THE LIBRARY

When we purchased this college, many books needed either classification or reclassification. At the beginning of this school year, about 5,000 books needed classification or reclassification and author, title and subject cards made. This is near completion.

This month, Mr. Wyland, the college librarian, said that he and his student assistants, Alberta Graham, Ruth Smelser, Helen Stevens, and Kathy Stowers are almost ready to begin cataloging all the library cards. This task will be shortened by increased help.

Mr. Wyland has suggested that, in using the library students should (1) look in both the college and Greene County card catalogs; (2) look under the classification numbers, such as; 200's for Bible, 780's for music, or more specifically, 245 for hymnology; and (3) ask the librarian to help locate the book or the books desired.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

It is the desire of the faculty and student body of Cedarville College to acquaint outsiders with the what and why of our college. With this purpose in mind, Cedarville College is recording a tape filled exclusively with Cedarville talent. This tape is to be available for young people's groups throughout the country--especially those groups which are a part of the G. A. R. B. Fellowship.

The tape opens and closes with the Cedarville Chapel Choir singing the school song. Along with another anthem by the choir the tape features special music by both vocal trios and the brass trio. As Roy Shelman narrates throughout the presentation he binds the musical numbers in with testimonies from two of the students. President Jeremiah ends the tape with a challenging message.

We pray that the tape may be used for the Lord.

EDITORIAL

In recent days numerous civic groups have considered the problem of juvenile literature. The language, pictures, and plots in "comic-books" have been judged to be morally degrading. The evident concern for this problem is justifiable and also profitable. These groups have decided to control by legislation the quality of available literature. However, the method of correcting the situation is delusive. Their actions remind me of a physician treating a patient with drugs for pain while never searching for the source of the pain.

People choose their reading material by the desires of their nature. If, then, someone reads filthy literature, it is because he has a filthy nature. Therefore, if these groups would desire to arrive at the root of the problem, they must see that mankind has a fallen, sinful nature, thirsting after evil.

The true corrective action is the preaching of the Gospel of grace by which men can partake of Divine Nature which will thirst after righteousness.

FANS AT WORK

As we go to games and sporting events, what kind of impression do we leave to those about us?

It is evident that some people don't hesitate to boo at referees, to heckle players on opposing teams, and in general, to make a nuisance of themselves.

Games are to be enjoyed and one can't do that and still get all worked up over what he thinks is an unfair decision. We can take time off from a hard day of work and study in order to go to a game and relax and have a good time.

Besides, what good does it do to boo the refs? They will only become prejudiced against our team if poor sportsmanship is constantly evident.

Let's put our Christian etiquette to work. Cheer heartily for your team. Be calm if you don't agree with the events of the evening. It pays off in more ways than one.

Last Friday evening the members of Alpha Chi and Gamma Chi went to Antioch Area Theater to attend the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "Patience".

Our lit. societies were also active Tuesday and Wednesday of this past week as they went through the town and the surrounding farm area distributing handbills advertising a scrap drive which took place Thursday and Friday. The money made by selling the scrap material will go into the treasury of the societies to be used for future projects.

Tuesday evening the leaders of Boys Brigade of Grace Baptist Church sponsored a "Dads and Lads Banquet" in the college dining hall.

CORRECTION: Jim Mosher's name should have been listed on the Dean's Honor Roll last week.

CHAPEL SCHEDULE

Monday -- Prayer Meetings

Tuesday ---- Rev. Edward Morrell, pastor, Bible Baptist Church, Bedford Ohio.

Wednesday - Student Council.

Thursday & Friday -- Rev. Lloyd Button, pastor, Riverdale Baptist Church, Flint, Michigan.

What are the advantages and disadvantages of being a dorm supervisor, Miss Fisher?

"I feel that there are more advantages than disadvantages to being a dorm supervisor. It is a real advantage in that I get to know the girls better and have more contact with them. Being around girls with so many different interests and capabilities makes life more interesting. You never know what is going to happen next. It is a real privilege to have the confidence of the girls and to counsel with them concerning their personal problems. Of course life in a dorm has a more serious side as any of you would know if you lived with 36 girls for any length of time. Trying to keep that many girls quiet during study hours can keep you hopping. The only real disadvantage, however, is the necessity for discipline. No one enjoys that task. But the Lord gives strength, understanding and love, and even this disadvantage can become an experience with lasting value."

TOURNAMENTS

CAMPUS WHISPERS

Cedarville College today welcomes to its campus 16 basketball teams who will arrive from five states to participate in the Church Basketball Tournaments.

During the two action-packed days, the sixteen teams will compete for the following four trophy awards: First place, second place, third place, and best sportsmanship. A fifth trophy will be awarded to the most valuable player.

The following churches will be represented: Immanuel, Arcanum, Ohio; First, Blanchester, Ohio; Randolph Street, Charleston, West Virginia; Belden Avenue, Chicago, Illinois; Bethlehem, Cleveland, Ohio; Riversdale, Flint, Michigan; Immanuel, Ft. Wayne, Indiana; First, Harvey, Illinois; LaGrange, LaGrange, Ohio; Northside, Lima, Ohio; East Side, Lorain, Ohio; First, Niles, Ohio; Temple, Portsmouth, Ohio; First, Spencer, Ohio; Blessed Hope, Springfield, Ohio; and First, Rochelle, Illinois.

The officials, Mr. Stoll and John Entner, Mr. Underwood and Mr. Ambrose, Lane Moody and Bob Marcellino, Jack Willetts and David Dautel, will work in those teams during the two days.

We extend a hearty welcome to our visitors. We hope that you enjoy your visit to our campus.

Is Science Hall really inhabited by "birds"? Ask the boys in Room 1.

Hey, Lane and Bob, do you like sour milk? Summer's coming soon! What then??

What is this about the Getty translation of Deuteronomy 32:15?

Ask Sandy Millikin why short girls can "loll" in chairs.

Do you need Date Applications? Ask Grace Willetts any questions you might have.

Ask Miss Hook why she likes 1957 Mercurys.

We think Lester Webster and Dave Thomas should own their own radio station and call it W. W. W. T.T.

Do you know that Cliff Boessel has taken up the sport of archery?

We would like to know why Lane and Bob's window is open 6 inches with a special boardwalk for entering. Hi Rosemary!

Does Tom Shelow own a toy whistle? Why not ask Kathy Stowers?

Why does Keith Coakley call Bob Humphreys C.C.?? It seems Keith has quite a few pet names. Do you agree Harriman Hall?

We hear that Rosemary Smith beat Jerry Thornton at ping-pong!
