Lady Jackets host Oakland City in NCCAA rematch

Cedarville College and Oakland City College meet tonight in the semifinals of the National Christian College Athletic Association District III playoffs. The two schools met last year in a first round game at Oakland City with the Lady Jackets posting a 72-65 win.

Cedarville, 18-8 overall, received a first-round bye as the #2 seed this year. Oakland City, who is 17-7 on the season, is the #3 seed and the Lady Oaks advanced by defeating Concordia (MI) on Tuesday, 77-48.

The Lady Jackets' Amy Zehr leads NCCAA District III in scoring and rebounding, plus she ranks second in field goal percentage. She's averaging 25.4 points and 14.2 rebounds per game while shooting 60.4 percent from the floor. Freshman point guard Melissa Hartman ranks 10th in scoring (14.7) and 5th in assists (4.2).

Oakland City's Missy Taylor, a 6-6 freshman center, is second in the district in scoring (20.0) and rebounding (10.6) plus leads the loop in field goal percentage (.717). Taylor also averages 4.2 blocks per game, while teammate Jessica Morris rates 4th in the district in scoring (17.2).

Oakland City ranks first and Cedarville is second in three separate team categories -- scoring, field goal percentage, and rebounding.

TONIGHT'S OPPONENT -- Founded in 1885, Oakland City College is located in southwestern Indiana, about 35 miles north of Evansville. The school is also a member of NCAA Division II.

NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The NCCAA, with national headquarters in Marion, Indiana, is a miracle organization. In just a few years an idea has become a reality providing Christian student-athletes in Christian colleges both an opportunity for fellowship and competition on the national level.

The NCCAA game plan is to produce true winners; a game plan that will carry an individual through his or her entire life. The game plan is devised to draw out the student-athlete's greatest potential -- body, mind, and spirit.

This game plan is catching on virtually all over the United States. Since its first tournament in 1968, the NCCAA has grown to encompass more than 100 Christian colleges nationwide, both liberal arts and Bible colleges in nature. The participating schools are dedicated not only to the best athletic competition possible, but also to exemplifying Jesus Christ in everything.

The NCCAA believes:

- ** That athletics are a means to an end; not an end in themselves.
- ** That the process is as important as the performance.
- ** That the student-athlete is more important than the program.

NCCAA. It is an organization bringing Christian colleges together not just for athletic competition. More importantly, it is an organization bringing colleges together who have common goals and perspectives in Christian higher education.
