SOCCKERMEN GAIN EXPERIENCE

Cedarville College suffered only its third losing soccer season in 15 years and the first one since 1970 as they went 4-10 on the season. Led by three Tom's, senior Tom Benefiel with 12 goals and 7 assists; Tom Cook, another senior with 8 goals and 3 assists and sophomore Tom Aitken, 5 goals and 3 assists. The Jackets fell only 4 short of last seasons goal production of 39, booting in 35 goals. It was on defense where lack of depth and experience manifested itself the most. In contrast to 1976 (15 goals allowed) and 1975 (19 goals allowed) the inexperienced squad gave up 39 goals. This made the difference in close games as short lapses led to opponents goals and lack of follow through made for missed scoring opportunities. But the future is bright with many underclassmen gaining valuable experience in individual skills and as a team playing together.
