life, when in our own lives we disregard the depth or height to which we may attain in our fellowship with Christ. We think of Modernism as a thing apart, as a movement fostered by certain churches, but it is characterized by the lethargy and coldness to which we are often—too often—subject.

Why do we so often assume that the spirituality of others is enough to carry us through? How do we know that others are spiritual? We do not know! Perhaps, in riveting our attention upon earthly examples, we will find that some of those models are merely skilled actors, deceiving even themselves.

Each man is primarily responsible for his own soul and conduct, not that of others, and we should live accordingly—but how often we forget!

We need revival here, yes—in our hearts, and constantly—revival from the stifling presence of personal sin, to the atmosphere of our Lord.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS

Tuesday, November 15 — Wilbur Eifert.

Wednesday, November 16 — Rev. William Brock.

Friday, November 18 — Rev. Courless.

Tuesday, November 22 — Morris Shirk, Missionary.

COMING EVENTS

November 18 - 20 — Homecoming Weekend.

November 22 — Thanksgiving Banquet.

November 23 - 28 — Thanksgiving Vacation.

WHAT DO YOU THINK...

of college life? (Cont'd.)

Hank Cook, Freshman — I don't let my education interfere with my studies.

Charlie Fry, Junior — I wish we had some around here.

Dave Cline, Freshman — Studying is a new experience.

Lyle Rose, Freshman — It's a lot of fun.

Pat Terry, Freshman — I enjoy the freedom. It is so different from high school.

Jeannie DuPre, Sophomore — I like the dorm life. It helps people learn to get along with each other.

Dave Mills, Freshman — The faculty is great.

Sandy Whitaker, Freshman — I think the Christian fellowship is wonderful.

Virginia Lowe, Sophomore — Cedarville college life is like a glorified high school.

Brian Hall, Sophomore — No comment.

ANNE FRANK

The Homecoming Play, The Diary of Anne Frank, will be presented by the Sock 'n' Buskin Dramatics Club of Cedarville College. This year the play will be presented at Galloway Hall of Central State College. Curtain time will be 8:00 on the evening of November 19, 1960.

The admission cost will be: adults $1.00, children 75c.

GAMMA CHI GOES TO THE COUNTRY

A dark, "spooky" barn a few miles from Cedarville provided the setting for the Gamma Chi social on Monday evening, November 7. Settled in the piles of hay, the girls enjoyed the evening's well-planned program.

Carole Lanius, Jean Lockerbie, and Carol Zoellner rendered a "haunting" trio number, followed by Nancy Shimits' reading of "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin and the Fodder's in the Shock," a poem by James Whitcomb Riley. Peg Getty then contributed her part to the atmosphere by giving an interpretation of "The Yellow Wallpaper." Following this, ghost stories were related by several girls, climaxed by Edgar Allen Poe's "The Pit and the Pendulum," read by Norm Getty.

The group then returned to the school's dining hall, where they "thawed out" and enjoyed refreshments, after being led in prayer by Mrs. Mof-fat, sponsor of Gamma Chi.

(After exams): "Now I am beginning to live a little, and feel less like a sick oyster at low tide!"

* * *

HIGH SCHOOL STUFF! ?

Is the atmosphere here collegiate enough for you? Some would say "yes"—some, "No." Your answer would depend on your definition of the word "collegiate." To me, it involves more than a class-study-grade proposition, because the courses here are on a par with those in other colleges. A sense of maturity and responsibility are bound up in the term and my first impression of Cedarville as defined by the term "collegiate" was much different from what I had expected.

Perhaps I was influenced by the childish behavior of some—behavior not worthy of "young adults," which are, after all, what we aspire to be. To cite an example: many of the conversations carried on by students daily seem to be at the level of permanent kindergarten recess.

But I have since come to another conclusion: college life is very largely what we make it, and each individual is going to have to be more mature himself in order to see adult relationships, thoughts, and actions on this campus.

—Nancy Shimits

STAFF

Co-editors:

Jane Ginz
Nancy Shimits

Reporters:

Rosa Lee Albrecht
Juanita Allford
Hazel Brovont
Donna Everett
Betty McKeehan
Doug Smith
Margaret Stowell
Hope Marie Willie
Bev Woods

Typist:

Rosa Lee Albrecht

Advisor:

Ray Bartholomew