MOC PLAY REACHES HALFWAY POINT

With 7 games down and 7 yet to be played the Cedarville College Yellow Jackets hold a 2-game lead over Urbana, Rio Grande, and Walsh. Playing without the services of starter Drew Baker, the Jackets have continued their winning way. Rio Grande proved to be a stiff challenge, though, as the Redmen lead by Watson MacDonald's 31 points and 11 rebounds, lost to Cedarville 94-93 in overtime. The game, played before a packed house at Cedarville, was a see-saw battle all of the way. Neither team lead by more than 6 points as both coaches made adjustments and shuffled players in and out of the game.

Urbana, playing without Lonnell Currie due to illness, knocked off Ohio Dominican and Mount Vernon Nazarene. The Blue Knights' Willie Flunoy has made 17 straight free throws without a miss.

Tony Harvey continues to lead Walsh College in scoring. Harvey had games of 19 points and 22 points as the Cavaliers defeated Ohio Dominican and Mount Vernon.

Despite losing to Urbana Mount Vernon received outstanding performances from Tim Cornelly and Glen Noggle. Cornelly scored 25 points and Noggle 28 points in the loss to the Blue Knights.

Malone, lead by Ron Wilczak's 25.9 points per game and Ed Yarborough at 18.6 points per game, hosts Cedarville in a critical game. The Pioneers need to win in order to keep their hopes alive for the post-season MOC tourney.

NOTE: The Malone-Walsh game played last week was not the Mayor's Cup game. The Mayor's Cup will be played at a later date.
