1989 TOURNAMENT RECAP

33rd ANNUAL NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT May 26-June 2, 1989 Lewis Clark State College, Lewiston, Idaho

First baseman Rob Castaneda drove in four runs with a pair of two-run singles to lead Lewis Clark State College of Lewiston, Idaho, to a 5-2 victory over the College of St. Francis, Joliet, Illinois, in the championship game of the 10-team NAIA World Series. The win gave the Warriors their third consecutive national title and fifth in six years. LCSC finished the 1989 tournament unbeaten in six games. The Warriors won their final nine games of the season to finish with a final record of 41-24. St. Francis completed its season at 53-21. Pitcher Darrell Wagner went the distance for the Warriors, earning his second victory of the tournament. Ironically, he was not one of the three pitchers named to the all-tournament team, despite having struck out 25 batters in 16 1/3 World Series innings. LCSC catcher John NesSmith, who had one hit in the title game, was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. He batted .500 in the series (9 for 18), with two homers and eight RBI. Warrior shortstop Reggie Brown won the Golden Glove award, and LCSC centerfielder Greg Vaughns won the Charles Berry Hustle Award. It was the eighth year in a row that that award had gone to a Lewis Clark State player.
