NATURALLY

BY DOMINIQUE JACKSON

wouldn't you much rather learn from the wrens, how to sing, what to sing, when to sing?

wouldn't you care to take lessons from
fog on proper
misdirection?

wouldn't it be just
the loveliest time
if chrysanthemums taught us their glow?

wouldn't you sell your
senses to lie beneath
the vault, mastering
movement and stillness?

wouldn't wonder seize
your breath if tides
could guide our spastic feet?

sit under nature's
plain instruction, love her class is always in session
