BAYLO TO SPEAK AT DORM DEDICATION

Wednesday, November 26, 1958, is the date set for the dedication of the newly erected Faith Hall. Speaker for the dedication is Rev. John Baylo, pastor of the Cedar Hill Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio. Services will begin at 11:00 A. M. in the gym, where the choir will sing two numbers.

The morning schedule of classes will be arranged so that the chapel period will begin at 11:00 instead of 9:45, enabling all students to attend the dedication services.

The office has a supply of announcements and envelopes that students may use to invite friends of the school to the dedication.

F. M. F. CHANGES NAME

At a meeting of the Foreign Missions Fellowship last Thursday it was decided that the name of the fellowship should be changed to Fellowship for World Missions, or F. W. M. This action was taken to widen the scope of the fellowship to include home missions. President Ray Reiner expressed the thought that all students preparing for "full time" Christian service should be interested in home missions, and all are welcome to unite with the group.

The three objectives of the fellowship this year are: 1) to create in the student's of Cedarville College an enduring interest in missions; 2) to pray for missionaries and their needs and 3) to correspond with the missionary assuring him personally of our interest in and prayer for him.

F. W. M. meets each Thursday at 6:45 in the chapel. The group has no membership, but as its name states, is merely a fellowship. Officers for this year are:

Did you hear about Mary Jane? Well, I heard.....Did you see what the Whispering Cedars had to say about.....Many students have asked why the Whispering Cedars no longer carries a gossip column. It is a matter that is quite controversial among the students. We of Whispering Cedars are seeking to make our paper one that will interest the students but most of all one that will glorify the Lord we serve.

The Bible says that a brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city. Many times feelings are hurt because of gossip. So much of the time it really has not been meant to hurt anyone, but it does. Gossip is a terrible thing and is detrimental to every Christian's life. The courses of many lives have been changed because of just a small bit of gossip. Things have been said and done that can never be changed.

Whispering Cedars feels that many hurt feelings have come about because of the gossip column. For this reason we would follow Paul's admonition in I Tim. 4:12, "...be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

Which do we dread the more ---- the world's laugh of scorn if we hold true, or the Lord's look of grief if we break down?

(Luke 22:56, 61, 62)

The Student Council hasn't been too busy so far this year. At the present time they are trying to modify the dating rules that some students seem to be so unhappy about. They are planning a car registration soon in which each student, who lives in the dorm and owns a car or who drives on campus whether he lives in the dorm or not will have to buy a registration sticker for his car.

The officers of the Student Council this year are: President, John Entner; Vice-President, Merlyn Ager; Secretary, Carol Johnson, and Treasurer, Bob Howder.

The representatives to the Student Council from the various classes are as follows: Freshmen Tony Kelburn and Kay Lamb, with Otis Stone as alternate. Sophomores, Jim Entner and Esther Weiss. Juniors, Bob Humpreys and Lucy Lyons. Senior, Dave Thomas and Grace Willetts.

The Student Council is the government of the student, by the student, and for the student. Give them your support.

MODERN DAYS AND OLD LANDMARKS

Cautiously, very cautiously, the horse nears the wall of darkness before him. His rider peers into the darkness as if he might see the perils and dangers which might be awaiting him there; nothing but darkness....darkness. Thus he enters wondering whether there is some thief or robber lurking along the inner walls of the old covered bridge. Sometimes his fears are realized, sometimes he finds nothing, and sometimes he finds only an old stray horse or cow.

The above scene may well have happened many years ago. Covered bridges are now considered antiques, most of which were built between 1770 and 1880. Seventeen of those covered bridges are located in Greene County and around seven are near Cedarville.

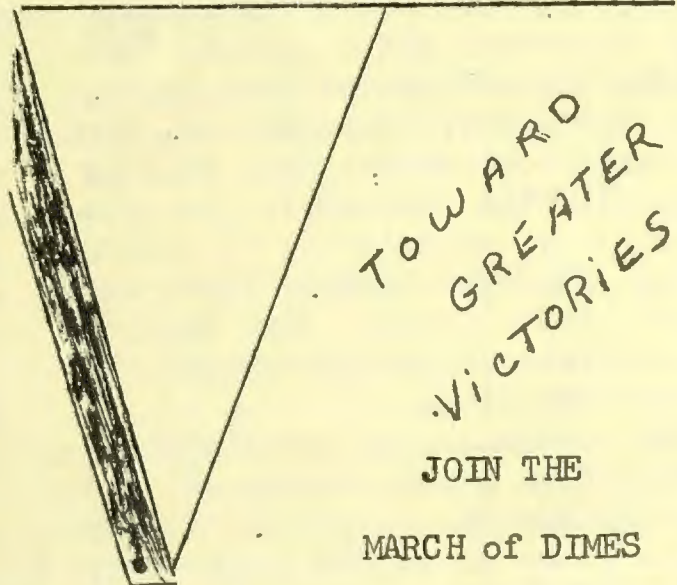

When the covered bridges were built they averaged 80 ft. long, 20 ft. wide and had a driving width of 17 ft. Some of the interior timber of these bridges was hand-hewn. They were built in round, sharp or V-arches. Bolts were hand-wrought. Wide planks were used for the floors and sides with spaces between. Some had shingled gable roofs painted red, but most were left to the weather.

A great matter of controversy is: Why the cover....to protect and strengthen the bridge or to provide sanctuary for the traveler.

Most of the covered bridges in Greene County are made of pine. Some still have painted on them, in large letters, signs such as,

"Walk your horse." Now there are signs which say, "Bridge rate.... 8 miles per hour!"

Today we do not look for dangers and perils in covered bridges. Instead they are looked upon as romanticized landmarks of the past which make us stop and linger awhile on the days of yesterday.

THE ROVING REPORTER

This week the Whispering Cedars roving reporter would like to have you come along with him as he does a little bit of roaming over the campus of Cedarville College.....November is here and most of the students are fast exchanging their light fall coats and sweaters for the heavier clothing to ward off the preciw blows of ol' man winter who is just around the corner. The leaves are nearly all gone from the trees and students are seen hustling from one building to another, especially in the morning, trying to find protection from the chill fall freeze.....

Two of the Freshman are really giving the ping pong paddles a work out this year. They are Dave Smelser and Jim Inman..... Until we meet again in the columns of this paper, this is your roving reporter reminding you to be careful of what you do because he might be spying on you.
