Classified: The Secret Career of Mary Golda Rosa, Cherokee Aerospace Engineer is an inspiring biography about a determined and respected woman in the STEM field. Some of the difficulties that a woman faces in a “man’s field” are mentioned, however, the author chose to focus more on the respect that was given to Rosa. The illustrations are bold with distinct lines and colors and common items from the time give an authentic look into the past. The content is geared towards girls, but everyone can enjoy learning about Mary Golda Rosa.
