STRUBE TO SPEAK FOR FREEDOM SEMINAR, MARCH 9 SPONSORED BY ANTI-COMMUNIST CLUB AND STUDENT COUNCIL

A war is being waged on Cedarville College campus today—a war against Communism! It is being waged by the Anti-Communist Club, known as "Christ Against Communism," which meets every other Monday night in the library to study and discuss Communism.

This club is sponsoring an Anti-

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE APPLIES FOR MEMBERSHIP IN OHIO COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

Application has been made by Cedarville College to the Ohio College Association for membership in this association. As the name implies, this is merely an association similar to our own GARBC and in order to be recognized by it and become a member, certain requirements must be met.

Dr. Clifford Johnson has prepared statistics and other information that were needed for the application to the association. If the information contained in the application appears satisfactory to the executive committee of OCA, an inspection committee will visit the campus early in March. If they are favorably impressed by what they find, it is conceivable that Cedarville College could be a member of the OCA by April 1.

Communism Seminar on Saturday, March 9. It will be an all-day affair, starting at 9 a. m., and will include a number of different lectures, tape recordings, and films. The evening session will be a required lecture.

The speaker of the day will be Mr. W. P. Strube, Jr., president of Mid American Life Insurance Company and vice-president of Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. Mr. Strube devotes much of his time to campaigns against this "political disease," such as the one we are to have here.

The officers of this recently organized study group are Jim Sprague, president; Ellis Howard, vice-president; Carol Gorthey, secretary; and Bonnie Nash, treasurer. Mr. Gale serves as the club adviser.

The club uses literature prepared by Dr. Fred Schwarz, president of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, which presents the Christian approach to the fight against Communism. It also uses tapes recorded by various other authorities on Communism.

This seminar is a worthwhile undertaking, and we will do well, both as United States citizens and Christians, to attend all the meetings of this endeavor that we possibly can.

EDITORIAL
EVALUATIONS

Don't look now, but--Big Brother is watching you. Not only is Big Brother watching, but he's also doing some evaluating and recording on the side.

Big Brother may take the form of a teacher or dorm counselor. Both are requested to hand in evaluations on students before the end of the academic year. Through these "judgment sheets," college administrators are in a better position to advise other institutions as to the character and personality of an individual.

Many students fail to realize that they are being watched. Overcutting, missing assignments, failure to respect one's roommate or neighbor in the dorm situation--all count when evaluation time is at hand. Conversely, good study habits, attentiveness in the classroom, initiative in activities and studies are also noted by the teacher or counselor.

But the evaluation sheets by their very nature are subjective, and, therefore, somewhat inconclusive as to a person's character and personality, though seldom if ever very far from wrong. Thus, a third, more concrete evaluation is kept and is "written" by the student himself. This is in the form of the permanent record kept in the Dean of Students' office. Records of church and chapel attendance, fines, disciplinary action--even late permissions are kept on a single page for each student.

The sum total of these records and evaluations make up a "permanent record" kept on any individual who is a student at Cedarville College. Often a student will commit an act, take his punishment, and consider it over with. But records have a way of popping up when a former student or graduate desires to transfer to another school, go to graduate school, secure a job, etc.

The moral to the story is: What you do, how you act, and what you say is being recorded either for or against you during your college career. Don't make the mistake of having a poor collegiate record spoil your future plans and hopes.

After all, we do want Big Brother to smile when he sees us, don't we?

PERHAPS YOU DO?

If you only knew, the taste of sorrow,
The shattered hope, the empty tomorrow.
If you only knew, how heavy the load;
How crooked and steep is the wayward road.

If you only knew, how troubled the way
That heckles and torments, from day to day.

If you only knew, you could be saved
By Jesus Christ, whose road is paved.
If you only knew, if you only knew -
But maybe - by chance - perhaps you do?

STUDENT OPINION POLL

"What is your opinion of WCDR-FM?"

Mary Ellen Floyd: "I enjoy most the Brower-Fidler report, and think Phil does an excellent job of ad-libbing."

Becky O'Keefe: "The program arrangement is excellent, especially having soothing music during study hours, and Mr. Reed's program just before retiring for the night."

Phil Brower: "There are too many 15-minute 'preaching' programs; more music would definitely help."

Joanne Hamilton: "I think they have a very well-rounded program, and I enjoy very much listening to some of the M. C. 's."

Jan VanWyke: "I listen quite a bit and particularly like the music played in the evening."

WHICH WILL COME FIRST? ACCREDITATION OR CERTIFICATION?

Are you mixed up on the difference between accreditation and certification?
Discussions on such topics have been overheard in our noble halls.

According to reliable information:

1. The most important recognition Cedarville College needs at the moment is approval by the State Board of Education. Such approval makes it possible for us to offer teacher training. We do not need to be accredited to get state board approval.
2. Next, we ought to be recognized by our sister Ohio colleges. We have made application and will know soon whether they will ask us to join the Ohio College Association.
3. Accreditation by the North Central Association involves an exhaustive self-study of the College, its program, faculty, and students. This will take time.

Recognition by secular organizations need not compromise our position as a Christian college.

Elayne Korlewitz: "I think that WCDR is a great asset to our college, and I find it very worthwhile to listen to."

Dave Fisher: "I think the announcing is good, but the programming needs
some work."

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS INVITED TO VISIT CAMPUS, CLASSES ON MARCH 15

High school graduates and those who are juniors and seniors have been invited to visit Cedarville College for a Prospective Students Day on March 15.

They will be guests of the College for class sessions, chapel service, and the noon and evening meals. Student Council representatives will act as guides for campus tours. The members of the admissions committee will meet with the prospective students to outline admissions standards and procedures. Faculty members will also be available for conferences with visitors who are interested in a particular area of study.

An evening program under the direction of the College music department will conclude the day's activities with a presentation of a variety of musical numbers by vocal and instrumental groups.

Students are encouraged to invite friends or relatives who might be prospective students to visit the campus at this time. Reservations should be given to administrative officials by March 8.

This is an annual affair sponsored by the American Marketing Association, but this is the first year that Cedarville students have been in attendance. Mr. Wyse says that he plans to make this an annual trip for Cedarville students interested in placement in some of the country's larger companies.

A SPRING DAY

It's a glorious day as the dawn breaks through.
You realize today nothing can go wrong with you.
You yawn and stretch in an awkward way.
It's that certain feeling, like a lazy spring day.
You spring out of bed, and get dressed very quick;
Your body, like a clock, has that precision tick.
You gobble down a breakfast, and then you're off
To a day so challenging, fleeting, and soft.
At the end of the day, you roll into the house;
This morning you felt like a man, now you feel like a mouse.
You're tired and helpless as you hit the hay,
But realize now that this was just another day.

YELLOW JACKETS DEFEAT RIO GRANDE, LOSE TO MOL FOES
BLUFFTON, WILMINGTON, OUT-SCORED BY CENTRAL STATE

CEDARVILLE 91, BLUFFTON 96

The Yellow Jackets, minus the services of Gary Walthall and Dozier Carter, tied Bluffton in regulation time with a dramatic rally, only to lose to the Beavers 96-91 in the overtime period on Feb. 9.

Gary Walthall, plagued by a sprained left ankle, had to leave the game late in the first half when he sprained the right one coming down with a rebound. Carter fouled out in the second half, leaving Cedarville with no big man for rebounds. However, the Jacket bench came through in fine style. With only 9 seconds remaining, Rod Lane hit two free throws to cut a four-point Bluffton margin to 85-83. A last-second shot by Bud Davis sent the game into the extra five minutes.

Norris Smith led Cedarville scoring with 21. Jerry Burry and Lynn Martin proved too much for the Yellow Jackets as they hit for 34 and 27 respectively.

CEDARVILLE 52, WILMINGTON 60

Cedarville dropped its fifth straight game, and its fifth of the Mid-Ohio League, when it was defeated by Wilmington for the second time this season 60-52 on Feb. 12.

The first half, which featured sloppy ball-handling and numerous missed shots by both teams, saw them deadlocked 24-24 at the midway buzzer. The

CEDARVILLE 91, RIO GRANDE 70

Cedarville broke its five-game losing streak Feb. 16 by handing a loss to Rio Grande for the second time this season 91-70.

Gary Walthall, back after a layoff due to a badly injured ankle, roared into action with 27 points as the Jackets put on one of their better scoring shows of the season. Cedarville put the game on ice early, jumping off to early leads of 14-2 and 20-5. The Jackets enjoyed their best halftime lead of the season, moving out in front 45-25 at the intermission.

Walthall was backed up by the usual balanced scoring attack of the Jackets. Dave Jeremiah hit for 19, Sam Canine for 13, and Norris Smith, who failed to score in the first half, canned 12 for the evening. Don Marks hit for 18 for the Redmen.

Quakers, in quest of the MOL crown, pulled slowly away in the second half to a ten-point advantage, and staved off the Jackets until the final gun.

Roger Reveal was the big man for Wilmington with 21 markers. The Yellow Jackets, usually displaying a balanced attack, had only one man in double figures, Dave Jeremiah, with 23. Rex Taylor, among the league leaders in scoring, was held to only 8 points, thanks to a fine defensive effort by Norris Smith.

CEDARVILLE 65, CENTRAL STATE 77

The Yellow Jackets dropped their ninth game of the season Feb. 19, losing to Greene County rival Central State 77-65.

Cedarville jumped off to an early lead, ahead 25-14 at one stage in the first half. However, the Marauders, behind 6'8" Ken Wilburn, narrowed the margin to 43-42 at halftime. The Jackets played on even terms for the first part of the second half but fell under a heavy scoring barrage by Ted Day and Jerry Cummings in the latter stages of the game.

All five Cedarville starters scored in double figures. Norris Smith and Dave Jeremiah hit for 17 each, Gary Walthall canned 11, and Dozier Carter and Sam Canine chipped in with 10 apiece. Wilburn led all scoring with 22 big markers.

JACKETTES 57, ANTIOCH 14

The Cedarville Jackettes romped over Antioch 57-14 for their second win of the season on Feb. 16. Maryalyce Jeremiah took scoring honors with 22, and Pat Kaster followed closely with 19.

The Antioch girls couldn't seem to get the ball to their end of the floor, and they were on the short end of a 19-1 score at the end of the first quarter. Their poor ball handling and fouling was the story of the game, while for Cedarville, it was practically an effortless win.

JACKETTES 44, BLUFFTON 12

Bette Adamson and Maryalyce Jeremiah, each outscoring the entire opposing team, led the Cedarville Jackettes to a 44-12 win over Bluffton in their first game of the basketball season on Feb. 9.

Bette, scoring 20 points, and Maryalyce 16, were supported by timely assists from Pat Kaster and effective guarding by Polly Leunk, Martha Short, and Sue Johns.

The Bluffton girls had trouble working the ball in, so they resorted to long shots which proved to be inaccurate. Connie Patterson was high scorer for Bluffton with four points.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Bethel leads the second round of the men's intramural basketball program with a 3-0 record. Second round scores and standings:

Bethel	60	Cedar	45
Rife	44	Ambassador	38
Bethel	72	Ambassador	47
Patterson	52	Cedar	32
Ambassador	39	Patterson	35
Bethel	64	Rife	31

ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

February's Athlete of the Month is Norris Smith, 5'11" jump-shot specialist on the Cedarville basketball team.

The shifty senior guard, who hails from Kirkersville, Ohio, averaged 13.5 points per game in the first 19 games of the current campaign. The best free-throw shooter on the team, "Smitty" hit 44 of 60 for a .734 average from the line in those 19 games.

Basketball is not Norris' only athletic claim to fame here at Cedarville, however. He has earned three letters in baseball, being elected Most Valuable Player in his freshman and junior years. He was the winning pitcher in all five Cedarville victories last season.

A physical education major, Norris

JACKETTES 34, TAYLOR 49

The Taylor Trojanes with their fast breaks and close defense brought the Cedarville Jackettes down to defeat, 49-34 at Taylor University on Feb. 19.

The Trojanes, going into the game with a 4-4 record, were playing their last game of the season. They got off to a fast start in the scoring column, and led 10-2 at the end of the first quarter.

The Jackettes looked as if they might pull the game out of the fire as they held Taylor to three points in the second quarter, but the hustling Trojanes' fast breaks were too much for the Cedarville guards in the second half.

The Taylor girls were deadly at the foul line where they hit 14 out of 21 tries. Close defense on Taylor's part caused their being charged with 22 personal fouls, but it also resulted in several charging fouls being called against Cedarville.

Sharon Howard of the Trojanes took scoring honors with 17 points. Pat Kaster scored 15 for Cedarville, and Maryalce Jeremiah and Bette Adamson followed with 10 and 8 respectively.

plans to go to graduate school, possibly at Eastern Michigan University. Near future plans include marriage to Miss Judy Lachman on June 8.

Congratulations to this month's Athlete of the Month, Mr. Jump-shot, Norris Smith!
