TIMOFEYEW BLASTS ROCK AND ROLL

Nicolay Timofeyew, a tenor soloist and concert artist of world renown, blasted Rock and Roll music as being "The music of degenerates," during an interview by this reporter. Mr. Timofeyew was recently in Cedarville as guest artist for the season's opener of "The Cedarville College Concert Series".

"Rock and Roll is not 'Popular' music," stated Mr. Timofeyew. "I like 'Popular' music -- even cowboy music, which is sung in a monotone. But Rock and Roll is not 'Popular'. It is the music of degenerates."

Of the origin of Rock and Roll, he said, "It originated in night clubs, to satisfy the 'girls' and drunks."

According to the Artist, good music has great value in that "It makes a person more noble, purer, and nearer to God."

Although Mr. Timofeyew was born in Russia, he has pursued his career throughout Europe and the Americas. He feels that his music has received very satisfactory response where-ever he has been, but the most enthusiastic reception was by cannibals in the Amazon jungles, where he was guest of the Colombian government. (However, he was not sure of the response until after the concert, for the natives instead of applauding responded by clicking their teeth.)

Mrs. Adelina Timofeyew, a concert pianist and direct descendent of the composer, Puccini, accompanied her husband, and introduced most of his numbers by telling about the composer and describing the meanings of their compositions.

Several times Mr. Timofeyew deviated from the printed schedule to adapt his concert to the Cedarville audience. These revisions of the schedule, his sense of humor, and the interesting manner of his presentation, as well as his exceptional voice, earned for him the enthusiastic response of the audience.

"The Cedarville College Concert Series" is to bring other outstanding musicians to Cedarville, according to announcements by Mr. Warren Webber, head of the Department of Music. These concerts are financed from the Student Activities Fund.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A TREOWES

I was rudely awakened one morning when a bunch of strangely dressed people began throwing their arms around me. I was in for a lot of surprises that day, although I should have been ready for them. Something like this has happened every year since I was planted at Cedarville College. Only this year I got into the act. Some of the kids must have been walking with their eyes closed and run into some wet paint because when they left me I had green marks all over my bark.

Some of those people must have been from families that were pretty big eaters because they were dressed in potato sacks. From the looks of things some of the students must not have been able to afford two shoes or else there must have been a surplus of shoe boxes on campus.

I must say that the girls weren't very conservative. Imagine wearing four skirts all in one day and all at the same time.

No matter how they looked, they were at least prepared for anything. Some thought it was going to rain, some were looking for snow, and the girls were going to make sure that they didn't get hungry between classes.

Although they didn't seem to care how they looked, they appeared to be very conscious of the appearance of the school. They carried brushes of every size, shape and form and were constantly scrubbing all over the place.

That evening they all filed into the gym and from the looks on their faces I know they were in for a good time.

I hated to see the day end for I can honestly say that I have never been loved so much in my life.

STUDENT COUNCIL CHARGES COLLEGE PRESIDENT WITH TRAFFIC VIOLATION

Rev. James Jeremiah, President of Cedarville College, was recently charged with violation of the Student Council's parking ordinances.

Larry Smith and Dwayne Frank, the Council's representatives who delivered the traffic ticket, asserted that the college president had parked his car outside the area assigned to faculty members.

Mr. Jeremiah gave as his reason for the parking violation, that students' cars were filling the area reserved for the faculty, and left no room for his automobile.

"Officer" Smith stated, "We are starting to crack down on violators, so that the students will know that we aren't bluffing. Zoning is necessary in order that the faculty and visitors might find suitable parking spaces." With the increasing number of cars on campus, parking facilities are becoming very limited.

In commenting on the incident, Council members expressed the opinion that the attitude of the President in accepting the traffic ticket will help to establish the authority of the Student Council in campus traffic control.

The Council members are expected to also keep a look-out for speeders on campus, where the speed limit has been set at 10 miles per hour.

THE THREAD THAT RUNS SO TRUE

The Tread That Runs So True, the homecoming play, will be held November 20 and 21 at 8:15 p. m. The performance will be held at the Cedarcliff School Auditorium. If the tickets are purchased in advance, the cost will be 50¢. The admission at the door will be 75¢.

The play is in three acts and is adapted by Reginald Laurence from the book by Jesse Stuart. The location of the play is the Lonesome Valley Rural Schoolhouse in the Kentucky Mountains. The time of the play is 1925. Dave Earnhart has the lead role.

The director of the homecoming play will be Miss Kantzer.
