FOUNDATION

This lectureship program has been graciously funded by the Thomas F. Staley Foundation of Delray Beach, Florida. This private, non-profit organization seeks to support men and women who truly believe, cordially love, and actively propagate the Gospel of Jesus Christ in its historical and scriptural fullness. It desires to enrich the quality of Christian service and to sharpen the effectiveness of Christian witness, especially at the college level.

Cedarville College publicly thanks the Thomas F. Staley Foundation for making this annual lectureship program possible.

LECTURER

Born of Jewish parents in Los Angeles, Dr. Goldberg acknowledged Jesus as his Messiah and Savior in 1948.

He presently serves as a professor of Jewish and Modern Israel studies at the Moody Bible Institute. Before he joined the Moody faculty in 1965, he pastored churches in Chicago, Cedar Rapids, and Chattanooga. He also taught at the Tennessee Temple Schools.

He has earned degrees from the University of Southern California (B.E.), Roosevelt University (M.A.), Northern Baptist Seminary (B.D. and Th.M.), and Grace Theological Seminary (Th.D.). In 1977, he was chosen to receive the Faculty Citation Award by the Moody Alumni Association.

He has written two books: Our Jewish Friends (Moody, 1977) and Commentary on Leviticus (Zondervan, 1980). He has been a contributor to the Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia, Old Testament Theological Word Studies, Tyndale Family Bible Encyclopedia, and the Bible Almanac. Several of his articles have appeared in the Moody Monthly, Christianity Today, and various quarterlies.
