SUMMER

Amanda Benton

2 women in hairnets
Turn to each other and shout secretly
Over the factory's roar
Glaring at me
As I stop my cart
To make the machine operator laugh.

After lunch,
I am reprimanded by
My lab supervisor
Who was notified that I
Wasted company time
Somewhere along line 12.

Now it is October
And I am back at school.

But the women of line 12
Are still there,
Packing bags of Cheese Nips into boxes
And ensuring that the temporary help
Never drop out of college.
