8th Season
Record: 218-51 (.810)
AMC Coach of the Year 2003, 04, 05, 06

Kirk Martin is in his eighth season as head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University and has built the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country. His teams have averaged 28 wins per season during his tenure.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. Cedarville rallied in regulation to force overtime and defeat Hope International, 80-77 in the championship game. Martin was named the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Martin guided CU to five straight NAIA Division II national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets sport a 14-5 record at the event with a Final Four achievement in 2007, an Elite Eight effort in 2006 and a Sweet 16 showing in their initial appearance in 2003.

Martin's club owned the American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2003 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Cedarville was rated No. 5 in the final 2006-07 NAIA Division II national poll en route to a 27-7 record. They held down the No. 1 position in 2005-06 which was the second straight year that the Lady Jackets accomplished the feat. They rolled to a 29-4 record overall which included a 19-game winning streak.

The Lady Jackets nearly met their ultimate goal of a national title in 2004-05 while posting a 35-2 record. Other highlights that season included an NAIA No. 1 ranking for the final six weeks of the season, a 22-game winning streak, and a second straight 18-0 run through the AMC South Division.

Martin's 2003-04 ball club produced a memorable campaign while being ranked as high as No. 2 in NAIA Division II. Among the team's many achievements were setting a school record for the most wins in a season with a 35-3 record, rolling to a perfect 18-0 league mark, and assembling a school-record 23-game winning streak.

Cedarville had a 31-3 overall record in the 2002-03 season, posted a 21-game winning streak, claimed the AMC South Division with a 17-1 mark, and won the inaugural AMC championship game. The Jackets were ranked as high as No. 3 in the country and qualified for the NAIA Division II national tournament for the first time in school history where the team advanced to the Sweet 16.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish 4th in the 19-team American Midwest Conference. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25. Cedarville qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of the last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Martin serves as an assistant professor in the Department of Exercise and Sport Science at Cedarville. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a 2002 graduate of the University and a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, along with their daughter; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, resides in Beavercreek, Ohio with her husband, Bryan; and son, Brent, is a senior at the University and a member of the Yellow Jacket tennis team.

Lori Huckaby
Assistant Coach

Phone: 937-766-4483
Email: lhuckaby@cedarville.edu

Lori Huckaby is in her fourth year as an assistant coach on Kirk Martin's staff. She joined Cedarville University from Hudsonville, Mich. where she was an assistant basketball coach to her brother, Scott, at Freedom Baptist High School for two seasons.

Huckaby has 13 years of teaching and coaching experience at the high school level. As a head varsity coach, she compiled career records of 109-73 in basketball, 110-35 in volleyball over six years, 49-21 in four years of softball, and 41-8-3 in four years of field hockey.

Huckaby was at Timberlake Christian School in Lynchburg, Va. from 1995-98 where she was the head girls coach in basketball, volleyball, and softball. She spent 1992 through 1995 at Greenbrier Christian Academy in Chesapeake, Va. serving as head girls volleyball coach and she was an assistant in basketball and softball. She began her coaching career as the varsity girls basketball and field hockey coach at Baptist High School in Haddon Heights, N.J. from 1988-92 where she captured Tri-State Christian championships in both sports.

Huckaby was an NCCAA Division II All-American point guard during her playing career at Baptist Bible College in Clarks Summit, Pa. where she graduated as the Defenders' third all-time leading scorer with 1,554 points. She holds the school record for most assists in one game (17), most assists in a season (219), and the highest assist per game average (9.5). Three times she was selected to the All-North Atlantic Christian Conference First Team and was a two-time MVP. She led her team to three NCCAA National Tournaments where she was also named to the National All-Tournament Team.

Huckaby is a 1987 graduate of BBC where she earned a degree in Bible/Secondary Education Physical Education. She later earned a Master of Education/Sports Management degree in 2001 from Lynchburg College in Virginia. Lori is single and lives in Cedarville with her two dogs.

Dan Schetter
Assistant Coach

Phone: 937-766-4127
Email: schetter@cedarville.edu

Dan Schetter is in his eighth season as a member of the Lady Jacket basketball coaching staff. He is primarily responsible for working with the post players and organizing the team's strength and conditioning program.

Schetter retired July 1, 2007 as a Chief Master Sergeant from the Ohio Air National Guard serving nearly 40 years in the military. He is presently employed as a part-time supervisor in the University Fitness Center.

Schetter is a 1967 graduate of Northeastern High School in Clark County, a 1974 graduate of the USAF Non-Commissioned Officer Academy in Knoxville, Tenn., and a 1979 graduate of the USAF Senior Non-Commissioned Academy in Montgomery, Ala.

A native of Springfield, Ohio, Dan and his wife, Sheila, reside in Clark County. They have two married children. A son, Kyle, lives in Clark County with his wife, Jennifer, and their two sons. Their daughter, Christina Albright, lives in St. Paris, Ohio with her husband, Brandon, and her four children. 4

Mauch: tragedy turned to praise

by Ryan Mosher
1/28/2009

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Cedarville women's basketball sophomore Caitlyn Mauch should not be playing for the Lady Jackets. In fact, she shouldn't even be alive. Two days after the Alter High School star turned 19 her world was turned upside down. During the spring semester of Mauch's freshman year at Thomas More College in Kentucky she suffered a head injury that cracked her skull in two places.

"We were in Sumo wrestling costumes and I fell backwards and hit my head on concrete," she said. Mauch spent eight days in a hospital bed while her brain bled from four of its lobes.

"My friends said it sounded like a shotgun, or even a bowling ball hitting the floor," Caitlyn says as she recalls her accident. She lost her sense of smell, as well as hearing in her right ear. The doctors were shocked she recovered so quickly. She left the hospital after those eight days and went home for a few weeks.

She returned to Thomas More the next year and participated in the best season in school history. The Saints were undefeated in the regular season with a perfect 28-0 record. They won their first NCAA tournament game before suffering their first loss all season in the second round.

"We all knew we should have won that game, it was tough to lose it," Mauch described that team's last game. She enjoyed her time on that team, but after her head injury she had different priorities than she had when she first arrived on campus.

"My accident was the start of four to five months of God changing me. I didn't want to do the same things I used to, my passions were changed." During those months of recovering from her injury Mauch had recommitted her life to Christ.

Caitlyn Mauch

"This wasn't just about basketball anymore, it was about my life. I wasn't around people that cared about the same things I cared about." All of these things were coming together to move her away from Thomas More and towards Cedarville.

"I really didn't know much about Cedarville other than it was a Christian school." However, over the months of recovery God kept dropping hints.

"I knew that I wanted to switch my major to social work, I knew what I wanted to do with my life. Over and over God kept saying Cedarville in different ways. I wanted to be closer to home, to my family and my fiancé Josiah; I wanted a school that had good basketball, and I wanted a school that had a social work major."

Caitlyn remembers telling God, "Here's where I'll get you, if Cedarville has social work, then I will go." It just so happened that Cedarville did have social work and Mauch knew where she needed to be.

Now more than halfway through the Lady Jackets' season, Mauch wouldn't change a thing. "Everything is better than my life before, the girls on the team are different than my old teammates. Playing for God is incredibly different than playing for yourself."

Mauch describes the Lady Jackets as having a constant presence of God amongst the team. "We pray before practice, after games with the opposing teams, we share our faith with them."

The Lady Jackets are 14-5 and riding a four-game winning streak. "We've grown so much from the beginning of the season. Our confidence, understanding of how to play with each other is better than it was when we started the year."

But basketball isn't the only thing changing in Mauch's life. "God reveals Himself through prayer constantly, I recognize Him in a different way than I did a year ago."

Mauch has much to be grateful for after her accident. "I should have been dead, but God didn't allow it. I'm here to bring people to Him."

The daughter of a computer systems analyst and a NICU nurse, Mauch is planning a June 13th wedding to fiancé, Josiah.
