Lady Jackets Focus on Breast Cancer Awareness

The 2008-09 Cedarville University women's basketball team is again striving to make a difference and help raise funds to fight breast cancer.

Barb Cross, wife of CU head athletic trainer Chris Cross, is one of those battling this disease who is closely connected to the Lady Jackets.

Here is her story:

On October 2, 2007, I was diagnosed with stage II breast cancer. This was not a battle that I intended on fighting, but a battle that I am able to fight when I put all my trust in God. He placed this obstacle in my path for a reason, and He did not leave me stranded to fight it all alone. Over the past year, I have seen God's grace and love pour out as He has provided everything that my family and I have needed in order to win this battle.

I began the fight with surgery last November to remove the cancer, then six months of chemotherapy to attack the lingering cancer cells throughout my body. I underwent six weeks of radiation to zap any remaining cells in my chest wall, and I am currently completing a year of targeted therapy to attack the specific type of cancer cells I had.

It has been a long journey and I am winning this battle against breast cancer, but I could never have done it alone. God carried me through and continues to carry me through to the end. With the support of my husband, my family, friends, church and community, I have come out of this stronger in my faith and trust in our Lord.

Many thanks go out to everyone who had a hand in my recovery through prayers, cards, support, words of encouragement, dinners that were delivered every day, the CU women's basketball team for keeping my house clean, child care that was provided during my many trips to Columbus, and so many other thoughtful deeds!

I cannot begin to say how God has carried me through this journey other than – Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

The Lady Jackets thank you for your support and assistance with this special effort to raise funds to help the fight against this terrible disease.

Lady Jacket Honorary Coach....

Dr. Luke Tse Associate Professor of Psychology

"I have had Dr. Tse for several classes during my time at Cedarville. What I appreciate about Dr. Tse is that he is one of the most kind-spirited professors I've ever had. It is clear that he cares for each and every one of his students. I really appreciate how he is willing to welcome students into his home and cook them a fantastic meal in order to get to know them better. As a result of Dr. Tse's personal example and teaching, I am confident in my ability to help people using Biblically-based principles of psychology."
