THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR, NO. 8.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1913.

PRICE, $1.00 A YEAR

Cedarville College. AN APPRECIATION.

The munificent bequest of $90,000.00 by the late James Archer to Cedarville College prompts a word at this time in behalf of this very worthy educational institution.

THE LOCATION

is in itself an attractive and strategic one. Lying in the garden spot of the state in a country rich and progressive with a people intelligent and loyal there is no reason why this college should not grow in numbers and influence every year. The ease with which this institution can be reached from any point East of the Mississippi or West of New England is well understood by all. Cedarville with 1000 inhabitants exclusive of the college students has all the healthfulness and restfulness of the country, while at the same time it has the conveniences of town life and is within easy reach of Xenia, Columbus, Springfield and Dayton.

THE MORAL ENVIRONMENT

also is an exceedingly attractive feature of the community life, especially to parents whose children are to be sent away from home for an education. There is not only the absence of the saloon, the dance hall, the theater, but a spirit prevails the community, brought about by the wise provision of proper and more elevating pastimes and recreations, which remove the popularity of and desire for such things. Cedarville is by no means a dull or lonely place, but quite the contrary, and the social life of the community is constantly maintained on a high moral plane.

THE FACULTY

The college is exceedingly fortunate in the personnel of its teachers. Dr. McChesney, the Vice-president, who is so widely and favorably known to the church and the country at large, assisted by a fine corps of teachers is giving to the institution a spirit and tone clearly noticeable in the number of students who go out to pursue the noblest callings of life. Teachers, preachers, missionaries are going out to bless the world by useful consecrated lives and incoming students in this environment are let into the highest ambitions for a life of service; every member of the faculty is a Christian whose aim first of all is the development of character; the supreme thought of God for man, and the rounding out of useful lives, realizing that the world needs not so much smart men as men with moral stamina; that education is a means to an end, and that end, lofty character. The professors and instructors are earnest Christian men and women and the personal contact with such means much in the establishing of life and building of character.

Students breathe in the moral and spiritual atmosphere of a college no less truly than they breathe in the air about them. Just as there are regions where only the strongest and most robust can live without contracting fever, so there are colleges where it is the exceptional boy who will maintain his faith in an unpurified and where there is little probability that the boy who miscalculates a non-Christian will graduate a Christian. And just as there are regions where the climatic conditions are favorable to health, so there are colleges where it is comparatively easy to lead a Christian life and where it is the exceptional boy who passes out of their halls without having yielded himself to the Lord and Master of all. We here place our finger on that which for the most part explains why few of the graduates of some colleges, but the majority of the graduates of others, are pronounced Christians.

Now it is true a good general education may be secured at the secular schools and universities. These all have men in their faculties who are famous throughout the country for their proficiency in their chosen branch of knowledge. But it is a well known fact that in most of the secular schools and universities of our day rationalism and unbelief have full sway; clearly revealed truths of the Bible are simply ignored or set aside as absolute superstition. Even many of the Christian colleges have bowed the knee to the modern Babel of science falsely so-called and are "blowing at the Rock of Ages." Men entering the ministry from such institutions who are clearly "men of the world" and not "men of God" are a serious menace to the church. Let us cherish and foster the Christian college where the secular sciences receive their true light only from the eternal Word, where also secular knowledge is inculcated to the glory of Him who is supreme wisdom in heaven and earth.

ENDOWMENT AND EQUIPMENT

This large endowment and a more complete equipment is demanded by this most worthy institution goes without saying, and every friend of Cedarville College ought to heartily join in a movement to round up another hundred thousand for endowment. Speaking with a prominent Christian gentleman recently about this institution he remarked, "It is doing more for the community than the churches even," and give it the loudest praise. So say we all who know her history, "She is worthy." From the President down to the humblest Freshman, from the Alumni and the larger circle of Christian friends let the spirit of loyalty and response be heard as never before.

A FORWARD MOVEMENT

should be started at once. Let an emergency fund of three to five thousand dollars be raised in the immediate community (the college adds five to ten dollars to the value of every acre of land for miles around and helps the business of Cedarville) to continue for five years. Advertise the college and by the end of that period let the Board see that another hundred thousand dollars is added to the endowment and the college will be a permanent and stable institution as it well deserves to be. If you wish to safe-guard your children in the formative period of life, send them to this safe, sane, conservative, yet progressive institution at Cedarville. If you wish to wisely invest your money, contribute to this school, and in so doing you will have a share in the training of hundreds of young people who will in the future years become leaders in church and state, and you will live on and on with influence of the college and so lay up treasure in heaven. Webster, in the celebrated Dartmouth case before the Supreme Court, said: "She may be little, but there are those that love her," and so we say concerning Cedarville, "She may be little, but there are those that love her," and by the grace of God and through the liberality of the people she is going to grow larger.

NEW PASTOR'S INSTALLATION.

At a meeting of the Xenia Presbytery at the Theological Seminary Monday morning at 10 o'clock plans for the installation of Rev. Huber Ferguson, the new pastor of the Second U. B. Church were formulated. It was decided to have the installation Thursday February 27 at 2 p. m. at the Second Church.

Rev. J. S. E. McMichael of Cedarville will preside and preach the installation sermon.

Dr. C. M. Rabele of Clifton will deliver the charge to the pastor, and Dr. J. A. Henderson, of Sugar Creek, will give the charge to the people.

It was also planned at the presbytery meeting to hold the regular spring meeting of the presbytery a bit earlier than usual in order to hold it at Jamestown in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the pastorate of Dr. W. A. Robb.

Dugan Case Again Continued.

The cases of Michael Dugan, Xenia, were continued Tuesday for the third time, due to sickness of the defendant. All costs due to the continuation must be taxed to the defendant whether found guilty or not guilty. Dr. Hawkins, the well known colored physician in Xenia, has filed papers concerning the health of the defendant but unless there is some indication for improvement by next Tuesday, Dr. B. E. McClellan will make an examination and report to the court. The case was finally continued until Friday, February 22.

The cases of Thomas, Jack and Smith, all of Xenia, were continued until Tuesday.

To Cedarville Or Fairfield.

"Isn't it true Smith, that you ran a blind tiger?" Inquired Prosecutor Johnson in the trial of Ike Smith for manslaughter Friday.

"I object," interposed Chas. Whitmer attorney for the defense, "and I suggest, Your Honor," he continued "that if this is a bootlegging case we are trying, the Prosecutor be allowed to adjourn it to Cedarville or Fairfield."—Xenia Republican.

We all enjoyed and were greatly helped by the excellent sermon last Sabbath.

Next Sabbath our pastor will preach the last of the series, especially for young people. His theme will be: A question of the Ages. Enlisting with Christ. Come and hear it.

The following were pleasant visitors at the parsonage last week: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rife, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fluke, and Mr. John Buick and sister.

There are forty-five more Sabbaths in this year. Here's a guess as to which members of the Sabbath School will "make good" every one of them.

Bruce Anderson, John and William Collins, and David Bradtke were among the number from Cedarville College, who attended the Oratorical Contest at Muskingum college last Friday evening.

On Wednesday, February 12, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patton of Snyder's Mills, Mr. Thomas Mitchell and Miss Frances Patton were quietly married by Rev. Eckles. Congratulations.

Might Prove Arson Charge.

Julia Jones, better known among the Rat Row fraternity as "Luck", came near having her domicile burned last Saturday night or early the next morning. Some one discovered that the house was ablaze at the outside a can of oil and waste being placed so that it would burn freely. It was also found that the house at one corner had been given a bath with coal oil. The fire was extinguished without much trouble and was thought to be out but a couple of hours later the house was filled with smoke due to fire between the plastering and weather boarding. There is no origin known for any attempt to burn the building.

CARD OF THANKS.

The English language is very copious, yet it can not produce adequate terms and phrases with which to shade thoughts distinctively expressive of our most profound gratitude for the kindness shown us by the good people of Cedarville who on Tuesday evening the 7th so agreeably surprised us with a great many useful articles of food and a handsome purse.

Mrs. Maurice Peterson and Mrs. Alfred Kennedy were the prime factors in consummating the surprise, ably assisted by the citizens both white and colored. And that our joy might be completed an automobile was on the 9th sent by Brother Maurice Peterson to Cedarville to convey our family to Cedarville that they might participate in the closing of the revival then in progress.

Many thanks to the members and friends of Cedarville.

God Bless You
Robert J. Robinson,
Pastor A. M. E. Church, Cedarville, Ohio.

Death Of Mrs. Ellis.

Mrs. Mary Ellis, wife of Squire Aaron Ellis, of Clifton, passed away Saturday afternoon after a short illness with pneumonia. The deceased was 70 years of age and had been a resident of Clifton for many years. Beside her husband she leaves four children, Mrs. Charles Dean, of Cedarville, Mrs. Ida Goe, Mechanicsburg, and two children in California. The funeral services were held at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian church of Clifton, and were conducted by the pastor of that church. The burial was in the Clifton cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

A called meeting of the alumni of Cedarville High School was held in the Mayor's office at 7:30 p. m. last Thursday, for the purpose of effecting an organization or reorganization of the same. Some years ago there was an organization of the local H. S. Alumni but for various reasons it was discontinued. Over 250 diplomas have been granted since 1877. The desire of many members of the later classes found expression in the meeting Thursday night. There were about 40 alumni present. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. Kenneth Pitt '10 and Mr. Geo. Siegler '08 was elected temporary President and Miss Betha Stormont '07 Sec'y. Committees were appointed to form a constitution, make nominations for permanent officers and to solicit the names of all eligible persons for membership. These committees will hand in their reports at the next meeting which will be held at the mayor's office at 7:30 p. m. Thursday Feb. 27th at which time a permanent organization will probably be effected. While there are many minor difficulties to be met in forming an Alumni Association and in keeping it in good running order yet it is to be hoped that these may be readily overcome, for such an association will be worth while to those who have graduated from C. H. S. if only for the opportunities it presents for renewing the friendships of school days.

And there are larger opportunities in Cedarville than this for a H. S. Alumni Association, not the least of which if we may be allowed to make the suggestion, is the part it might play in securing a new school building for Cedarville. Clifton, Selma, So. Charleston, Jamestown, Port William, in fact nearly all the towns around Cedarville have modern buildings and equipment adequate for their needs. Why shouldn't Cedarville be in the procession? Doubtless there are many other ways in which a C. H. S. A. would be beneficial to the town and community. If you are interested and eligible for membership come out to the next meeting at the Mayor's Office at 7:30 p. m. Thursday Feb. 27th.

Cannot Figure Denver's Chances.

U. S. Press Association Special Washington, Feb. 20.—Onlookers at the Capitol, including the Members of the Congressional delegation, have started a boom for Representative Denver of Wilmington, for a position in the Wilson Cabinet. They hold that Ohio is entitled to a Cabinet place in view of the showing made in the Presidential election, and have united upon Mr. Denver, who is to retire from Congress on March 4, as a man who would represent the state worthily, and add strength to the administration. As the makeup of the new Cabinet is still largely a matter of guesswork it is impossible to say what Mr. Denver's chances are.

THEATRE NOTES.

Men of courage braved death in the heart of African jungles for more than a year to secure the motion pictures of the Paul J. Rainey African hunt which will be shown at the Fairbanks theatre, Springfield, Feb. 24-25 and 28.

Mr. Rainey, a millionaire sportsman of Cleveland, O., undertook his big game hunt first merely from the point of sport. Accompanying his expedition was a large corps of expert photographers and motion picture camera men. At every turn these photographers were in the thick of the danger and as a result they have films that give the best and most natural picture of African life that can be obtained. The pictures are graphically described by a lecturer.

The Civil War Through the Camera

Before the war, Mathew Brady was the great photographer of the United States. When this war broke out, he gave up his big business and went into the conflict armed, not with a gun, but with his precious camera. He got permission from Lincoln, he went under protection of the Secret Service.
Into every place where the fight was thick, where the action was strenuous,
he appeared and his camera, clicked, clicked, clicked its undying record of
"in a sumptuous volume 5 1/2 x 11 1/2 inches.

Three quarters of a million dollars were spent before this work was ready for the public—yet—now—if you order today you can have the following low prices:

Rich red, half leather stamped in gold—price $4.50
Heavy red cloth stamped in gold—price $3.50
