TIFFIN, Ohio -- Walsh University wrapped up the AMC men's tennis tournament title at Tiffin University while sweeping the singles and doubles titles. The Cavaliers, who claimed their fourth straight regular season championship, will head to the NAIA Nationals in West Palm Beach, Florida on May 24-29. Walsh players went head-to-head in the final matches with No. 1 seed Ryan Contini defeating No. 2 Matt Titchner 6-3, 6-0 for the singles crown. In the doubles final, No. 1 Contini and Lee Nusser were awarded the win over No. 3 Titchner and Brian Siler by default. Singles players who advanced to the quarterfinals and doubles players who reached the semifinals were named to the All-AMC Team.
