Lady Jackets Focus on Cancer Awareness

The 2007-08 Cedarville University women's basketball team has recently been affected in several different ways with the disease of breast cancer. As a result, the team is striving to make a difference and help raise funds to fight this terrible disease. All this weekend, but especially on Friday night, the Lady Jackets will be selling pink "Cedarville Basketball" t-shirts for $5 each as a fundraiser. Thanks to a generous donation, all proceeds will go directly toward a special fund which has been selected by the team.

Proceeds will be sent to the Stefanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research at the James Cancer Hospital at The Ohio State University.

In early 1998, Stefanie Spielman was told....at the age of 30....that she had breast cancer. She has now survived three bouts with this cancer and believes that education is the best weapon against this disease, and that research is the key to eliminating it. That is why she and her husband, former OSU football star and All-Pro NFL linebacker, Chris Spielman, established the Stefanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research at The James. They pledged to raise $1 million to be dedicated to breast cancer research at the Comprehensive Center – Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute at The Ohio State University. Although this goal has been surpassed, your help is still needed in the fight against breast cancer. The fund has raised approximately $3 million since 1999.

Please help the Lady Jackets as they seek to raise funds and in a small way show God's love and concern for others. The team's goal is $1,101.

And Coach Martin adds, "If pink is not your color....right now GREEN will also work, so all donations of any amount will be gratefully accepted!"

The Lady Jackets thank you for your support and assistance with this special effort.

Lady Jacket Honorary Coach....

Dr. Chris Miller

Interim Chair, Department of Biblical Studies

"I have chosen Dr. Chris Miller as my honorary coach because of the great impact he has had on my life. I first met Dr. Miller when I took his Old Testament class my junior year. In a class of 150, he made the conscious effort to know each student by name. He challenged me to think outside the box and opened my eyes to see Christ in the Old Testament as I further developed my relationship with Christ. The past couple years, he has been so encouraging to me as he always takes time out of his day to talk. He has also been a prayer warrior for my family and I through tough times. Dr. Miller, thank you so much for being Christ to not only me but everyone that you meet. Thank you for your dedication to Cedarville University and for your constant encouragement to me. It is an honor for you to be here tonight."

Selected by Mary Stockdale
