Jackets, Flames meet for first time

Today will mark the first-ever meeting on the hardwood between Cedarville College and Liberty University. While the Yellow Jackets are hoping to regain the momentum they had before the holiday break, the Flames are attempting to regroup from a rugged start.

Liberty, an NCAA Division I member, has dropped all seven of its games thus far, but four of the losses have been by six points or less. The Flames latest outing came one week ago today when they dropped a 61-48 decision in the consolation game of the St. Peter's Tournament to the host school.

Liberty starting guard Anna Barrington is from Columbus where she played her high school ball at Worthington Christian. She is second on the team in scoring with 8.9 points per game. Senior forward Dawn Coleman leads the Flames with 9.1 ppg and an .857 accuracy from the free throw line.

Liberty averages 56.3 points as a team while allowing 67.6. The Flames are shooting .315 from the field, .262 outside the three-point arc, and .614 at the free throw line.

Cedarville has not played for nearly a month. The Jackets closed out an intense pre-holiday schedule with a three-game winning streak.

Freshman forward Karla Kaelber is leading the team in scoring with 13.4 ppg. Sophomore guard Melissa Hartman checks in at 11.8.

The Yellow Jackets are averaging 67.1 points while allowing 67.4. The team's shooting percentages are .411 from the field, .268 outside the three-point line, and .594 at the charity stripe.

Cedarville is without one of its leading rebounders. Freshman reserve center Amy Bathrick is out for at least a week with a leg injury. She is tied with junior Christine Copeland in rebounding at 7.3 per game. Bathrick has made the most of her court time this season. She only averages 15.0 minutes per game but has also chipped in 7.3 ppg.

TODAY'S OPPONENT -- Liberty University, located in Lynchburg, Virginia, is dedicated to excellence in the spiritual realm, in academics, in sports and in the arts. The University was founded in 1971 by Dr. Jerry Falwell, who remains as the school's chancellor. In just 21 years, the institution has grown from a fledgling school to a sprawling 5,300 acre campus with an enrollment of 10,000 students.

As Liberty University continues to grow, the desire is not only to win the game, but to be "Dedicated to Excellence" -- exemplifying Christ in the lives of the team, the coaches and fans.

BEFORE THE BREAK -- Cedarville has not played since December 7 when they posted their third straight victory with a 59-51 win at Bluffton. The Jackets bounced back from a four-point halftime deficit for the victory. They held the Beavers to 28.3 percent field goal shooting for the game.

Melissa Hartman scored all 17 of her points in the second half to lead the way. Christine Copeland tallied 15 points while Karla Kaelber added 10 points and 11 rebounds.

GAME RESCHEDULED -- Cedarville was set to open the Mid-Ohio Conference schedule two days ago at Rio Grande, but the contest was postponed because of snow. It will be made up on Thursday, January 27 at Rio with tipoff at 5:00 p.m. The change will force the Lady Jackets to face the defending MOC champs twice in five days.

UPCOMING GAMES -- Cedarville will begin Mid-Ohio Conference play on Saturday at Urbana. The Jackets swept both games with the Blue Knights last year and lead the season series 14-9.

After travelling to Shawnee State next Tuesday for another MOC game, Cedarville will host Wilmington one week from today in a non-conference tilt.
